Race For The Millennium A Challenge For Church And Society:

Race for the Millennium David Haslam,1996 This study of how churches have approached racial justice gives numerous examples of racism in Britain both past and present Having considered the ecumenical church response and perspectives from the USA the book reflects on the theology of racism justice and reconciliation

An Amazing Journey Glynne Gordon-Carter,2003 How has the Church responded to the challenge to combat institutional racism To what extent are the issues being addressed by church schools clergy and parishes How are theological colleges and courses responding to the importance of preparing and training ordinands for leadership in multi cultural multi ethnic and multi faith Britain These are some of the questions that have challenged the Church of England in its struggle to understand racism and the way that it is used by institutions maybe unwittingly to disadvantage minority ethnic people The Stephen Lawrence Inquiry Report acted as a catalyst and forced the Church to take a fresh look at itself with respect to its record in combating institutional racism This book gives new insights into the Church of England s response to race issues and presents a fascinating view of the Church at the start of the twenty first century It highlights examples of good practice and demonstrates the progress that has been made wince the publication in 1991 of Seeds of Hope a seminal report of a survey on combating racism in the Church of England

The Passing Winter Committee For Minority Ethnic Anglican Concerns,1996 This sequel to Seeds of Hope records the progress which has been made by the Church of England in the task of combating racism The book identifies good practice and provides support to dioceses which are finding the task of addressing the issues difficult

Decolonizing the Body of Christ D. Joy,J. Duggan,2012-06-14 The first book in the new Postcolonialism and Religions series offers a preview of the series focus on multireligious indigenous and transnational scholarly voices In this book the once arch enemies of Religious studies and Postcolonial theory become critical companions in shared analysis of major postcolonial themes

Introducing James H. Cone Anthony G Reddie,2022-07-31 It is rarely the case that an intellectual movement can point to an individual figure as its founder Yet James Cone has been heralded as the acknowledged genius and the creator of black theology In nearly 50 years of published work James Cone redefined the intent of academic theology and defined a whole new movement in intellectual thought In Introducing James H Cone Anthony Reddie offers us an accessible and engaging assessment of Cone s legacy from his first book Black Theology and Black Power in 1969 through to his final intellectual autobiography I Said I wasn t Gonna Tell Nobody in 2018 It is an indispensable field guide to perhaps the greatest black theologian of recent times

Voices from the Borderland Chris Shannahan,2016-04-01 Urban theology affirms the importance of context notably the place of the city in theological reflection However it has often been confined to particular contexts or theological camps and thus failed to engage with the fluidity of contemporary urban societies Voices from the Borderland presents an overview of urban theology arguing that the twenty first century demands a dialogical model of theology that enacts progressive change The volume draws on studies of the multicultural and multi faith British urban experience and situates these within the wider international context The works of influential theologians in the field are examined and the dialogue between theology globalisation post colonialism postmodernism and post religious urban culture critically explored The volume is unique in bringing together urban liberation theology urban black theology reformist urban theology globalisation urban theology and post religious urban theology
