Race Gender And The Education Of Teachers:

Race, Gender and the Education of Teachers Iram Siraj-Blatchford, 1993 Despite growing concern over the level of racism and sexism in schools recruitment and retention of ethnic minority students into teacher education remains very low Reports by the UK Commission for Racial Equality and the Equal Opportunities Commission continue to show poor career prospects of women and ethnic minority groups in education This book aims to fill the gap in research and writing on the practical and theoretical approaches to achieving race and gender equality at all levels of teacher education Intersectionality of

Race, Ethnicity, Class, and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education Norvella P. Carter, Michael Vavrus, 2018-04-16

In Intersectionality of Race Ethnicity Class and Gender in Teaching and Teacher Education the editors bring together scholarship that employs an intersectionality approach to conditions that affect public school children teachers and teacher educators Chapter authors use intersectionality to examine group identities not only for their differences and experiences of oppression but also for differences within groups that contribute to conflicts among groups This collection moves beyond single dimension conceptions that undermines legal thinking disciplinary knowledge and social justice Intersectionality in this collection helps complicate static notions of race ethnicity class and gender in education Hence this book stands as an addition to research on educational equity in relation to institutional systems of power and privilege Gender, Race, and Class in the Lives of Today's Teachers Lata Murti, Glenda M. Flores, 2021-09-21 This volume explores the professional experiences of a vast array of educators through a series of research essays that focus on the interplay of gender race class and sexualities as well as how these dynamics influence the educators teaching The volume illuminates this interplay not only in traditional classroom settings but also in non traditional contexts such as prisons and juvenile detention facilities family education dual language immersion programs early childhood education and higher education including teacher training programs The concluding chapter written by the editors provides general recommendations for recruiting and retaining a more diverse teacher workforce worldwide From autoethnographies to pláticas testimonios and in depth interviews this qualitatively rich volume offers powerful and timely insights about the experiences of teachers who are too often overlooked Gilda L. Ochoa Professor of Chicana o Latina o Studies This illuminating book centers educators intersectional subjectivities and lived experiences bringing to life the radical possibilities of transformative education It is a much needed resource for anyone invested in understanding and advancing education as a catalyst for equity and social justice Lorena Garcia Associate Professor of Sociology Latin American and Latino Studies Gender, Race and the National Education Association Wayne J. Urban, 2020-08-26 Urban presents the NEA in its historical context turning a fair and clear eye on this powerful and controversial organization and using this context to both criticize and commend The culmination of a three decade long study this unique volume presents an unusually thorough and much needed holistic view of the NEA Understanding the

Intersections of Race, Gender, and Gifted Education Nicole M. Joseph, 2020-06-01 This book seeks to understand the complexities of talented and high performing Black girls and women in STEM across the P 20 trajectory Analogously this volume aims to understand the intersections between giftedness its identification and racial gender and academic discipline identities The dearth of literature on this subject suggests that Black girls and women have unique experiences in gifted programming in large part because of factors associated with gifted programs in general Key factors affecting Black students and Black girls in particular are identification and underrepresentation These factors can be shaped by interlocking systems of racism classism gender bias and other forms of oppression Teachers in the P 12 educational system are the first identifiers for gifted programming and look for student characteristics such as natural leadership inquisitiveness and students desire to be in gifted programs Because many Black girls are stereotyped and teachers rarely have deep understanding of cultural differences Black girls are less likely to be identified for gifted programming More specifically Black girls lack of representation in gifted mathematics or STEM programs contradicts research that finds that girls reach several developmental advantages ahead of boys For example research has shown that girls talk and read earlier receive higher grades in elementary school and drop out less often than boys Other studies have also shown that Black girls have higher mathematics career aspirations than their White and Latina female peers yet they are rarely represented in gifted math and Advanced Placement AP math programs Furthermore the underrepresentation of urban low income African American students in gifted education is related to low test scores student and family choice a lack of teacher referral and a mismatch between home and school cultures Some high performing Black girls and women are participating in programs that nurture and support their racial and gender identities and contribute to them developing into strong and efficacious girls and women who have agency in their lives This anthology includes studies that illustrate the complexities of intersectionality in various STEM programs while also demonstrating that increasing access to STEM for Black girls and women is doable

Race and Gender in the Classroom Laurie Cooper Stoll, 2013-07-22 Race and Gender in the Classroom explores the paradoxes of education race and gender as Laurie Cooper Stoll follows eighteen teachers carrying out their roles as educators in an era of post racial and post gendered politics Because there are a number of contentious issues converging simultaneously in these teachers everyday lives this is a book comprised of several interrelated stories On the one hand this is a story about teachers who care deeply about their students but are generally oblivious to the ways in which their words and behaviors reinforce dominant narratives about race and gender constructing for their students a worldview in which race and gender do not matter despite their students lived experiences demonstrating otherwise This is a story about dedicated overworked teachers who are trying to keep their heads above water while meeting the myriad demands placed upon them in a climate of high stakes testing This is a story about the disconnect between those who mandate educational policy like superintendents and school boards and the teachers who are expected to implement those policies often with little or no input and few resources This is ultimately a story however about how the institution of education itself operates in a post racial and post gendered society Gender, Race, and Class in the Lives of Today's Teachers Lata Murti, Glenda M. Flores, 2021 This volume explores the professional experiences of a vast array of educators through a series of research essays that focus on the interplay of gender race class and sexualities as well as how these dynamics influence the educators teaching The volume illuminates this interplay not only in traditional classroom settings but also in non traditional contexts such as prisons and juvenile detention facilities family education dual language immersion programs early childhood education and higher education including teacher training programs The concluding chapter written by the editors provides general recommendations for recruiting and retaining a more diverse teacher workforce worldwide From autoethnographies to pláticas testimonios and in depth interviews this qualitatively rich volume offers powerful and timely insights about the experiences of teachers who are too often overlooked Gilda L Ochoa Professor of Chicana o Latina o Studies This illuminating book centers educators intersectional subjectivities and lived experiences bringing to life the radical possibilities of transformative education It is a much needed resource for anyone invested in understanding and advancing education as a catalyst for equity and social justice Lorena Garcia Associate Professor of Sociology Latin American and Latino Studies

Race, Gender and Educational Desire Heidi Safia Mirza, 2008-11-19 This book reveals the emotional and social consequences of gendered difference and racial division as experienced by black and ethnicised women teachers and students in schools and universities taking the topic in new challenging directions Men Educators of Color in U.S. Public Schools and Abroad Ashley N. Woodson, Travis J. Bristol, 2023-12-11 This book reflects the diversity and possibility of critical research in education with an emphasis on the examination of the intersections of social identities for men teachers of color and the relationship between social identity and struggles for political and professional agency The authors address race and race inequality in education and provide a strong theoretical foundation for filling the empirical gap on men teachers of color by engaging in questions such as How do critical considerations of the intersection of race gender and profession inform the future of teacher education What does it mean to be men or of color in the context of the teaching profession in the U S and abroad What are the aims of ethnoracial diversity in the field of education The research included in this edited volume explores topics including but not limited to men teachers of color and their perceived pathways to the profession their perceptions of and partnerships with colleagues of other genders their sexual and gendered identities and performances and how they embrace reject or negotiate the expectations of performing as a role model in classrooms Moreover the chapters provide explicit implications for teachers teacher educators university and PK 12 administrators education activists and or education policymakers In sum this volume charts a new landscape in education research for all men teachers of color The chapters in this book were originally published as a special issue of the journal Race Ethnicity and Education Difficult Subjects Badia Ahad-Legardy, OiYan A. Poon, 2023-07-03 Difficult Subjects Insights and Strategies for Teaching about Race Sexuality and Gender is a collection of essays from scholars across disciplines institutions and ranks that offers diverse and multi faceted approaches to teaching about subjects that prove both challenging and often uncomfortable for both the professor and the student It encourages college educators to engage in forms of practice that do not pretend that teachers and students are unaffected by world events and incidents that highlight social inequalities Readers will find the collected essays useful for identifying new approaches to taking on the difficult subjects of race gender and sexuality The book will also serve as inspiration for academics who believe that their area of study does not allow for such pedagogical inquiries to also teach in ways that address difficult subjects Contributors to this volume span a range of disciplines from criminal justice to gender studies to organic chemistry and demonstrate the productive possibilities that can emerge in college classrooms when faculty consider identity as constitutive of rather than divorced from their academic disciplines Discussions of race gender and sexuality are always hot button issues in the college classroom whether they emerge in response to a national event or tragedy or constitute the content of the class over a semester long term Even seasoned professors who specialize in these areas find it difficult to talk about identity politics in a room full of students And many professors for whom issues of racial and sexual identity is not a primary concern find it even more challenging to raise these issues with students Offering reflections and practical guidance the book accounts for a range of challenges facing college educators and encourages faculty to teach with courage and conviction especially when it feels as though the world around us is crashing down upon our students and ourselves

Race, Ethnicity and Gender in Education Joseph Zajda, Kassie Freeman, 2010-03-23 Race Ethnicity and Gender in Education Cross cultural which is the sixth volume in the 12 volume book series Globalisation Comparative Education and Policy Research presents scholarly research on major discourses of race ethnicity and gender in education It provides an easily accessible practical yet scholarly source of information about the international concern in the field of globalisation and comparative education Above all the book offers the latest findings to the critical issues concerning major discourses on race ethnicity and gender in the global culture It is a sourcebook of ideas for researchers practitioners and policymakers in education globalisation social justice equity and access in schooling around the world It offers a timely overview of current issues affecting research in comparative education of race ethnicity and gender It provides directions in education and policy research relevant to progressive pedagogy social change and transformational educational reforms in the twen first century The book critically examines the overall interplay between the state ideology and current discourses of race ethnicity and gender in the global culture It draws upon recent studies in the areas of globalisation equity social justice and the role of the State Zajda et al 2006 2008 It explores conceptual frameworks and methodological approaches applicable in the research covering the State globa sation race ethnicity and gender

Gender, Race, and the Politics of Role Modelling Wayne Martino, Goli Rezai-Rashti, 2012-03-12 This book provides an illuminating account of teachers own reflections on their experiences of teaching in urban schools It was conceived as a direct response to policy related and media generated concerns about male teacher shortage and offers a critique of the call for more male role models in elementary schools to address important issues regarding gender race and the politics of representation By including the perspectives of minority teachers and students and by drawing on feminist queer and anti racist frameworks this book rejects the familiar tendency to resort to role modelling as a basis for explaining or addressing boys disaffection with schooling Indeed the authors argue on the basis of their research in urban schools in Canada and Australia that educational policy concerned with male teacher shortage and the plight of disadvantaged minority boys would benefit from engaging with analytic perspectives and empirical literature that takes readers beyond hegemonic discourses of role modelling A compelling case is presented for the need to disarticulate discourses about role modelling from a politics of representation that is committed to addressing the reality of the impact of racial and structural inequalities on both minority teachers and students participation in the education system The book also provides insight into the persistence of gender inequality as it relates to the status of elementary school teaching as women s work Beyond Silenced Voices Lois Weis,Michelle Fine,2005-03-10 A thoroughly revised and updated edition of the classic text Focuses on the roles of hope participation and change in reforming American schools The Feminist Classroom Frances A. Maher,Mary Kay Thompson Tetreault,2001 The tensions dilemmas and exhilarating pleasures of feminist teaching converge in this fascinating book which documents actual classroom give and take In addition to observing the authors interviewed the teachers and several students in each class The result is a Rashomon portrayal of the same moment differently perceived as well as fresh insight into interaction between social positioning experience and learning Considerazioni di Barrie Thorne author of Gender Play Girls and Boys in School Men Teaching Children 3-11 Elizabeth Burn,Simon Pratt-Adams,2015-11-19 Men Teaching Children 3 11 provides a comprehensive exploration of work experiences of men who teach young children The authors draw on their own research as well as international studies to provide realistic strategies to help to remove barriers in order to develop a more gender balanced teacher workforce Burn and Pratt Adams former primary school teachers who have both experienced these unfair gender practices also trace the historical roots of the gender barriers that have now become embedded within the occupational culture Throughout Men Teaching Children 3 11 the authors argue that primary school teachers should be judged by their teaching talents rather than by the application of biased gender stereotypes and that male and female teachers need to work together to remove these stereotypes from the occupation The Female Tradition in Physical Education David Kirk,Patricia Vertinsky,2016-02-12 The Female Tradition in Physical Education re examines a key question in the history of modern education why did the remarkably successful leaders of female physical education who pioneered the development of the subject in late nineteenth and early twentieth century England Canada Australia and New Zealand lose control in the years following the Second World War Despite the later resurgence of second wave feminism they never regained a voice with the result that male leadership was able to shift the curriculum in ways that neglected the needs and interests of girls and young women Drawing on new sources and a range of historiographical approaches and touching on related fields such as therapeutic exercise and dance the book examines the development of physical education for girls in a number of countries to offer an alternative explanation to the dominant narrative of the demise of the female tradition Providing an important contextualization for the state of contemporary female physical education this is fascinating reading for anybody with an interest in the development of sport and physical education women s and gender history and physical culture more generally
