Race With Death:

Race and Crime Elizabeth Brown, George Borganier, 2018-10-02 Criminal justice practices such as policing and imprisonment are integral to the creation of racialized experiences in U S society Race as an important category of difference however did not arise here with the criminal justice system but rather with the advent of European colonial conquest and the birth of the U S racial state Race and Crime examines how race became a defining feature of the system and why mass incarceration emerged as a new racial management strategy This book reviews the history of race and criminology and explores the impact of racist colonial legacies on the organization of criminal justice institutions Using a macrostructural perspective students will learn to contextualize issues of race crime and criminal justice Topics include How coloniality explains the practices that reproduce racial hierarchies The birth of social science and social programs from the legacies of racial science The defining role of geography and geographical conquest in the continuation of mass incarceration The emergence of the logics of crime control the War on Drugs the redefinition of federal law enforcement and the reallocation of state resources toward prison building policing and incarceration How policing courts and punishment perpetuate the colonial order through their institutional structures and policies Race and Crime will help students understand how everyday practices of punishment and surveillance are employed in and through the police courts and community to create and shape the geographies of injustice in the United States today The Our Race Quarterly, 1914 Race in Society Margaret L. Andersen, 2021-03-12 Comprehensive yet concise Margaret Andersen s Race in Society Second Edition is a topical introduction to race and ethnicity organized around four key questions What does the idea of race mean and where does it come from What are the consequences of the social construction of race How is racial inequality structured into social institutions What are different policies and approaches for change toward racial justice In her accessible student friendly style Andersen introduces readers to the current scholarship on race including recent studies conducted during the COVID 19 pandemic and the protests following the murder of George Floyd New to this edition New coverage of the effects of COVID 19 included throughout the book including its impact on anti Asian racism violent crime racial disparities in health care and people of color in low wage service jobs Expanded discussion of immigration including US politics about immigration and national borders displays the connection between immigration and racialization Updated discussion of policing police violence and both historical and contemporary acts of vigilante justice against people of color Updated information on residential and educational segregation including new material on the racial achievement gap and the effects of school closures during the COVID 19 pandemic Race and Crime Helen Taylor Greene, Shaun L. Gabbidon, 2011-04-18 Race and Crime A Text Reader includes a collection of recent articles on race and crime published in a number of leading criminal justice journals along with original textual material that serves to explain and unify the readings Through discussion of selected articles numerous topics are explored including the historical social economic and political contexts of race and
