Race Culture And Difference:

Race, Culture and Difference James Donald, Ali Rattansi, 1992-04-21 Considers the debates over race and its meanings in contemporary society and in educational and social policy Linking with feminist post structuralist and post modernist concerns this text examines the contribution of ideas such as ethnicity community identity and difference Dictionary of Race, Ethnicity and Culture Guido Bolaffi, 2003 Race ethnicity and culture are concepts that are interpreted in various and often contradictory ways This Dictionary of Race Ethnicity and Culture provides the historical background and etymology of a wide number of words related to these concepts looking at discourses of race ethnicity and culture from a broadly multicultural perspective This new and up to date dictionary contains numerous references to both European and American concepts debates and terms Contributors to the dictionary include well known anthropologists biologists lawyers philosophers sociologists and psychologists enabling the Dictionary to bring an interdisciplinary approach to the subject matter and a rich variety of voice and content that would otherwise The Routledge International Handbook of Race, Culture and Mental Health Roy Moodley, Eunjung Lee, 2020-10-27 This handbook presents a thorough examination of the intricate interplay of race ethnicity and culture in mental health historical origins subsequent transformations and the discourses generated from past and present mental health and wellness practices The text demonstrates how socio cultural identities including race gender class sexual orientation disability religion and age intersect with clinical work in a range of settings Case vignettes and recommendations for best practice help ground each in a clinical focus guiding practitioners and educators to actively increase their understanding of non Western and indigenous healing techniques as well as their awareness of contemporary mental health theories as a product of Western culture with a particular historical and cultural perspective The international contributors also discuss ways in which global mental health practices transcend racial cultural ethnic linguistic and political boundaries The Routledge International Handbook of Race Culture and Mental Health is an essential resource for students researchers and professionals alike as it addresses the complexity of mental health issues from a critical global perspective Race, Culture and Psychotherapy Roy Moodley, Stephen Palmer, 2014-05-12 What is multicultural psychotherapy How do we integrate issues of gender class and sexual orientation in multicultural psychotherapy Race Culture and Psychotherapy provides a thorough critical examination of contemporary multiculturalism and culturalism including discussion of the full range of issues debates and controversies that are emerging in the field of multicultural psychotherapy Beginning with a general critique of race culture and ethnicity the book explores issues such as the notion of interiority and exteriority in psychotherapy racism in the clinical room race and countertransference conflicts spirituality and traditional healing issues Contributors from the United States Britain and Canada draw on their professional experience to provide comprehensive and balanced coverage of the following subjects critical perspectives in race and culture in psychotherapy governing race in the transference racism ethnicity and countertransference intersecting gender race class and sexual orientation spirituality cultural healing and psychotherapy future directions Race Culture and Psychotherapy will be of interest not only to practicing psychotherapists but also to students and researchers in the field of mental health and anyone interested in gaining a better understanding of psychotherapy in a multicultural society Race, Culture, and the City Stephen Nathan Haymes, 1995-07-01 The author argues that race as a social construction is one of the most powerful categories for constructing urban mythologies about blacks and that this is significant in a dominant white supremacist culture that equates blackness and black people with both danger and the exotic The book examines how these myths are realized in the material landscapes of the city in its racialization of black residential space through the imagery of racial segregation This imagery along with the racializing of crime portrays black residential space as natural spaces of pathology and in need of social control through policing and residential dispersion and displacement It is in this context that Haymes proposes the development of a pedagogy of black urban struggle that incorporates critical pedagogy Race, Culture, and Ethnicity in Secure Psychiatric Practice Charles Kaye, Tony Lingiah, 2000 People from ethnic minorities are overrepresented in secure psychiatric care and have been reported to receive differential treatment from staff It has been suggested that these people especially Afro Caribbean groups suffer from prejudicial legal criminal justice and psychiatric system This text questions whether Western white oriented practice and systems of belief can or should be applied to service users from other cultural racial ethnic or spiritual backgrounds Race, Culture and Counselling Colin Lago, 2005-11-16 Can therapy involving a therapist and client from differing cultural ethnic and racial origins work What are the main barriers to this relationship working well What knowledge skill and attitudes are required by therapists to enhance their work with different clients Therapists are inevitably affected by their own backgrounds experiences and prejudices which may manifest negatively within therapeutic relationships with clients of different cultural racial and ethnic backgrounds to their own This book strives to explore these areas of challenge to successful therapy and to raise awareness of the many facets that may impact upon the relationship This substantially revised edition builds upon the foundations laid down in the first edition which addressed amongst other subjects issues of race and power cultures and their impact upon communication and a review of the dominant theoretical discourses influencing counselling and psychotherapy and how these might impact upon mixed identity therapeutic relationships and includes the following additions New chapters by black and white writers working within British American and Canadian contexts Updated information on recent changes and challenges in the field New approaches to the issues of whiteness and power multiple identities and identity development Race Culture and Counselling provides key reading for students therapists supervisors and teachers of therapists as well as students and professionals in allied professions such as social work nursing medicine and teaching Contributors Courtland Lee Roy Moodley Gill Tuckwell Val Watson Unmasking Race, Culture, and Attachment in the Psychoanalytic Space Kate White, 2018-04-19 Drawn from the John Bowlby Memorial Conference the theme of this book addresses the often hidden and ignored subject of attachment race and culture Can our individual narratives in relation to race culture and attachment be unmasked in the therapeutic dyad to reveal our human connectedness The contributors explore how the conscious and unconscious meanings of therapists and clients racial and cultural identities shape the dialogue between them How this emerges for both therapist and client in their work together is illustrated in clinical accounts 'Race', Culture and the Right to the City Gareth Millington, 2011-10-27 Adopting a perspective inspired by Henri Lefebvre this book considers the spread of multiculturalism from the central city to the periphery and considers the role that race continues to play in structuring the metropolis taking London New York and Paris as examples

What is Africanness? Contesting nativism in race, culture and sexualities Charles Ngwena, 2018-01-01 What is Africanness Contesting nativism in race culture and sexualities by Charles Ngwena 2018 ISBN 978 1 920538 82 8 Pages 306 Print version Available Electronic version Free PDF available About the publication What is Africanness Contesting nativism in culture race and sexualities by Charles Ngwena Professor of Law at the Centre for Human Rights Faculty of Law University of Pretoria is a peer reviewed monograph aiming to contribute to the ongoing scholarly conversation in and beyond South Africa about who is African and what is African It aims to implicate a reductive sameness in the naming of Africans nativism by showing its teleology and effects and offers an alternative understanding of how Africans can be named or can name themselves The book develops an epistemology for constructing the hermeneutics of Africanness today long after the primal colonial moment and its debasing racialising ideology It interrogates the making of Africa in colonial discourses and the making of an African race and African culture s and sexuality ies in ways that are not just historically conscious but also have a heuristic capacity to contest nativism from the outside as well as from within The arguments in this book go beyond problematising African identity by addressing an existential gap in theory for explicating African social identity The book develops an interpretive method a hermeneutics for locating and deciphering African identifications in ways that are historically conscious and conjunctural The hermeneutics look to the present and the future in addition to the past so that African identifications are not nailed to a mast but remain invested with mobility and the capacity to mutate radically and make new and unexpected beginnings Comments Charles Ngwena s timely and original book is a wonderful read rich in theory and insight and an essential companion for those interested in exploring the multiplicity of histories cultures and subjectivities that constitute the diversity of Africanness and African identities Professor Cathi Albertyn School of Law University of the Witwatersrand Editor South African Journal on Human Rights This is a brilliant exploration of liberating and affirming ways to speak of African identities and sexualities reminding us there can be creative beauty where pain and dispossession have resided Rudo Chigudu Centre for Human Rights University of Pretoria This is a masterpiece Not only does the author capture the discourse and debates on Africanness he aptly examines them before offering his views on decentring the race of Africanness with the important recognition of Africa as land of diverse identifications Prof Serges Djoyou Kamga Thabo Mbeki African Leadership Institute Race, Culture, and Evolution George W. Stocking, 1982-04-15 We have at long last a real historian with real historical skills and no intra professional ax to grind All these pieces show the virtues one finds missing in nearly all of anthropological history work but Stocking's extensive and critical use of archival sources tracing of real rather than merely plausible intellectual connections and contextualization of ideas and movements in terms of broader social and cultural currents Stocking writes very clearly attacks important topics race and evolution the influence of scientism the interaction between anthropology and other disciplines and is methodologically very sophisticated Though his main theme is the development of racialism and of opposition to it his book bears on a range of issues very much alive in anthropology I would think no apprentice anthropologist ought to be pronounced a journeyman until he or she has absorbed what Stocking has to say Clifford Geertz The Institute for Advanced Study Princeton

Race and Power Gargi Bhattacharyya, John Gabriel, Stephen Small, 2016-04-29 Reviewing cutting edge debates around racial politics and the culture and economy of globalization this book draws together a wide range of important contemporary debates in a clear and concise way for undergraduate students Far from concluding that racism is over the authors contend that the forces of globalization inhabit older cultures of racial division in order to safeguard the economic interests of the privileged Arguing that the unspoken culture of whiteness informs much that passes in the name of globalization the book suggests that we are witnessing a reformulation of economic relations around global racisms Alongside these shifts in economic relations racialized identities evolve to encompass mixed heritages and mixed cultures both in personal identities and in lifestyle choices This is one of the few texts that concentrates on the theory of race rather than politics It looks at race in global terms and at whiteness as a part of ethnic studies
