Race Ethnicity And Sexuality Intimate Intersections Forbidden Frontiers:

Race, Ethnicity, and Sexuality Joane Nagel, 2003 What do race ethnicity and nationalism have to do with sex and vice versa This title uses examples to examine how sex shapes ideas and feelings about race ethnicity and national identity and how sexual images fears and desires shape racial ethnic and national stereotypes and conflicts Respect Yourself, Protect Yourself Lorena Garcia, 2012-10-22 Exploring young Latina youth s sexual agency education and expression While Latina girls have high teen birth rates and are at increasing risk for contracting sexually transmitted infections their sexual lives are much more complex than the negative stereotypes of them as helpless or risky or worse suggest In Respect Yourself Protect Yourself Lorena Garcia examines how Latina girls negotiate their emerging sexual identities and attempt to create positive sexual experiences for themselves Through a focus on their sexual agency Garcia demonstrates that Latina girls experiences with sexism racism homophobia and socioeconomic marginality inform how they engage and begin to rework their meanings and processes of gender and sexuality emphasizing how Latina youth themselves understand their sexuality particularly how they conceptualize and approach sexual safety and pleasure At a time of controversy over the appropriate role of sex education in schools Respect Yourself Protect Yourself provides a rare look and an important understanding of the sexual lives of a traditionally marginalized group Sex and Nation in Transatlantic Literatures Agata

Szczeszak-Brewer, 2025-06-12 Nationalist and tribal cohesion in Ireland South Africa the US and elsewhere often relies on an absence of female and gender nonconforming bodies in the public life Staging a vital counter narrative to global nationalist discourses this book explores how 20th and 21st century postcolonial literatures criticize hetero normative definitions of nationhood across different geopolitical and cultural contexts Szczeszak Brewer delves into the metaphorical currency of male impotence and sexual aggression in nationalist narratives She examines the place of gender nonconforming characters in literature from Ireland the US Poland France Britain South Africa and Senegal in the work of writers including James Joyce Witold Gombrowicz Jean Toomer Bessie Head Zo Wicomb J M Coetzee Andrea Levy Patrick McCabe and David Diop Aligning queer and gender perspectives with discussions of white supremacy this book examines the urgency for contemporary geopolitics to imagine new discourses of community against the backdrop of a rise in neo nationalisms steeped in homophobic and misogynistic rhetoric Frontier Intimacies Paola Canova, 2020-10-20 Until the 1960s the Ayoreo people of Paraguay s Chaco region had remained uncontacted by the world But as development encroached on their territory the Ayoreo began to experience rapid cultural change Paola Canova looks at one aspect of this change in Frontier Intimacies the sexual practices of Ayoreo women specifically the curajodie or single women who exchange sex for money or material goods with non Ayoreo men often Mennonite settlers Weaving personal anecdotes into her extensive research Canova shows how the advancement of economic and missionary frontiers has reconfigured gender roles sexual ethics and notions of desire in the region Ayoreo women she shows have reappropriated their sexual practices approaching intimate liaisons on their own terms and seeing the involvement of money not as morally problematic but as constitutive of sexual encounters By using their sexuality to construct an intimate frontier operating according to their own logics Canova reveals Ayoreo women expose the fractured workings of frontier capitalism in spaces of rapid transformation Inviting broader examination of the ways in which contemporary frontier economies are constructed and experienced Frontier Intimacies brings a captivating new perspective to the economic development of the Chaco region

Black and Sexy Tracie Gilbert,2021-11-29 This book offers a unique understanding of African American populations and their articulation of sexuality and race by introducing a comprehensive sexological model Black Sexual Epistemology Tracie Q Gilbert draws from theoretical perspectives of anti Blackness ethno sexuality Performative Blackness and African centered epistemology to implicate race as an inextricable factor in the sexual structures and schema of African American people Chapters identify and introduce a sex positive and comprehensive sexological model Black Sexual Epistemology through which Black sexuality can be understood and navigated in the contemporary era This model presents empirical data for effectively applying previous critical race perspectives and uniquely demonstrates how Black sexual experience can be better understood and reimagined for greater community development and healing This book is essential reading for practicing sex therapists marriage and family therapists and clinical social workers working with these populations as well as for academics and students of sexology sex education sex therapy social work marriage and family therapy public health Black African American studies and LGBTQ studies It will also be of interest to general audiences who appreciate culturally centered sexological scholarship

Sexuality and Social Work Julie Bywater,Rhiannon Jones,2007-10-08 Sexuality remains a neglected and largely taboo area within practice but it can be a demanding aspect of social work Social workers may be familiar with the importance of issues such as racism and ethnicity but sexuality is also a very significant part of people s lives closest relationships and sense of identity This valuable resource introduces the topic using a combination of perspectives to consider sexual diversity and examining related issues across the life course including sexual orientation disability HIV sexual abuse mental health and sexual exploitation

Medicalized Masculinities Christopher A. Faircloth,2009-09-04 The first book to examine the male body in relation to the sociology of health and gender

Social Work, Marriage, and Ethnicity Colita Fairfax,2017-10-02 By looking at a variety of racial and ethnic groups in society Social Work Marriage and Ethnicity examines the conventional knowledge theories and best practices relating to marriages Contributors address marriage interventions female empowerment parenting and cohabitation as well as the variables which impact these situations such as employment housing domestic violence and HIV AIDS within appropriate and meaningful cultural contexts This book will be particularly useful for social workers working in many settings clinical community research policy implementation faith based and other arenas that are available to couples in need of marital support Marriage issues need to be addressed by social workers given its status as a vital element in family strengthening and relationship stability This book emboldens the case manager community organizer or immigration officer to address marital stresses and the demands faced by those couples most impacted by systemic inequality and barriers to cultural interventions This book was originally published as a special issue of the Journal of Human Behavior in the Social Environment

Introducing the New Sexuality Studies Steven Seidman, Nancy L. Fischer, Chet Meeks, 2011-02-25 Breaking new ground both substantively and stylistically this book offers students academics and researchers an accessible engaging introduction and overview of the emerging field of sexuality studies

Relating Worlds of Racism Philomena Essed, Karen Farquharson, Kathryn Pillay, Elisa Joy White, 2018-08-20 This international edited collection examines how racism trajectories and manifestations in different locations relate and influence each other The book unmask and foregrounds the ways in which notions of European Whiteness have found form in a variety of global contexts that continue to sustain racism as an operational norm resulting in exclusion violence human rights violations isolation and limited full citizenship for individuals who are not racialised as White The chapters in this book specifically implicate European Whiteness whether attempting to reflect negate or obtain it in social structures that facilitate and normalise racism The authors interrogate the dehumanisation of Blackness arguing that dehumanisation enables the continuation of racism in White dominated societies As such the book explores instances of dehumanisation across different contexts highlighting that although the forms may be locally specific the outcomes are continually negative for those racialised as Black The volume is refreshingly extensive in its analyses of racism beyond Europe and the United States including contributions from Africa South America and Australia and illuminates previously unexplored manifestations of racism across the globe

Exploring Black Sexuality Robert Staples, 2006 In this pioneering nonobjective study a distinguished Black sexologist tackles one of the most controversial aspects of American race relations The subject of Black sexuality has been widely discussed in every possible popular format for the past four hundred years yet serious scholarship in the area is lacking While Black sexuality has been a pervasive force in American life it has been too sensitive a topic for Black or white authors to write about in a serious non polemical format Robert Staples explores same sex attitudes and behavior interracial sexual relations rape prostitution pornography and the stereotypes of Black sexual superiority in this scholarly yet accessible collection Staples shows how vaunted and feared sexual differences were the raison d'être of Southern school segregation race based laws white flight from the inner cities the double sexual standard lynchings and race riots This groundbreaking study concludes with a speculation on the future of Black sexuality in the 21st century based on our knowledge of current demographic and economic forces

Sexual Predation and TEFL Vaughan Rapatahana, 2024-12-16 Teaching English as a Foreign Language TEFL enables sexual predation across the wide range of activities and locales it encompasses beyond schools and inclusive of voluntourist and aid programmes where EFL is taught This predation is carried out not only by male Native speaking English Teachers NETs on their students peers and members of local communities but also carried out on female NETs and EFL students by locals Is TEFL inherently sexist utilising gender biased texts This book is the first to examine in considerable detail such English language sexual imperialism and to suggest ways to curtail it Media, Erotics, and Transnational Asia Purnima Mankekar, Louisa Schein, 2013-02-11 This collection of essays examines how mediated eroticism and sexuality circulate across Asia and its diasporas both reflecting and shaping the social practices of producers and consumers Questioning Gender Robyn Ryle, 2016-12-08 A one of a kind text designed to launch readers into a thoughtful encounter with gender issues Questioning Gender A Sociological Exploration Third Edition serves as a point of departure for productive conversations about gender and as a resource for exploring answers to many of those questions Rather than providing definitive answers this unique book exposes readers to some of the best scholarship in the field that will lead them to question many of their assumptions about what is normal and abnormal The author uses both historical and cross cultural approaches as well as a focus on intersectionality and transgender issues to help students understand the socially constructed nature of gender Black Sexualities Juan Battle, Sandra L. Barnes, 2009-11-24 Why does society have difficulty discussing sexualities Where does fear of Black sexualities emerge and how is it manifested How can varied experiences of Black females and males who are lesbian gay bisexual transgender LGBT or straight help inform dialogue and academic inquiry From questioning forces that have constrained sexual choices to examining how Blacks have forged healthy sexual identities in an oppressive environment Black Sexualities acknowledges the diversity of the Black experience and the shared legacy of racism Contributors seek resolution to Blacks understanding of their lives as sexual beings through stories of empowerment healing self awareness victories and other historic and contemporary life course panoramas and provide practical information to foster more culturally relative research tolerance and acceptance Embodying Religion, Gender and Sexuality Sarah-Jane Page, Katy Pilcher, 2020-12-27 Taking the notion of embodiment as a starting point this volume maps the interconnecting relationships between religion gender and sexuality The chapters highlight how the body its location the narratives that surround it its movement and negotiations is central to understanding these multifaceted relationships The contributors recognise the ways in which gender and sexuality are crucial to how we embody religion and encourage a more complex and nuanced understanding of embodied religion The material is organised according to three central themes 1 the relationship between the religious and the secular 2 power regulation and resistance and 3 the symbolism of gendered bodies Cutting across a range of disciplinary perspectives Embodying Religion Gender and Sexuality will be relevant to students of sociology anthropology gender and sexuality studies theology and religious studies Elgar Encyclopedia of Global Migration Laura Oso, Natalia Ribas-Mateos, Melissa Moralli, 2025-01-09 In recent decades emerging challenges such as increased digitalization of social lives and the ongoing processes of border externalization and internalization have prompted scholars and civil societies to question the ways in which people view frame and experience migration and draw attention to emerging forms of resistance and mobility justice This timely Encyclopedia engages with critical epistemologies and practices to provide a comprehensive examination of the field of global migration activism and cultural production Handbook of the New Sexuality Studies Steven Seidman, Nancy Fischer, Chet Meeks, 2007-03-12

As the field of sexuality studies has become a growth area in academia and classes on sexuality studies are incorporated into various disciplines the expanding book market has been filled with specialist oriented texts which are often theoretically focused and contain too many summaries for an undergraduate audience Addressing this imbalance this key new volume presents the field of sexuality in an accessible and engaging way for undergraduates Breaking new ground both substantively and stylistically this book offers students academics and researchers an accessible engaging introduction and overview of this emerging field Its central premise is to explore the social character of sexuality the role of social differences such as race or nationality in creating sexual variation and the ways sex is entangled in relations of power and inequality Through this novel approach the field of sexuality is considered for the first time in multicultural global and comparative terms and from a truly social perspective This important volume consists of over fifty short and original essays on the key topics and themes in sexuality studies and interviews with twelve leading scholars in the field which convey some of the most innovative work being done Each contribution clearly conveys the latest research with examples Ideal for students of gender and sexuality studies this topical and timely volume will be an invaluable resource to all those with an interest in sexuality studies A White Side of Black Britain France Winddance Twine, 2010 An ethnographic analysis of the racial consciousness of white transracial women who have established families and had children with black men of African Caribbean heritage in the United Kingdom Asian American Feminisms and Women of Color Politics Lynn Fujiwara, Shireen Roshanravan, 2018-12-04 Asian American Feminisms and Women of Color Politics brings together groundbreaking essays that speak to the relationship between Asian American feminisms feminist of color work and transnational feminist scholarship This collection featuring work by both senior and rising scholars considers topics including the politics of visibility histories of Asian American participation in women of color political formations accountability for Asian American settler complicities and cross racial solidarities and Asian American community based strategies against state violence as shaped by and tied to women of color feminisms Asian American Feminisms and Women of Color Politics provides a deep conceptual intervention into the theoretical underpinnings of Asian American studies ethnic studies women s gender and sexual studies as well as cultural studies in general
