Race Traitor 11:

Race Struggles Theodore Koditschek, Sundiata Keita Cha-Jua, Helen A. Neville, 2009 The essays in this collection start with the premise that although race like class and gender is socially constructed all three categories have been shaped profoundly by their context in a capitalist society Race in other words is a historical category that develops not only in dialectical relation to class and gender but also in relation to the material conditions in which all three are forged In addition to discussing and analyzing various dimensions of the African American experience contributors also consider the ways in which race plays itself out in the experience of Asian Americans and in the very different geopolitical environments of the British Empire and postcolonial Africa Contributors are Pedro Caban Sundiata Keita Cha Jua David Crockett Theodore Koditschek Scott Kurashige Clarence Lang Minkah Makalani Helen A Neville Ibitola O Pearce David Roediger Monica M White and Jeffrey Williams Race Traitor ,2000 Sisters in Hate Seyward Darby, 2020-07-21 WITH A NEW FOREWARD Journalist Seyward Darby's masterfully reported and incisive Nell Irvin Painter expos pulls back the curtain on modern racial and political extremism in America telling the eye opening and unforgettable Ibram X Kendi account of three women immersed in the white nationalist movement After the election of Donald J Trump journalist Seyward Darby went looking for the women of the so called alt right really just white nationalism with a new label The mainstream media depicted the alt right as a bastion of angry white men but was it As women headlined resistance to the Trump administration's bigotry and sexism most notably at the Women's Marches Darby wanted to know why others were joining a movement espousing racism and anti feminism Who were these women and what did their activism reveal about America's past present and future Darby researched dozens of women across the country before settling on three Corinna Olsen Ayla Stewart and Lana Lokteff Each was born in 1979 and became a white nationalist in the post 9 11 era Their respective stories of radicalization upend much of what we assume about women politics and political extremism Corinna a professional embalmer who was once a body builder found community in white nationalism before it was the alt right while she was grieving the death of her brother and the end of her marriage For Corinna hate was more than just personal animus it could also bring people together Eventually she decided to leave the movement and served as an informant for the FBI Ayla a devoutly Christian mother of six underwent a personal transformation from self professed feminist to far right online personality Her identification with the burgeoning tradwife movement reveals how white nationalism traffics in society's preferred retrograde ways of seeing women Lana who runs a right wing media company with her husband enjoys greater fame and notoriety than many of her sisters in hate Her work disseminating and monetizing far right dogma is a testament to the power of disinformation With acute psychological insight and eye opening reporting Darby steps inside the contemporary hate movement and draws connections to precursors like the Ku Klux Klan Far more than mere helpmeets women like Corinna Ayla and Lana have been sustaining features of white nationalism Sisters in Hate shows how the work women do to normalize and propagate racist extremism has consequences well beyond the hate movement Racing to Justice john a. powell,2012-09-06 Renowned social justice advocate john a powell persuasively argues that we have not achieved a post racial society and that there is much work to do to redeem the American promise of inclusive democracy Culled from a decade of writing about social justice and spirituality these meditations on race identity and social policy provide an outline for laying claim to our shared humanity and a way toward healing ourselves and securing our future Racing to Justice challenges us to replace attitudes and institutions that promote and perpetuate social suffering with those that foster relationships and a way of being that transcends disconnection and separation The Other Side of Terror Erica R. Hope Franklin Prize given by the American Studies Association HONORABLE MENTION 2022 Gloria E Anzald a Book Prize given by the National Women s Studies Association Reveals the troubling intimacy between Black women and the making of US global power The year 1968 marked both the height of the worldwide Black liberation struggle and a turning point for the global reach of American power which was built on the counterinsurgency honed on Black and other oppressed populations at home The next five decades saw the consolidation of the culture of the American empire through what Erica R Edwards calls the imperial grammars of blackness This is a story of state power at its most devious and most absurd and at the same time a literary history of Black feminist radicalism at its most trenchant Edwards reveals how the long war on terror beginning with the late Cold War campaign against organizations like the Black Panther Party for Self Defense and the Black Liberation Army has relied on the labor and the fantasies of Black women to justify the imperial spread of capitalism Black feminist writers not only understood that this would demand a shift in racial gendered power but crafted ways of surviving it The Other Side of Terror offers an interdisciplinary Black feminist analysis of militarism security policing diversity representation intersectionality and resistance while discussing a wide array of literary and cultural texts from the unpublished work of Black radical feminist June Jordan to the memoirs of Condoleezza Rice to the television series Scandal With clear moving prose Edwards chronicles Black feminist organizing and writing on the other side of terror which tracked changes in racial power transformed African American literature and Black studies and predicted the crises of our current era with unsettling accuracy The SAGE Sourcebook of Service-Learning and Civic Engagement Omobolade

Class Struggles Dennis L. Dworkin, 2014-05-22 In the 1960s and 1970s the study of history and sociology was heavily influenced by Marxism and theories of class But the collapse of Communism and significant changes in culture and society threw the study of class into crisis Its most basic premises were called into question More recently accelerating globalisation proliferating multinational corporations and unbridled free market capitalism have given the study of class a new significance and caused historians and sociologists to revisit the debate This book looks at the changes that caused the crisis in the study of class and shows how new vibrant theories have appeared that will drive forward our understanding of history and sociology

White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility Eva Boodman, 2022-01-10 White ignorance is a form of collective denial that aggressively resists acknowledging the role of race and racism It dominates our political landscape warps white moral frameworks and affective responses intervenes in white self conceptions and organizes white identities In this way white ignorance poses a problem for conceptions of responsibility that rely on individuals intentions causal contributions or knowledge of the facts As Eva Boodman shows our moral concepts for responding to racism are implicated in the process of racialization when they understand responsibility as the attribution of blame or absolution innocence or guilt White Ignorance and Complicit Responsibility challenges these binary punitive moralities arguing that they reproduce racial harm by encouraging white people to seek innocence and the purification of moral taint instead of addressing the material conditions of racial harm Instead Boodman claims the space of complicity as a place of anti racist possibility Linking the construction of whiteness to a racist punishment paradigm this book makes the case for a different way of responding to harm as necessary for dismantling the moral racial political and affective constructs that keep racial capitalism in place

Surrealist Subversions Ronald B. Sakolsky, Franklin Rosemont, 2002 From its auspicious beginnings in the summer of 1966 to the present the Chicago Surrealist Group and the Surrealist Movement in the United States which grew out of it have continued to foment an exhilarating whirlwind of revolt while playfully igniting the sparks of Poetry Freedom and Love in the crucible of the Unfettered Imagination In so doing it has brightly illuminated the pathways of absolute divergence that define the intrinsically anarchist trajectory of the surrealist adventure Drawing on the full range of U S surrealist publications from the original journal Arsenal Surrealist Subversion to the very latest millennial communiqu from the front lines of the ongoing battle against miserabilism this volume contains over 200 texts more than two dozen appearing here for the first time by more than fifty participants in the Surrealist Movement making this the most comprehensive diverse and lavishly illustrated compilation of American surrealist writings to have ever been assembled Contributors include Gale Ahrens Jennifer Bean Jen Besemer Daniel C Boyer Paul Buhle Ronnie Burk Leonora Carrington Laura Corsiglia Jayne Cortez Guy Ducornet Rikki Ducornet Schlechter Duvall Alice Farley J Allen Fees Beth Garon Paul Garon Eugenio F Granell Robert Green Miriam Hansen Diedra Harris Kelley Jan Hathaway Corinna Jablonski Joseph Jablonski Ted Joans Gerome Kamrowski Robin D G Kelley Don LaCoss Philip Lamantia Clarence John Laughlin Mary Low Herbert Marcuse Tristan Meinecke Casandra Stark Mele Anne Olson Nancy Joyce Peters Charles Radcliffe Myrna Bell Rochester David Roediger Franklin Rosemont Penelope Rosemont Ody Saban Louise Simons Martha Sonnenberg Christopher Starr Ivan Svitak Cheikh Tidiane Sylla Claude Tarnaud Debra Taub Dale Tomich Patrick Turner Darryl Lorenzo Wellington Jordan West Joel Williams Marie Wilson Haifa Zangana

Colored White David R. Roediger, 2003-11 In this splendid book David Roediger shows the need for political activism aimed at transforming the social and political meaning of race No other writer on whiteness can match Roediger's historical breadth and depth his grasp of the formative role played by race in the making of the nineteenth century working class in defining the contours of twentieth century U S citizenship and social membership and in shaping the meaning of emerging social identities and cultural practices in the twenty first century George Lipsitz author of The Possessive Investment in Whiteness David Roediger has been showing us all for years how whiteness is a marked and not a neutral color in the history of the United States Colored White with its synthetic sweep and new historical investigations marks yet another advance In the burgeoning literature on whiteness this book stands out for its lucid unjargonridden lively prose its groundedness its analytic clarity and its scope Michael Rogin author of Blackface White Noise Making #Charlottesville Aniko Bodroghkozy, 2023-05-22 The 2017 Summer of Hate in Charlottesville became a worldwide media event putting at center stage the resurgence of emboldened and empowered white supremacy and alt right extremism as well as the antiracist movement opposing it Aniko Bodroghkozy's trenchant study examines this formative moment in recent U S history by juxtaposing it against two other epochal moments that put American racism and the struggle against it on worldwide display the 1963 Birmingham and 1965 Selma campaigns of the civil rights movement Making Charlottesville investigates the historical rhymes in the mass media's treatment of these events separated by half a century along with the ways that activists on both sides made use of the new media environment of their day to organize and amplify their respective messages Bodroghkozy teases out the connections similarities and resonances among these events from the ways all three places were consciously chosen as stage sets for media campaigns to the similarly iconic and heavily circulated images they produced to the sustained cultural purchase they continue to hold in the United States and around the world Casting Gender John T. Warren, Laura B. Lengel, 2005 Casting Gender puts forward a vision of theatre storytelling and the performance of the everyday function within the lived spaces of its performers and audiences asking how women artists scholars embody meaning carry social value and constitute possible identities Drawing on scholarship in intercultural communication performance studies women s studies and cultural studies this collection of new critically informed research advances our understanding of how theater works as intercultural communication and as a vehicle for change Casting Gender offers varied locations and sites of research highlighting the rich diversity of women s cultural identities roles and societal positions This book moves beyond the western centered nature of intercultural performance and intercultural communication theory and practice by creating a forum for nonwestern voices

Waste of a White Skin Tiffany Willoughby-Herard,2015-01-06 A pathbreaking history of the development of scientific racism white nationalism and segregationist philanthropy in the U S and South Africa in the early twentieth century Waste of a White Skin focuses on the American Carnegie Corporation s study of race in South Africa the Poor White Study and its influence on the creation of apartheid This book demonstrates the ways in which U S elites supported apartheid and Afrikaner Nationalism in the critical period prior to 1948 through philanthropic interventions and shaping scholarly knowledge production Rather than comparing racial democracies and their engagement with scientific racism Willoughby Herard outlines the ways in which a racial regime of global whiteness constitutes domestic racial policies and in part animates black consciousness in seemingly disparate and discontinuous racial democracies This book uses key paradigms in black political thought black feminism black internationalism and the black radical tradition to provide a rich account of poverty and work Much of the scholarship on whiteness in South Africa overlooks the complex politics of white poverty and what they mean for the making of black political action and black people s presence in the economic system Ideal for students scholars and interested readers in areas related to U S History African History World History Diaspora Studies Race and Ethnicity Sociology Anthropology and Political Science

A Nation Divided: The Conflicting Personalities, Visions, and Values of Liberals and Conservatives Anthony Walsh,2019-10-02 Activists have long claimed that the personal is political but this book posits the converse that the political is personal The United States today is bitterly divided It is less an aspirational melting pot of immigrants and more a salad bowl made up of distinct often clashing flavors The successive elections of two divisive presidents one committed to the perennial leftist dream of fundamental change and the other to a conservative vision of Making America Great Again have exacerbated what is arguably the greatest rift in politics since the election of Abraham Lincoln Taking inspiration from Coleridge s belief that all humans are temperamentally destined to follow the path of Plato the Idealist or Aristotle the Realist this book examines the political divide in terms of these temperamental differences Liberals and conservatives views of human nature have a large bearing on the political policies they espouse but their temperaments and personalities have the most significant impact This book analyses the personality traits of liberals and conservatives in terms of the Big Five model openness to experience conscientiousness extraversion agreeableness and neuroticism Conservatives are found in almost all studies to be more conscientious agreeable and extroverted while liberals are found to be more open to new experience and neurotic The political divisions I explore in this book are all essentially fueled by personality differences There is a deepening divide between liberals and conservatives in the battle for America's soul one side seeks to steer the nation sharply to the left into socialist selfdom whereas the other side desires a wealthy and free America under the watchful eye of God's providence A preponderance of academic texts belongs to the liberal tradition Conservatives have long lacked a comparable intellectual tradition of their own although an incipient one is now beginning to form This book while maintaining a measure of scholarly distance is unashamedly written from a conservative point of view What White Looks Like George Yancy, 2004-06 First published in 2004 Routledge is an imprint of Taylor Francis an informa company Burdened Virtues Lisa Tessman, 2005-10-06 Lisa Tessman's Burdened Virtues is a deeply original and provocative work that engages questions central to feminist theory and practice from the perspective of Aristotelian ethics Focused primarily on selves who endure and resist oppression she addresses the ways in which devastating conditions confronted by these selves both limit and burden their moral goodness and affect their possibilities of flourishing She describes two different forms of moral trouble prevalent under oppression The first is that the oppressed self may be morally damaged prevented from developing or exercising some of the virtues the second is that the very conditions of oppression require the oppressed to develop a set of virtues that carry a moral cost to those who practice them traits that Tessman refers to as burdened virtues These virtues have the unusual feature of being disjoined from their bearer's own well being Tessman's work focuses on issues that have been missed by many feminist moral theories and her use of the virtue ethics framework brings feminist concerns more closely into contact with mainstream ethical theory This book will appeal to feminist theorists in philosophy and women's studies but also more broadly ethicists and social theorists The Lesbian South Jaime Harker, 2018-09-25 In this book Jaime Harker uncovers a largely forgotten literary renaissance in southern letters Anchored by a constellation of southern women the Women in Print movement grew from the queer union of women's liberation civil rights activism gay liberation and print culture Broadly influential from the 1970s through the 1990s the Women in Print movement created a network of writers publishers bookstores and readers that fostered a remarkable array of literature With the freedom that the Women in Print movement inspired southern lesbian feminists remade southernness as a site of intersectional radicalism transgressive sexuality and liberatory space Including in her study well known authors like Dorothy Allison and Alice Walker as well as overlooked writers publishers and editors Harker reconfigures the southern literary canon and the feminist canon challenging histories of feminism and queer studies to include the south in a formative role New Faces in a Changing America Loretta I. Winters, Herman L. DeBose, 2003 New Faces in a Changing America is a comprehensive penetrating authoritative and provocative examination of what it means to be multiracial in this country With contributions by the leading thinkers activists and researchers on the subject it admirably links theory and the powerful lived experiences of mixed race people This book will be the most important reference source on the subject for many years James P Allen California State University Northridge Not since the work of Root has there been as important of an anthology as New Faces in a Changing

America This book explores the reality of multiracial people from a variety of theoretical and conceptual perspectives It is a must read for anybody who want to understand the multiracial movement and the multiracial people who lead that movement Any teacher who wants to introduce the concept of multiraciality to his her class must also have this book Winters and Debose are to be commended for putting together this first rate academic examination of an important social phenomenon George Yancey University of North Texas How multiracial people identify themselves can have major consequences on their positions in their families communities and society Even the U S Census has recognized the rapidly increasing numbers of those who consider themselves multiracial adding a new racial category to the 2000 Census form two or more races New Faces in a Changing America Multiracial Identity in the 21st Century examines the multiracial experience its history and the political issues and consequences surrounding biracial and multiracial identity bringing together top names in the field to give readers cutting edge views and insights gained from contemporary research This important new text follows the trail blazed by Maria Root who contributes its opening chapter An introduction places the issues of multiracial identity into context via a discussion of U S Census data and debates providing an overview of the varied readings to come covering such topics as Race as a social rather than biological construction The Multiracial Movement Racial Ethnic Groups in America and Beyond Race Gender human service professionals including psychologists counselors social workers and school personnel and importantly multiracial individuals themselves Out of Whiteness Vron Ware,Les Back,2002
