Racial Impact At The Crossroads:

Racial Impact at the Crossroads George J. Foxx, 2008-11 Have you ever been raped or robbed How about cheated out of something special and expensive What about discriminated against threaten and violated until you were helpless and hopeless and when you went for lawful help the Justice Department which is supposed to protect people instead protects the culprits It s like living a nightmare day after day year after year for 12 1 2 years never to wake up The horrors of disbelief and hurt anger to forgiveness deceit and obstruction and justice being delayed and denied Well I hope you never find yourself in this situation because you may not survive In this nightmare nothing or no one seems to come to your aid even after fighting in federal judicial system before 161 judges in 28 venues even the U S Supreme Court eight times just to be ignored What a horrible feeling The feelings only become more horrible when you know who the Evil Demon in the nightmare is the United States Navy Yes the Navy at the Crossroad Racial Impact... at the Crossroads George J. Foxx, George J

Foxx, Dr, 2003-04 Radicalism at the Crossroads Dayo F. Gore, 2012-10-01 With the exception of a few iconic moments such as Rosa Parks s 1955 refusal to move to the back of a Montgomery bus we hear little about what black women activists did prior to 1960 Perhaps this gap is due to the severe repression that radicals of any color in America faced as early as the 1930s and into the Red Scare of the 1950s To be radical and black and a woman was to be forced to the margins and consequently these women s stories have been deeply buried and all but forgotten by the general public and historians alike In this exciting work of historical recovery Dayo F Gore unearths and examines a dynamic extended network of black radical women during the early Cold War including established Communist Party activists such as Claudia Jones artists and writers such as Beulah Richardson and lesser known organizers such as Vicki Garvin and Thelma Dale These women were part of a black left that laid much of the groundwork for both the Civil Rights Movement of the 1960s and later strains of black radicalism Radicalism at the Crossroads offers a sustained and in depth analysis of the political thought and activism of black women radicals during the Cold War period and adds a new dimension to our understanding of this tumultuous time in United States history Implications of Race and Racism in Student Evaluations of Teaching LaVada U. Taylor, 2021-05-07 Implications of Race and Racism in Student Evaluations of Teaching The Hate U Give highlights practices in higher education such as using student evaluations of teaching to inform merit increases contract renewals and promotion and tenure decisions The collection deconstructs student course feedback to reveal implications of race and racism inherent in student responses mirroring learned behavior situated within the social political context of US culture and K12 schools Learned behavior fostering racial hate given to students informing and shaping classroom experiences with BIPOC faculty To this end the work speaks to systemic racial inequity in higher education learning spaces and possibilities of reimagining student evaluations as a cry for a more just and equitable society Collisions at the Crossroads Genevieve Carpio, 2019-04-16
