Off-Track and Online Holly Kruse,2016-04-01 How horse racing s pioneering use of communication and information networks helped shape the modern media information and leisure environment The horse racing industry has been a pioneer in interactive media information networks and their deployment The race track and the off track betting parlor offer interactive media environments that reconfigure the relationships among private and public space and presence and copresence In this book Holly Kruse explores how horse racing has used media over the last several decades arguing that examining the history and context of horse racing and gambling gives us a clearer understanding of the development of data networks media complexes public entertainment and media publics Kruse describes an enormous industry that depends on global information and communication flows made possible by a network linking racetracks homes off track betting farms and auction sites Racetrack architecture now allows for the presence of screens most showing races from other locations Online betting sites enable bettors to wager from home Off track betting facilities collect wagers on races from all over the country Odds are set interactively through the pari mutuel market system Kruse considers the uses of public space and its redefinition by public screens the effect of interactive media on the racing industry including networked in home betting the technopanic over online poker and the popularity of in home pari mutuel wagering and the use of social media by racing fans to share information and creative work with no financial payoff British Sport: Biographical studies of British sportsmen, sportswomen, and animals Richard William Cox,2003 Volume three of a bibliography documenting all that has been written in the English language on the history of sport and physical education in Britain It lists all secondary source material including reference works in a classified order to meet the needs of the sports historian Film TV Daily Yearbook of Motion Pictures and Television ,1920 The Science of Car Racing Karen Latchana Kenney,2014 Describes the science concepts involved in several types of car racing Racing under the Illusion of Grandeur: A Guide for Men and Women over Forty Who Want to Drive like Mario Russ Rosenberg,2018-08-17 In 2006 a nearly fifty year old Russ Rosenberg had an epiphany For years he had been searching for a hobby that would hold his interest After trying Guitar lessons shooting sports and fly fishing Russ tapped into his lifelong passion for cool cars A short time later he bought a used Miata signed up for autocross school and eventually began road racing In a comprehensive guide Russ relies on his experiences as an amateur racer to provide a roadmap for beginner racers that offers time tested wisdom on how to start in the sport avoid costly mistakes and secure a logical path to success He includes valuable insight into how to choose the right car and the true cost of racing as well as entertaining racing stories for the over forty crowd photos resources and an honest opinion on the sport from his wife Lisa A must read for anyone who is considering getting involved in racing Tony Parella CEO Sportscar Vintage Racing Association Racing While Black Leonard T. Miller,2011-01-04 Starting a NASCAR team is hard work Starting a NASCAR team as an African American is even harder These are just a few of the lessons learned by Leonard T Miller during his decade and a half of running an auto racing program Fueled by more than the desire to win Miller made it his goal to create opportunities for black drivers in the vastly white Southern world of NASCAR Racing While Black chronicles the travails of selling marketing plans to skeptics and scraping by on the thinnest of budgets as well as the triumphs of speeding to victory and changing the way racing fans view skin color With his father former drag racer and longtime team owner Leonard W Miller along for the ride Miller journeys from the short tracks of the Carolinas to the boardrooms of the Big Three automakers to find out that his toughest race may be winning over the human race Subject Catalog Library of Congress,1970 Racing Stewart Maurice Hamilton,Jon Nicholson,1998 The birth of a Grand Prix team does not occur every day or every season for that matter Formula 1 is an extremely difficult business to break into and very few new arrivals survive beyond their first year That s why the racing world took note in 1997 when a new team bearing the name of race legend Jackie Stewart gained a foothold in the sport The team has in fact been in the news since 1996 when Stewart and his son Paul first announced their intentions Racing Stewart tells the story of this remarkable adventure charting in full for the first time ever the birth of a Grand Prix challenger Hamilton and Nicholson were granted unparalleled access to the team from Stewart s initial decision giving them a behind the scenes look at the peaks and valleys that are an inevitable part of gaining acceptance in this ruthless sport TV Guide ,2005 Racing Illustrated ,1896 Racing for Innocence Jennifer Pierce,2012-09-05 How is it that recipients of white privilege deny the role they play in reproducing racial inequality Racing for Innocence addresses this question by examining the backlash against affirmative action in the late 1980s and early 1990s just as courts universities and other institutions began to end affirmative action programs This book recounts the stories of elite legal professionals at a large corporation with a federally mandated affirmative action program as well as the cultural narratives about race gender and power in the news media and Hollywood films Though most white men denied accountability for any racism in the workplace they recounted ways in which they resisted whether wittingly or not incorporating people of color or white women into their workplace lives Drawing on three different approaches ethnography narrative analysis and fiction to conceptualize the complexities and ambiguities of race and gender in contemporary America this book makes an innovative pedagogical tool Ski ,1984-02 "TV" Tommy Ivo Tom Cotter,2011-03-04 2011 International Automotive Media Gold Award Winner In the early 1960s Tommy Ivo had the world in the palm of his hands Still a young man he was already a star of television and film with a promising Hollywood future ahead of him Then his producers told him he had to quit drag racing He quit the entertainment industry instead This is the official story of Ivo s incredible life and racing career Readers will follow TV Tommy as he becomes the most ambitious drag racer in the nation building his own cars in the garage behind his Burbank home becoming the first driver to pilot his dragsters to 170 175 and 180 miles per hour and towing his cars to match races at small town drag strips across the United States Always the showman Ivo pioneered promotional techniques that are today taken for granted In this regard especially his impact on the sport cannot be understated and his legacy is detailed in this incredible bio of one of drag racing s most irrepressible characters American National Pastimes - A History Mark Dyreson,Jaime Schultz,2016-04-14 When the colonies that became the USA were still dominions of the British Empire they began to imagine their sporting pastimes as finer recreations than even those enjoyed in the motherland From the war of independence and the creation of the republic to the twenty first century sporting pastimes have served as essential ingredients in forging nationhood in American history This collection gathers the work of an all star team of historians of American sport in order to explore the origins and meanings of the idea of national pastimes of a nation symbolized by its sports These wide ranging essays analyze the claims of particular sports to national pastime status from horse racing hunting and prize fighting in early American history to baseball basketball and football more than two centuries later These essays also investigate the legal political economic and culture patterns and the gender ethnic racial and class dynamics of national pastimes connecting sport to broader historical themes American National Pastimes chronicles how and why the USA has used sport to define and debate the contours of nation This book was published as a special issue of the International Journal of the History of Sport Flow TV Michael Kackman,Marnie Binfield,Matthew Thomas Payne,Allison Perlman,Bryan Sebok,2010-10-19 From viral videos on YouTube to mobile television on cell phones and beyond this book examines television in an age of technological economic and cultural convergence It contains essays that establishes television s importance in a shifting media culture
