Global One Health and Infectious Diseases William E. Sander,2025-01-24 While many terms relate to One Health the idea remains the same to think outside a chosen area of specialty and work collaboratively as part of a team to improve health status around the world This involves the collective effort of physicians veterinarians public health practitioners ecologists anthropologists social workers economists and many others Collectively these are the Global One Health practitioners Through the lens of infectious disease this book brings together the diverse range of topics necessary to be an effective global health practitioner at the intersection of human and animal health particularly in developing countries It explores what an aspiring or mid career practitioner should be aware of when working with infectious diseases including technical skills cultural competency capacity building big data and understanding the landscape and history of global health Each chapter focuses on a specific area of necessary knowledge with background information case examples and resources to use moving forward An important reference for upper level undergraduate students graduate students and early practitioners in human animal and public health this text highlights the competencies rather than focusing on the problems in Global One Health It provides a blueprint of areas that the reader should pay attention to particularly in the realm of infectious diseases Chapter 13 One Health Education Training and Capacity Building is available to read Open Access at <https://www.taylorfrancis.com/books/9781032140674>

Updates on Clostridioides difficile in Europe Paola Mastrantonio,Maja Rupnik,2024-01-04 This fully updated second edition outlines the currently available clinical epidemiological and experimental data on Clostridioides difficile infections CDI with special emphasis on studies and results achieved in Europe The incidence and severity of CDI has increased significantly over the last decade and the book explains why C. difficile recently reclassified as Clostridioides difficile remains a significant challenge also from economic perspective to health care systems all over the world The different reservoirs of this ubiquitous microorganism are reviewed as well as the different factors contributing to its virulence such as toxins and biofilm formation The rapid evolution of antibiotic resistance is clearly a concern and in a specific way can influence the CDI epidemiology Additionally new emerging strains and comparative genomics studies are taken into consideration for their relevance from epidemiological and evolutionary point of view The book also gives an overview on diagnostics therapy and surveillance all of which are still challenging Therefore a closer look is taken on the effect of probiotics as an alternative to antibiotics for prevention and treatment of CDI Fecal transplantation from healthy donors passive immunotherapies and vaccines for patients with recurrences are also discussed in dedicated chapters New topics included sporulation and membrane vesicles in C. difficile The book closes with a summary of the history and the achievements of the European Society of Clinical Microbiology and Infectious Diseases Study Group for Clostridium difficile ESGCD written by the current and past presidents of the Society It is the aim of this book to raise awareness on CDI and to disseminate updated information on its prevention diagnosis and treatment

EU Foreign Policy through the Lens of Discourse Analysis Caterina Carta, Jean-Frederic Morin, 2016-04-22 Leading scholars in discourse analysis and European foreign policy join forces in this book marking a real breakthrough in the literature Not only do they offer original perspectives on European foreign policy but they bring together various theories on foreign policy discourses that remain too often isolated from each other This theoretical diversity is clearly reflected in the book's four pronged structure Part I Post structuralist Approaches with contributions from Thomas Diez Henrik Larsen and Beste Isleyen Part II Constructivist Approaches with contributions from Knud Erik Jørgensen Jan Orbie Ferdi de Ville Esther Barb Anna Herranz Surrall's and Michal Natonski Part III Critical Discourse Analytical Approaches with contributions from Senem Aydin D zgit Amelie Kutter Ruth Wodak Salomi Boukala and Caterina Carta Part IV Discursive Institutional Approaches with contributions from Ben Rosamond Antoine Rayroux and Vivien A Schmidt The volume is the first full length study on how to apply different discourse analytical approaches and methodologies to European foreign policy The paperback edition makes for a unique selling point as a course text

World War II in Europe, Africa, and the Americas, with General Sources Loyd Lee, 1997-08-21 A broadly interdisciplinary work this handbook discusses the best and most enduring literature related to the major topics and themes of World War II Military historiography is treated in essays on the major theaters of military operations and the related themes of logistics and intelligence while political and diplomatic history is covered in chapters on international relations resistance movements and collaboration The volume analyzes themes of domestic history in essays on economic mobilization the home fronts and women in the military and civilian life The book also covers the Holocaust This handbook approaches each topic from a global viewpoint rather than focusing on individual national communities Except for nonprint material the literature research and sources surveyed are primarily those available in English The volume is aimed at both experts on the war and the general academic community and will also be useful to students and serious laymen interested in the war Handbook on Antimicrobial Resistance
