Greig Crysler, Stephen Cairns, Hilde Heynen, 2012-01-10 The SAGE Handbook of Architectural Theory documents and builds upon some of the most innovative developments in architectural theory over the last two decades Bringing into dialogue a range of geographically institutionally and historically competing positions the book examines and explores parallel debates in related fields The book is divided into eight sections Power Difference Embodiment Aesthetics Pleasure Excess Nation Spectacle Modernity History Memory Tradition Design Practice Production Technology Science Virtuality Nature Landscape Sustainability City Metropolis Territory Creating openings for future lines of inquiry and establishing the basis for new directions for education research and practice the book organizes itself around specific case studies to provide a critical interpretive and speculative enquiry into the relevant debates in architectural theory A methodical authoritative and comprehensive addition to the literature the Handbook is suitable for academics researchers and practitioners in architecture urban geography cultural studies sociology and geography Surrealism and Animation Abigail Susik, 2025-05-15 From Betty Boop to Donald Duck Tex Avery to Walt Disney collage animation to Japanese anime and Claymation to 3D animation Surrealism and Animation is the first book to identify correspondences between the art of animation and the International Surrealist Movement Sharing a deep commitment to a reanimation of everyday life surrealist artists and animators sought a marvellous living form of art Cartoons and trick films by pioneers such as Georges Méliès were influential for Salvador Dalí and André Breton among others many other surrealists and their associates such as Max Ernst Joseph Cornell Hans Richter Len Lye Roland Topor Jan van Kesteren and Lawrence Jordan turned to animated cinema and theories of animacy to express their surrealist visions Surrealism and Animation is the first book devoted to surrealism's vivid engagement with the history theory and medium of animation on a transnational basis Featuring seventeen essays by leading and emerging scholars as well as interviews with contemporary artists Penny Slinger and Jacolby Satterwhite this collection investigates a shimmering range of topics on animated surrealism including black humour queer subjectivities ecofeminism Black surrealisms and more For Creative Geographies Harriet Hawkins, 2013-10-08 This book provides the first sustained critical exploration and celebration of the relationship between Geography and the contemporary Visual Arts With the growth of research in the Geohumanities and the Spatial Humanities there is an imperative to extend and deepen considerations of the form and import of geography art relations Such reflections are increasingly important as geography art intersections come to encompass not only relationships built through interpretation but also those built through shared practices wherein geographers work as and with artists curators and other creative practitioners For Creative Geographies features seven diverse case studies of artists works and exhibitions made towards the end of the twentieth and the beginning of the twentieth first century Organized into three analytic sections the volume explores the role of art in the making of geographical knowledge the growth of geographical perspectives as art world analytics and shared explorations of the territory of the body In doing so Hawkins proposes an analytic framework for exploring questions of the geographical work art does the value of geographical analytics in exploring the production and consumption of art and the different forms of encounter that artworks develop whether this be with their audiences or their makers

Artist Animal Steve Baker, 2013-02-27 Animals have always been compelling subjects for artists but the rise of animal advocacy and posthumanist thought has prompted a reconsideration of the relationship between artist and animal In this book Steve Baker examines the work of contemporary artists who directly confront questions of animal life treating animals not for their aesthetic qualities or as symbols of the human condition but rather as beings who actively share the world with humanity The concerns of the artists presented in this book Sue Coe Eduardo Kac Lucy Kimbell Catherine Chalmers Olly and Suzi Angela Singer Catherine Bell and others range widely from the ecological to the philosophical and from those engaging with the modification of animal bodies to those seeking to further the cause of animal rights Drawing on extensive interviews he conducted with the artists under consideration Baker explores the vital contribution that contemporary art can make to a broader conception of animal life emphasizing the importance of creativity and trust in both the making and understanding of these artworks Throughout Baker is attentive to issues of practice form and medium He asks for example whether the animal itself could be said to be the medium in which these artists are working and he highlights the tensions between creative practice and certain kinds of ethical demands or expectations Featuring full color vivid examples of their work Artist Animal situates contemporary artists within the wider project of thinking beyond the human asserting art's power to open up new ways of thinking about animals

Artistic Reconfigurations of Rome Kaspar Thormod, 2019-04-09 In Artistic Reconfigurations of Rome Kaspar Thormod examines how visions of Rome manifest themselves in artworks produced by international artists who have stayed at the city's foreign academies Structured as an alternative guide to Rome the book represents an interdisciplinary approach to creating a dynamic visual history that brings into view facets of the city's diverse contemporary character Thormod demonstrates that when artists successfully reconfigure Rome they provide us with visions that being anchored in a present undermine the connotations of permanence and immovability that cling to the Eternal City epithet Looking at the work of these artists the reader is invited to engage critically with the question what is Rome today or perhaps better what can Rome be

Inside the Freud Museums Joanne Morra, 2017-12-11 Sigmund Freud spent the final year of his life at 20 Maresfield Gardens London surrounded by all his possessions in exile from the Nazis The long term home and workspace he left behind in Berggasse 19 Vienna is a seemingly empty space devoid of the great psychoanalyst's objects and artefacts Now museums both of these spaces resonate powerfully Since 1989 the Freud Museum London has held over 70 exhibitions by a distinctive range of artists including Louise Bourgeois Sophie Calle Mat Collishaw Susan Hiller Sarah Lucas and Tim Noble and Sue Webster The Sigmund Freud Museum Vienna houses a small but impressive contemporary art collection with work by John Baldessari Joseph Kosuth Jenny Holzer Franz West and Ilya Kabakov In this remarkable book Joanne Morra offers a nuanced analysis of these historical museums and their unique relationships to contemporary art Taking us on a journey through the site responsive artworks exhibitions and curatorial practices that intervene in the objects spaces and memories of these museums Joanne Morra offers a fresh experience of the history and practice of psychoanalysis of museums and contemporary art

Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art Ian Buchanan, Lorna Collins, 2014-07-31 The concept of schizoanalysis is Deleuze and Guattari's fusion of psychoanalytic inspired theories of the self the libido and desire with Marx inspired theories of the economy history and society Schizoanalysis holds that art's function is both political and aesthetic it changes perception If one cannot change perception then one cannot change anything politically This is why Deleuze and Guattari always insist that artists operate at the level of the real not the imaginary or the symbolic Ultimately they argue there is no necessary distinction to be made between aesthetics and politics They are simply two sides of the same coin both concerned with the formation and transformation of social and cultural norms Deleuze and the Schizoanalysis of Visual Art explores how every artist good or bad contributes to the structure and nature of society because their work either reinforces social norms or challenges them From this point of view we are all artists we all have the potential to exercise what might be called a aesthetico political function and change the world around us or conversely we can not only let the status quo endure but fight to preserve it as though it were freedom itself Edited by one of the world's leading scholars in Deleuze Studies and an accomplished artist curator and critic this impressive collection of writings by both academics and practicing artists is an exciting imaginative tool for a upper level students and academics researching and studying visual arts critical theory continental philosophy and media

Francesca Woodman and the Kantian

Sublime Claire Raymond, 2017-07-05 In her feminist inquiry into aesthetics and the sublime Claire Raymond reinterprets the work of the American photographer Francesca Woodman 1958 1981 Placing Woodman in a lineage of women artists beginning with nineteenth century photographers Julia Margaret Cameron and Clementina Viscountess Hawarden Raymond compels a reconsideration of Woodman's achievement in light of the gender dynamics of the sublime Raymond argues that Woodman's photographs of decrepit architecture allegorically depict the dissolution of the frame a dissolution Derrida links to theories of the sublime in Kant's Critique of Judgement Woodman's self portraits Raymond contends test the parameters of the gaze a reading that departs from the many analyses of Woodman's work that emphasize her dramatic biography Woodman is here revealed as a conceptually sophisticated artist whose deployment of allegory and allusion engages a broader debate about Enlightenment aesthetics and the sublime The Uses of Art in Public Space Julia Lossau, Quentin Stevens, 2014-12-05 This book links two fields of interest which are too seldom considered together the production and critique of art in public space and social behaviour in the public realm Whilst most writing about public art has focused on the aesthetic cultural and political intentions and processes that shape its production this edited collection examines a variety of public artworks from the perspective of their actual everyday use Contributors are interested in the rich diversity of peoples engagements with public artworks across various spatial and temporal scales encounters which do not limit themselves to the representational aspects of the art and which are not necessarily as the artist curator or sponsor intended Case studies consider a broad range of public art including commissioned and unofficial artworks memorials street art street furniture performance art sound art and media installations Doing Museology Differently Duncan Grewcock, 2013-09-05 One might believe that museum studies is a stable field of academic inquiry based on a set of familiar institutional forms and functions But as institutions museums have never been stable or singular and neither has the discipline of museum studies Museum studies as a field of academic inquiry has received little critical attention One result of this neglect has arguably been a lack of invention in museum studies another is the distancing of academic museum studies from museum practice Doing Museology Differently charts a different course A critical creative reflection on academic practice the book takes the form of a narrative account of museological fieldwork A research story unfolds challenging academic conventions at the level of its own presentation the book combines critical museum visiting with an autobiographical voice The identification of a previously underexplored interdisciplinary space leads the author to experiment with museum studies using contemporary developments in the theory and practice of human geography The new approaches to museological research and representation that emerge from this unique inquiry challenge assumed institutional and intellectual boundaries and act as a call to further creative experimentation The Wall Beside the Work Derek Pigrum, 2021-06-23 This book is about the way artists generate an endless chain of substitute objects for something they can never quite find It explores the work involved in art with a focus upon finding gathering and assembling charged and auratic objects on the wall beside the work The author employs the term Das Gegenwerk or the work towards the work This concept avoids definitive closure and expands the notion of drafting and related practices to include qualitative research methods The multi mode transitional practices of Das Gegenwerk are devoid of any demand for a preconceived goal but instead hinge upon the provisional and indeterminate As such it is a far cry from the binary logic of the computer and the design cycle but is of interest to an audience engaged with both Das Gegenwerk hinges on our capacity to respond to the outside rather than the inwardness often attributed to creative agency A fundamental belief of the book is that by investigating and adapting the practices of expert practitioners we can gain an understanding of high level creativity It is neither a recipe nor a linear or cyclic approach Rather artistic creation is an interweave of transitional multi mode practices where the overriding emphasis is on the handling or habituation of transitional materials in physical place The author addresses the urgent need to provide a balance between the promise of new technology and our capacity to both respond to and work with what the world bestows

Of What One Cannot Speak Mieke Bal,2011-03-15 Doris Salcedo a Colombian born artist addresses the politics of memory and forgetting in work that embraces fraught situations in dangerous places Noted critic and theorist Mieke Bal narrates between the disciplines of contemporary culture in order to boldly reimagine the role of the visual arts Both women are pathbreaking figures globally renowned and widely respected Doris Salcedo meet Mieke Bal In Of What One Cannot Speak Bal leads us into intimate encounters with Salcedo s art encouraging us to consider each work as a theoretical object that invites and demands certain kinds of considerations about history death erasure and grief Bal ranges widely through Salcedo s work from Salcedo s Atrabiliarios series in which the artist uses worn shoes to retrace los desaparecidos the disappeared from nations like Argentina Chile and Colombia to Shibboleth Salcedo s once in a lifetime commission by the Tate Modern for which she created a rupture as if by earthquake that stretched the length of the museum hall s concrete floor In each instance Salcedo s installations speak for themselves utilizing household items human bones and common domestic architecture to explore the silent spaces between violence trauma and identity Yet Bal draws out even deeper responses to the work questioning the nature of political art altogether and introducing concepts of metaphor time and space in order to contend with Salcedo's powerful sculptures and installations. An unforgettable fusion of art and essay, Of What One Cannot Speak takes us to the very core of events we are capable of remembering yet still uncomfortably cannot speak aloud.

Eva Hesse Vanessa Corby, 2010-06-22 Here is an important new examination of the work of American German Jewish artist Eva Hesse, one of the most significant figures in twentieth-century art. Using exciting new feminist approaches and taking as her starting point two key works, Corby reveals the way in which Hesse has been constructed as a woman artist and explores the overlooked legacy of the Holocaust and refugee life in her art practice. Considering creativity and the feminine trauma and historiography and providing a reassessment of Hesse's relationship with her mother and its impact on her work, the book also confirms the importance of drawing practice within Hesse's wider oeuvre.

Play and the Artist's Creative Process Elly Thomas, 2019-02-08 Play and the Artist's Creative Process explores a continuity between childhood play and adult creativity. The volume examines how an understanding of play can shed new light on processes that recur in the work of Philip Guston and Eduardo Paolozzi. Both artists' distinctive engagement with popular culture is seen as connected to the play materials available in the landscapes of their individual childhoods. Animating or toying with material to produce the unforeseen outcome is explored as the central force at work in the artists' processes. By engaging with a range of play theories, the book shows how the artists' studio methods can be understood in terms of game strategies.
