Ecological Feelings Joshua Trey Barnett,2025-03-01 These days earthly coexistence often feels bad As environmental crises amass they cast a shadow over an imagined future and the promises of better or at least predictable days to come In times of climate chaos mass extinction and rampant environmental injustice it is easy to despair But here and there a glimmer of joy or optimism shines forth and reminds us that it is possible even necessary to love and to hope amid the ruins The contributors to this volume grapple with a plurality of interrelated ecological feelings care concern contempt empathy fear grief hope joy numbness optimism possessiveness regret and saudades Informed by a rhetorical perspective the essays collected here reveal what sets our ecological feelings into motion Crucially they also uncover some of the rhetorical practices through which we might collectively feel our way into a more harmonious earthly coexistence Technical Report, 2005

Red Desert Annie Proulx, 2012-07-25 A photographic and multidisciplinary study of one of America's last undeveloped and most endangered landscapes edited by a Pulitzer Prize winning author A vast expanse of rock formations sand dunes and sagebrush in central and southwest Wyoming the little known Red Desert is one of the last undeveloped landscapes in the United States as well as one of the most endangered It is a last refuge for many species of wildlife Sitting atop one of North America's largest untapped reservoirs of natural gas the Red Desert is a magnet for energy producers who are damaging its complex and fragile ecosystem in a headlong race to open a new domestic source of energy and reap the profits To capture and preserve what makes the Red Desert both valuable and scientifically and historically interesting writer Annie Proulx and photographer Martin Stupich enlisted a team of scientists and scholars to join them in exploring the Red Desert through many disciplines geology hydrology paleontology ornithology zoology entomology botany climatology anthropology archaeology sociology and history Their essays reveal many fascinating often previously unknown facts about the Red Desert everything from the rich pocket habitats that support an amazing diversity of life to engrossing stories of the transcontinental migrations that began in prehistory and continue today on I 80 which bisects the Red Desert Complemented by Martin Stupich's photo essay which portrays both the beauty and the devastation that characterize the region today Red Desert bears eloquent witness to a unique landscape in its final years as a wild place

Season of Hope Beverly Key

Ball, 2013-07-03 God has promised to never leave us or forsake us Heb 13:5 yet for the newly widowed feeling all alone is a new challenge In multivoice viewpoint read Jim and Beverly's stories individually and collectively as they share with the reader the history and the events of their unlikely meeting A Season of Hope Her Story His Story Their Story is a journey into their lives different and unique as they discover their season of hope again at ages sixty two and fifty five Bathed in their amazement of God's working in their lives you will find yourself identifying your own season of hope The Balls use their

seventy one years of collective marriage experience to urge the reader to become aware of the ordinary and extraordinary circumstances in their own personal stories The book is a combined effort of two people who loved the Lord and each other Jim went to be with the Lord on November 26 2004 and Beverly wrote the book using both their writings collected and filed but never before published in book form Watch the Lord set into motion events that will leave you cheering with them and forever replacing the word lucky with blessed     The Spontaneous Healing of Belief Gregg Braden,2009-04-01 What would it mean to discover that everything from the DNA of life to the future of our world is based upon a simple Reality Code one that we can change and upgrade by choice New revelations in physics and biology suggest that we re about to find out A growing body of scientific evidence suggests that our universe works like a Consciousness Computer Rather than the number codes of typical software our Consciousness Computer uses a language that we all have yet are only beginning to understand Life s reality code is based in the language of human emotion and focused belief Knowing that belief is our reality maker the way we think of ourselves and our world is now more important than ever For us to change the beliefs that have led to war disease and the failed careers and relationships of our past we need a reason to see things differently Our ancestors used miracles to change what they believed Today we use science The Spontaneous Healing of Belief offers us both the miracles that open the door to a powerful new way of seeing the world and the science that tells us why the miracles are possible revealing why we are not limited by the laws of physics and biology as we know them today Once we become aware of the paradigm shattering discoveries and true life miracles we must think of ourselves differently And that difference is where the spontaneous healing of belief begins
