In Love and War Alex Preston, 2014-07-01 In Love and War weaves fact and fiction to create a sweeping portrait of a city at war. The novel is told through the eyes, letters and journals of Esmond Lowndes who comes to Italy a lost and lonely young man in the shadow of his politician father. Through his friendships with a striking cast of contemporary characters from the poet Ezra Pound to Alice Keppel a former royal mistress Esmond begins to leave his early disappointments behind him. On the cobbles of Florence's many storied streets he deepens his appreciation of art and literature and falls in love. With the coming of war Esmond finds himself stranded in a city of enemies hunted by the malevolent Mario Cariti head of the Fascist secret police. He retreats into the hills above Florence taking with him a painting that has come to assert a profound hold over him. When the Nazis arrive Esmond is drawn into Giustizia e Libertà the Resistance movement and is soon helping to spirit refugees to safety to hide the city's Jews. With his lover Ada at his side he is at the centre of assassination plots shoot outs and car chases culminating in a final mission of extraordinary daring. In Love and War is a novel that will take you deep into the secret heart of history meticulously researched and full of period detail. It is a novel of art and letters of bawdy raconteurs and dashing spies. With Esmond Lowndes you will see the beauty of Florence as never before and feel the horror of war as it sweeps over the city's terracotta rooftops. Inspired by a host of real life stories In Love and War is both epic and intimate harrowing and heartwarming.

During the occupation American servicemen married approximately 1,800 women from New Zealand and the island Pacific creating legal bonds through marriage and through children. Additionally American servicemen fathered an estimated four thousand nonmarital children with Indigenous women in the South Pacific Command Area. In Of Love and War Angela Wanhalla details the intimate relationships forged during wartime between women and U.S. servicemen stationed in the South Pacific traces the fate of wartime marriages and addresses consequences for the women and children left behind. Paying particular attention to the experiences of women in New Zealand and in the island Pacific including Tonga Fiji Samoa and the Cook Islands Of Love and War aims to illuminate the impact of global war on these women their families and Pacific societies Wanhalla argues that Pacific war brides are an important though largely neglected cohort whose experiences of U S military occupation expand our understanding of global war By examining the effects of American law on the marital opportunities of couples their ability to reunite in the immediate postwar years and the citizenship status of any children born of wartime relationships Wanhalla makes a significant contribution to a flourishing scholarship concerned with the intersections between race gender sexuality and militarization in the World War II era

Rich Man's War David Williams,2011-03-15

In Rich Man's War historian David Williams focuses on the Civil War experience of people in the Chattahoochee River Valley of Georgia and Alabama to illustrate how the exploitation of enslaved blacks and poor whites by a planter oligarchy generated overwhelming class conflict across the South eventually leading to Confederate defeat This conflict was so clearly highlighted by the perception that the Civil War was a rich man's war and a poor man's fight that growing numbers of oppressed whites and blacks openly rebelled against Confederate authority undermining the fight for independence After the war however the upper classes encouraged enmity between freedpeople and poor whites to prevent a class revolution Trapped by racism and poverty the poor remained in virtual economic slavery still dominated by an almost unchanged planter elite The publication of this book was supported by the Historic Chattahoochee Commission
