love someone Can it be an appropriate or fitting response to an individual Can it be rational Or is love like perceptual experiences sensations and urges the sort of thing we just have and for which we cannot be rationally criticizable Hichem Naar provides a sustained defense of the rationality of love There are reasons to love others reasons provided by the unique value of each individual This will in turn rule out popular accounts of love which deny love s rationality and vindicate those accounts that make room for it Drawing on various domains of philosophical inquiry such as the philosophy of mind the philosophy of normativity and epistemology Naar provides a careful assessment of the various positions in the debate over reasons for love and develops his own answer to the normative question about love
