Lisa Tucker McElroy

Love Lizzie A Story About Deployment:

Love, Lizzie Lisa Tucker McElroy, 2009-03-01 Lizzie's mom is serving in the military overseas and Lizzie really misses her. While they are apart Lizzie and her mom write letters to each other to help make the separation easier. Lizzie asks her mom to hurry up and defend freedom so she can come home soon. It's hard when her mom misses Lizzie's soccer championship and her birthday. Throughout the story Lizzie draws maps to show her mother the important things in her life like the new ice cream store, her new friend's house, the family's Thanksgiving airplane trip to Florida, and the stars in the sky. While Lizzie doesn't know exactly where her mom is, they both can wish on the same star. Couple-Based Interventions for Military and Veteran Families Douglas K. Snyder, Candice M. Monson, 2012-08-01

Presenting couple-based interventions uniquely tailored to the mental health needs of military and veteran couples and families, this book is current, practical, and authoritative. Chapters describe evidence-based interventions for specific disorders such as posttraumatic stress, depression, and substance abuse, and related clinical challenges including physical aggression, infidelity, bereavement, and parenting concerns. Clear guidelines for assessment and treatment are illustrated with helpful case examples. 18 reproducible handouts can be downloaded and printed in a convenient 8 1/2 x 11 size. The book also provides essential knowledge on the culture of military families and the normative transitions and adjustments they face. Love, Lizzie Lisa Tucker McElroy, 2005

Includes nonfiction tips for helping children of military families. Nine-year-old Lizzie writes to her mother who is deployed overseas during wartime and includes maps that show her mother what Lizzie has been thinking and doing. The War of My Generation David Kieran, 2015-08-04 Following the 9/11 attacks, approximately four million Americans have turned eighteen each year, and more than fifty million children have been born. These members of the millennial and post-millennial generation have come of age in a moment marked by increased anxiety about terrorism, two protracted wars, and policies that have raised questions about the United States's role abroad and at home. Young people have not been shielded from the attacks or from the wars and policy debates that followed. Instead, they have been active participants as potential military recruits and organizers for social justice, amid anti-immigration policies, as students in schools learning about the attacks, or readers of young adult literature about wars. The War of My Generation is the first essay collection to focus specifically on how the terrorist attacks and their aftermath have shaped these new generations of Americans. Drawing from a variety of disciplines including anthropology, sociology, cultural studies, and literary studies, the essays cover a wide range of topics from graphic war images in the classroom to computer games designed to promote military recruitment to emails from parents in the combat zone. The collection considers what cultural factors and products have shaped young people's experience of the 9/11 attacks, the wars that have followed, and their experiences as emerging citizen subjects in that moment. Revealing how young people understand the War on Terror and how adults understand the way young people think, The War of My Generation offers groundbreaking research on catastrophic events still fresh in our minds. Everyone Serves (ePub

The Collected Stories of

Eudora Welty Eudora Welty, 1980 Stories as good in themselves and as influential on the aspirations of others as any since Hemingway's These stories are honest and vastly entertaining Joyce in the Belly of the Big Truck; Workbook Joyce A. Cascio, 2005-05 YC Young Children, 2008 Lizzie Borden on Trial Joseph A. Conforti, 2016-02-02 Most people could probably tell you that Lizzie Borden took an axe and gave her mother forty whacks but few could say that when tried Lizzie Borden was acquitted and fewer still why In Joseph A Conforti's engrossing retelling the case of Lizzie Borden sensational in itself also opens a window on a time and place in American history and culture Surprising for how much it reveals about a legend so ostensibly familiar Conforti's account is also fascinating for what it tells us about the world that Lizzie Borden inhabited As Conforti himself a native of Fall River the site of the infamous murders introduces us to Lizzie and her father and step mother he shows us why who they were matters almost as much to the trial's outcome as the actual events of August 4 1892 Lizzie for instance was an unmarried woman of some privilege a prominent religious woman who fit the profile of what some characterized as a Protestant nun She was also part of a class of moneyed women emerging in the late 19th century who had the means but did not marry choosing instead to pursue good works and at times careers in the helping professions Many of her contemporaries we learn particularly those of her class found it impossible to believe that a woman of her background could commit such a gruesome murder As he relates the details known and presumed of the murder and the subsequent trial Conforti also fills in that background His vividly written account creates a complete picture of the Fall River of the time as Yankee families like the Bordens made wealthy by textile factories began to feel the economic and cultural pressures of the teeming population of native and foreign born who worked at the spindles and bobbins Conforti situates Lizzie's austere household uneasily balanced between the well to do and the poor within this social and cultural milieu laying the groundwork for the murder and the trial as well as the outsize reaction that reverberates to our day As Peter C Hoffer remarks in his preface there are many popular and fictional accounts of this still controversial case but none so readable or so well balanced as this Church & Synagogue Libraries, 2005 A Nun's Story - The Deeply Moving True Story of Giving Up a Life of Love and Luxury in a Single Irresistible Moment Sister Agatha, 2017-01-05 THE SUNDAY TIMES BESTSELLER Shirley Leach lived in a world of extreme comfort wealth and status With every good thing life had to offer she was due to marry the man she loved a man who in turn adored her But all this was to change in a single moment One happy day in the midst of writing to her fiancé her hand stopped writing unbidden then it continued by itself etching the words which would change her life forever but there's no point now as I am going to be a nun That bolt from the blue set events in motion that caused Shirley to lose her mother and sisters her husband to be her horses her parties and life of ease Within months Shirley had become Sister Agatha But her faith in her choice never faltered despite years of great difficulty when her Convent was close to bankruptcy Her belief took her to London to knock on the infamously intimidating and tight fisted Sir Paul Getty's door to secure the money to ensure her community would not lose their home and getting it Now eighty five she looks back on an incredible life of love loss and belief This is at once a deeply poignant tale of doomed romance and a heart warming story of taking a leap of faith and finding a meaning in life beyond the wealth and comfort she was born into Whether a believer or not Sister Agatha s momentous life will touch and inspire whilst reminding us that it is perhaps better to accept that not everything in the world is yet explained Story by Story Thomas Alderson Davis, Robert Arnold Johnson, 2019-07-12 This volume brings together two authors one a psychiatrist one a philosopher to listen to one another s reading of five stories of what it s like to bear a different mental or physical illness The beginning story or anchor for the conversation that unfolds between them is that of a person subject to recurring spells of catatonia the uncanniest of human conditions They discover that truly understanding what an illness is calls for understanding it within the context of who suffers it that to understand illness is to establish the right relation between what is being suffered and who is suffering it This deceptively simple way of talking which is labelled who what talk will prove more practical and more clarifying than will terms like mental and physical Furthermore it has this additional dividend it intrinsically resists a temptation toward medical prejudice the inclination for doctors and other caregivers to lose the who of the sufferer through their focus on the what of her illness Eudora Welty: Stories, Essays, & Memoirs (LOA #102) Eudora Welty, 1998-08 A selection of nine literary and personal essays includes evocations of the Jackson of her youth that is essential to her work and cogent discussions of literary form American Book Publishing Record , 2005 The Practice of Love Teresa De Lauretis, 1994 Between 1970 and now in conjunction with earlier and contemporaneous social movements feminism and poststructuralism have made way for the rise of minority discourse and gay and lesbian studies as fields of scholarly and theoretical research Conceived from the vantage point of the latter this book returns to Freudian psychoanalysis and semiotics to the questions of representation subjectivity desire and their relations to social signification and material reality Morgana Eudora Welty, 1988 Two of Welty s finest stories Moon Lake and June Recital enhanced by twenty black and white illustrations by Mildred Nungester Wolfe Ebenezer Howard Frances Knight, 2023 Ebenezer Howard 1850 1928 is famous worldwide for founding the Garden City movement and interest in him remains strong This is the first full scale biography to be published since the 1980s It explains the remarkable sequence of events that led from the publication of his ideas to the foundation of Letchworth as the world s First Garden City just five years later and it explores other neglected aspects of Howard s life particularly his religious views Shaped in the world of London Congregationalism he became a keen seeker after unity and peace He grafted new religious ideas particularly from Spiritualism and later from Theosophy into his biblically informed Protestant faith Prone to spiritual epiphanies he believed that he had been raised up to preach the gospel of the garden city and to tackle the housing crisis by beginning to build the New Jerusalem in the Hertfordshire countryside Although he sometimes appeared naïve he was astute and highly skilled at combining different and sometimes conflicting ideas in a way that built consensus and gained support from people across the social and political spectrum Howard wanted his garden cities to be places of spiritual exploration and as this book shows early Letchworth certainly lived up to those expectations
