Love from a Poetic Point of View R. D. McManes, 2001 The poetry contained in these pages is written from the heart of a poet expressing eternal love for his beloved wife Is it mushy you ask You bet it is but if you are a romantic at heart and enjoy poetry than this book will definitely fit the bill A/AS Level English Literature A for AQA Student Book Russell Carey, Anne Fairhall, Tom Rank, 2015-11-12 Created specifically for the AQA A AS level English literature A specification for first teaching from 2015 this print student book is suitable for all abilities providing stretch opportunities for the more able and additional scaffolding for those who need it Helping bridge the gap between GCSE and A level the unique three part structure focuses on texts within a particular time period and supports students in interpreting texts and reflecting on how writers make meaning Renaissance Rewritings Helmut Pfeiffer, Irene Fantappiè, Tobias Roth, 2017-09-25 Rewriting is one of the most crucial but at the same time one of the most elusive concepts of literary scholarship In order to contribute to a further reassessment of such a notion this volume investigates a wide range of medieval and early modern literary transformations especially focusing on texts and contexts of Italian and French Renaissance literature The first section of the book Rewriting gathers essays which examine medieval and early modern rewritings while also pointing out the theoretical implications raised by such texts The second part Rewritings in Early Modern Literature collects contributions which account for different practices of rewriting in the Italian and French Renaissance for instance by analysing dynamics of repetition and duplication verbatim reproduction and free reworking textual production and authorial self fashioning alterity and identity replication and multiplication The volume strives at shedding light on the complexity of the relationship between early modern and ancient literature perfectly summed up in the motto written by Pietro Aretino in a letter to his friend the painter Giulio Romano in 1542 Essere modernamente antichi e anticamente moderni The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne, Volume 4.2 John Donne, 2021-11-02 This volume the ninth in the series of The Variorum Edition of the Poetry of John Donne presents newly edited critical texts of 25 love lyrics Based on an exhaustive study of the manuscripts and printed editions in which these poems have appeared Volume 4 2 details the genealogical history of each poem accompanied by a thorough prose discussion as well as a General Textual Introduction of the Songs and Sonets collectively The volume also presents a comprehensive digest of the commentary on these Songs and Sonets from Donne s time through 1999 Arranged chronologically within sections the material for each poem is organized under various headings that complement the volume s companions Volume 4 1 and Volume 4 3 Love's Shadow Paul A. Bové, 2021-01-12 A case for literary critics and other humanists to stop wallowing in their aestheticized helplessness and instead turn to poetry comedy and love Literary criticism is an agent of despair and its poster child is Walter Benjamin Critics have spent decades stewing in his melancholy What if instead we dared to love poetry to choose comedy over Hamlet s tragedy or to pursue romance over Benjamin s suicide on the edge of France of Europe and of civilization itself Paul A Bov challenges young lit critters to throw away their shades and let the sun shine in Love's Shadow is his three step manifesto for a new literary criticism that risks sentimentality and melodrama and eschews self consciousness The first step is to choose poetry There has been since the time of Plato a battle between philosophy and poetry Philosophy has championed misogyny while poetry has championed women like Shakespeare's Rosalind Philosophy is ever so stringent try instead the sober cheerfulness of Wallace Stevens Bov's second step is to choose the essay He praises Benjamin's great friend and sometime antagonist Theodor Adorno who gloried in writing essays not dissertations and treatises The third step is to choose love If you want a Baroque hero make that hero Rembrandt who brought lovers to life in his paintings Putting aside passivity and cynicism would amount to a revolution in literary studies Bov seeks nothing less and he has a program for achieving it

Worldviews and Cultures Nicole Note, R. Fornet-Betancourt, J. Estermann, Diederik AERTS, 2008-12-23 Globalization brings people and cultures together producing in addition to deep and rich encounters exclusion racism xenophobia and asymmetries The present book takes these issues implicitly as its starting point by thoroughly reflecting on them from a perspective of worldviews as one of many approaches More specifically it focuses on people's implicit and explicit interpretations and assumptions of the world of themselves and of others Often deeply rooted and hard to change they have an important function for without them we would continually need to question what we do and what we think In their absolutist form these assumptions may become a barrier for open mindedness and hence for deep intercultural understanding and exchange We need to find a balance between both stances Intercultural philosophy tries to fulfil this role on the one hand by comparing different cultures on a deep philosophical level and as a way to better understand each other's core assumptions and on the other hand by arguing for an intercultural philosophy grounded in specific cases The contributions of this book conceive of another possible world which does not condemn cultural and religious diversity as a detonator for Clashes of Civilizations but rather welcomes it as a source of inspiration for all and of

The Song of the Distant Dove Raymond P. Scheindlin, 2008 Judah Halevi ca 1075 1141 is the best known and most beloved of medieval Hebrew poets partly because of his passionate poems of longing for the Land of Israel and partly because of the legend of his death as a martyr while reciting his Ode to Zion at the gates of Jerusalem He was also one of the premier theologians of medieval Judaism having written a treatise on the meaning of Judaism that is still studied and venerated by traditional Jews As a member of the wealthy Jewish elite of medieval Spain Halevi enjoyed the material pleasures available to the upper classes Alongside his sacred poetry he wrote verses about youthful romance wine songs and odes to his friends In midlife Halevi turned more seriously to religion eventually abandoning his family and community with hopes of ending his life as a pilgrim in the land of Israel Miraculously a number of letters in Arabic were discovered about fifty years ago some written by Halevi some written to Halevi and yet others written about Halevi by his friends in Egypt These letters preserve a vivid record of Halevi s travels as a pilgrim and of the last months of his life Raymond Scheindlin has written the first book length treatment of Halevi s pilgrimage in any language He tells the story of Halevi s journey through selections from these revealing sources and explores its meaning through discussions of his stirring poetry presented here in new verse translations with full commentary In Hebrew verse of unparalleled beauty Halevi salutes the Holy Land he argues with friends about his intentions he sets out his fantasy of crossing the ocean of walking the hills and valleys of the Land of Israel and of dying and mingling his bones with its soil and stones He even confides his secret fears and uncertainties his longing for his family and his fear of death at sea With his consummate skill as a translator of Hebrew poetry and his mastery of Judeo Arabic culture Scheindlin provides fresh insights into the literary religious and historical facets of Halevi s captivating poetry and fateful journey

The Plural of Us Bonnie Costello, 2020-06-09 The Plural of Us is the first book to focus on the poet's use of the first person plural voice poetry's we Closely exploring the work of W H Auden Bonnie Costello uncovers the trove of thought and feeling carried in this small word While lyric has long been associated with inwardness and a voice saying I we has hardly been noticed even though it has appeared throughout the history of poetry Reading for this pronoun in its variety and ambiguity Costello explores the communal function of poetry the reasons risks and rewards of the first person plural Costello adopts a taxonomic approach to her subject considering we from its most constricted to its fully unbounded forms She also takes a historical perspective following Auden's interest in the full range of the human pluralities in a time of particular pressure for and against the collective Costello offers new readings as she tracks his changing approach to voice in democracy Examples from many other poets including Walt Whitman T S Eliot Elizabeth Bishop and Wallace Stevens arise throughout the book and the final chapter offers a consideration of how contemporary writers find form for what George Oppen called the meaning of being numerous Connecting insights to philosophy of language and to recent work in concepts of community The Plural of Us shows how poetry raises vital questions literary and social about how we speak of our togetherness

Apollonius' Argonautica M.M. DeForest, 2018-07-17 The Argonautica was said to have been the source of a quarrel between Apollonius who wrote what looks like an epic poem and Callimachus who denounced the writing of epic poetry Although the quarrel did not take place in the real world its issue controls the poem The heroes are determined to take part in a Homeric epic which the Callimachean narrator refuses to write Drawing on the methods of modern literary theorists but eschewing the jargon DeForest shows how Apollonius uses the literary dispute in Alexandria to give a three dimensional quality to his poem The amusing conflict between heroes and narrator turns serious when the levels of narrative split apart and Medea steps into the gap as a free standing figure the forerunner of powerful women in fiction
