Interreligious Perspectives Russell E. Richey, 2018-09-12 Ecumenical Interreligious Perspectives Globalization in Theological Education is a collection of articles on the wide ranging effects of ecumenism on theological education Fifteen eminent historians theologians missiologists Christian educators and ecumenists in the United Methodist Church and other denominations have addressed such topics as the critical redefinition of ecumenism global inclusiveness and the cultural assumptions implicit in interreligious dialogue These important essays show that the seminaries are responding to the new global awareness with vigor and sensitivity Together they give us a picture of theological education that is spiritually and intellectually prepared to face the challenges of the twenty first century Sager Brown A. Craig Fisher, Ph.D., 2014-05 Sager Brown as an orphanage and school in the bayou country of Louisiana served the intellectual and social developmental interests of black children for over a century when few if any other avenues were available Their story is one of compassion and heartfelt dedication of key individuals who with help countered the destructive force of oppression of post emancipation and segregation resulting in thousands of redeemed lives A brief history of the Bayou Teche area is offered to pinpoint the site of the school which exists today as the major shipping depot of the United Methodist Committee on Relief for relief supplies both nationally and worldwide Divine intervention is in evidence throughout the book as the institution ebbs and flows from one crisis to the next always raising its head to move forward from apparently insurmountable odds to the new light of day Although Sager Brown is and has always been a Methodist church supported institution anyone interested in the plight of children and their eventual redemption will find the book a worthwhile read It was a joy to document the only in depth history of this historic institution The first week I spent as a volunteer at Sager Brown I too knew I was on holy ground I am indebted to Craig Fisher for telling the world how this wonderful facility came to be for it explains why it has always been a sacred spot Craig's research is thorough his presentation scholarly but he has also captured the essence of the ministry that continues today in Baldwin Louisiana Su Kelley multi year Sager Brown volunteer and long time Bible teacher It
