Love Is A Drum Fiction Notes:

Love is a Drum Wallace Collins, 2000-01-20 THE EXIT INTERVIEW is a story about the competitiveness between two business oriented buddies whose friendship became marred by jealousy and envy ended in tragic circumstances or at best melodramatically In LOVE IS A DRUM Pops is a senior citizen who shares the spotlight with Malcolm a young romantic who projects himself years ahead of his time to emphasize with the old man THE EMPTY STAGE is a story that indulges in the often beguiling concept of reality It speaks to a reality that Billy a television cameraman and Walter a character actor both finds it difficult to identify actuality BLOOD AND WINE is a story that shows the need for our compassion in understanding the vagrant and try to ease if not remedy his eerie and dismal world of existence

The South African Short Story in English, 1920-2010 Marta Fossati, 2024-09-05 Through detailed close readings alongside investigations into the history of print culture Marta Fossati traces the development of the South African short story in English from the late 1920s to the first decade of the twenty first century She examines a selection of short stories by important Black South African writers Rolfes and Herbert Dhlomo Peter Abrahams Can Themba Alex La Guma Mtutuzeli Matshoba Ahmed Essop and Zo Wicomb with an alertness to the dialogue between ethics and aesthetics performed by these texts This new history of Black short fiction problematises and interrogates the often polarised readings of Black literature in South Africa that can be torn between notions of literariness protest and journalism Due to material constraints short fiction in South Africa circulated first and foremost through local print media which Fossati analyses in detail to show the cross fertilisation between journalism and the short story While rooted in the South African context the short stories considered also hold a translocal dimension allowing us to explore the ethical and aesthetic practice of intertextuality These are writings that complicate the aesthetics ethics binary generic classifications and the categories of the literary and the political Theoretically eclectic in its approach although largely underpinned by a narratological analysis The South African Short Story in English 1920 2010 When Aesthetics Meets Ethics offers a fresh perspective on the South African short story in English spotlighting several hitherto marginalised figures in South African literary studies

Understanding Louise Erdrich Seema Kurup, 2015-12-30 In Understanding Louise Erdrich Seema Kurup offers a comprehensive analysis of this critically acclaimed Native American novelist whose work stands as a testament to the struggle of the Ojibwe people to survive colonization and contemporary reservation life Kurup traces in Erdrich's oeuvre the theme of colonization both historical and cultural and its lasting effects starting with the various novels of the Love Medicine epic the National Book Award winning The Round House The Birchbark House series of children's literature the memoirs The Blue Jays Dance and Books and Island in Ojibwe Country and selected poetry Kurup elucidates Erdrich's historical context thematic concerns and literary strategies through close readings offering an introductory approach to Erdrich and revealing several entry points for further investigation Kurup asserts that Erdrich's writing has emerged not out of a postcolonial identity but from the ongoing condition of colonization faced by Native Americans in the United States which is manifested in the very real and contemporary struggle for sovereignty and basic civil rights Exploring the ways in which Erdrich moves effortlessly from trickster humor to searing pathos and from the personal to the political Kurup takes up the complex issues of cultural identity assimilation and community in Erdrich's writing Kurup shows that Erdrich offers readers poignant and complex portraits of Native American lives in vibrant three dimensional and poetic prose while simultaneously bearing witness to the abiding strength and grace of the Ojibwe people and their presence and participation in the history of the United States

Sex, Love, Race Martha Hodes, 1999 Since the colonial era North America has been defined and continually redefined by the intersections of sex violence and love across racial boundaries Motivated by conquest economics desire and romance such crossings have profoundly affected American society by disturbing dominant ideas about race and sexuality Sex Love Race provides a historical foundation for contemporary discussions of sex across racial lines which despite the numbers of interracial marriages and multi racial children remains a controversial issue today

The first historical anthology to focus solely and widely on the subject Sex Love Race gathers new essays by both younger and well known scholars which probe why and how sex across racial boundaries has so threatened Americans of all colors and classes

Traversing the whole of American history from liaisons among Indians Europeans and Africans to twentieth century social scientists fascination with sex between Asian Americans and whites the essays cover a range of regions and of racial ethnic and sexual identities in North America
