Love Is Great Thoughts On Romantic Love:

GREAT THOUGHTS ON ROMANCE(PINK EDITION) FOLORUNSHO MEJABI,2015-11-14 Nothing is more curious and awkward than the relationship of two people who only know each other with their eyes who meet and observe each other daily even hourly and who keep up the impression of disinterest either because of morals or because of a mental abnormality Between them there is listlessness and pent up curiosity the hysteria of an unsatisfied unnaturally suppressed need for communion and also a kind of tense respect Because man loves and honours man as long as he is not able to judge him and desire is a product of lacking knowledge Thomas Mann Death in Venice and Other Tales The Romance of Reason Montague Brown,1993 A study of reason as an invitation to explore and discover a new life of meaning The Romance of Reason is an attempt to put the philosophical basis of Aquinas thinking into nontechnical language and make it accessible to the general reader The Tibetan Art of Positive Thinking Christopher Hansard,2005-08-02 The Tibetan Art of Positive Thinking Tibetan B n medicine is one of the world s oldest and most sophisticated systems of healing and the only one endorsed by the Dalai Lama In The Tibetan Art of Positive Thinking Christopher Hansard draws upon the practices and principles of B n along with his own knowledge of Tibetan teachings to offer a series of simple soulful meditations and exercises that can help you achieve spiritual emotional interpersonal and professional success You ll learn how to connect to the energy of positive thought one of the most powerful energy resources trust your inner wisdom and make decisions with greater ease confront your fears accept disappointment maintain hope enhance your relationships by giving unconditional love and helping others and much more You are what you think and with this book as your guide you can direct yourself toward greater freedom meaning and lifelong happiness Memories of War Suzanne Falgout,Lin Poyer,Laurence Marshall Carucci,2016-06-01 Micronesians often liken the Pacific War to a typhoon one that swept away their former lives and brought dramatic changes to their understandings of the world and their places in it Whether they spent the war in bomb shelters in sweet potato fields under the guns of Japanese soldiers or in their homes on atolls sheltered from the war Micronesians who survived those years know that their peoples passed through a major historical transformation Yet Pacific War histories scarcely mention the Islanders across whose lands and seas the fighting waged Memories of War sets out to the fill that historical gap by presenting the missing voices of Micronesians and by viewing those years from their perspectives The focus is on Micronesian remembrances the ritual commemorations features of the landscape stories dances and songs that keep their memories of the conflict alive The inclusion of numerous and extensive interviews and songs is an important feature of this book allowing Micronesians to speak for themselves about their experiences In addition they also reveal distinctively Micronesian cultural memories of war Memories of War preserves powerful and poignant memories for Micronesians it also demonstrates to students of history and culture the extent to which cultural practices and values shape the remembrance of personal experience Families in Context Gene H. Starbuck,Karen Saucier Lundy,2015-11-17 The most thoroughly updated edition yet this book offers students perspectives of changes in marriage and family over time including the impact of the Great Recession and of new media technologies A hallmark of Families in Context remains the well researched data driven quality of the text Beyond presenting thoroughly updated statistics and literature each chapter examines new trends and assesses their implications for students lives The underlying presentation remains balanced theoretically grounded and accessible to a wide variety of classes allowing students of all ages and family backgrounds to draw their own conclusions about controversial topics Features of the new edition include coverage of the Affordable Care Act new social media and families the latest trends in poverty education social mobility gender identities and healthcare updated In the News features and author created PowerPoint slides

Connected Worlds Ann Curthoys, Marilyn Lake, 2006-03-01 This volume brings together historians of imperialism and race travel and modernity Islam and India the Pacific and the Atlantic to show how a transnational approach to history offers fresh insights into the past Transnational history is a form of scholarship that has been revolutionising our understanding of history in the last decade With a focus on interconnectedness across national borders of ideas events technologies and individual lives it moves beyond the national frames of analysis that so often blinker and restrict our understanding of the past Many of the essays also show how expertise in Australian history can contribute to and benefit from new transnational approaches to history Through an examination of such diverse subjects as film modernity immigration politics and romance Connected Worlds weaves an historical matrix which transports the reader beyond the local into a realm which re defines the meaning of humanity in all its complexity Contributors include Tony Ballantyne Desley Deacon John Fitzgerald Patrick Wolfe and Angela Woollacott
