Praying the Scriptures Jeremiah Williamson, 2014-10 The Prayers of the People is the place where liturgy is most likely to lose energy Of course that should not be the case it is a great privilege to offer our prayers to God as a congregation But the Book of Common Prayer provides a limited number of forms and although it also provides guidelines for composition of original prayers many parishes have prayed just a couple of the forms over and over again for 35 years Williamson began to compose these new prayers for his parish posting them on a blog as they were used each Sunday He discovered in the process that the congregational urge to move beyond the Prayer Book's six forms is a common one These new prayers bring freshness to corporate prayer carrying the lectionary based themes of the hymns lessons and sermon into the service creating a fresh and focused worship experience Lectionary based prayers in a call and response format Written in language that is fresh and well crafted
