

Stunning and beautiful not a flower nor a tree, More breathtaking than those and only I can see,
My heart beats your name right down to the core, Filling me with such joy and so much more,
Your eyes so amazing, I just can't look away, They're gorgeous and shining throughout all the day, Here in my arms is where you belong, Our two hearts beating to the same song.

book is the first of hopefully many books of poetry that I am able to put together and share with the readers of the world In this book are poems that were written 20 to 30 years ago as well as poems that were written this year It is a poetry book that is full of all different sorts of poetry for all different sorts of people if has fantasy science fiction as well as religious poems poems that were written as songs and poetry written to show my own feelings at different points in my life It has a touch of all the kinds of poetry I write including the dragons and fairies that I love so very much as well as the kinds of things that are happening today that we have to deal with They are all out there for you to enjoy and peruse and have fun with while you are particular self denigration at the expense of Roman culture Comedy in Republican Rome radically transformed both itself and the culture from which it sprang in Poenulus Plautus laughed at Roman depreciation of Carthage in Adelphoe Terence turned on his audience in provocation The comic Roman poets played with self mockery in Eclogue III Virgil tests his audience s security in judging peasant unpleasantness in Odes III 22 Horace sends up his own pious rusticity down on the farm In the second half of the book Roman verse satire is the subject the genre of male bragging mocks its own masculine aggression

The great Latin satirists make fun of making fun Horace Satires I 9 shows up the politics of humour unmanned by his own good manners Persius nails his own weaknesses in fortifying himself against the world Juvenal Satire 1 loathes the literary scene he bids to dominate The book shows a vital ingredient of Roman poetry to be an energetic surge of urbane banter
