A Companion to Luis Buñuel Gwynne Edwards, 2005 Luis Bu uel 1900 1983 was one of the truly great film makers of the twentieth century Shaped by a repressive Jesuit education and a bourgeois family background he reacted against both escaped to Paris and was soon embraced by Andr Breton s official surrealist group His early films are his most aggressive and shocking the slicing of the eyeball in Un Chien andalou 1929 one of the most memorable episodes in the history of cinema The Forgotten Ones 1950 and He 1952 made in Mexico were followed from 1960 in Spain and France by the films for which he is best known Viridiana 1961 Belle de jour 1966 Tristana 1970 The Discreet Charm of the Bourgeoisie 1972 and That Obscure Object of Desire 1977 Gwynne Edwards analyses the films in the context of Bu uel s personal obsessions sex bourgeois values and religion suggesting that the film maker experienced a degree of sexual inhibition surprising in a surrealist GWYNNE EDWARDS is Professor of Spanish at the University of Wales Aberystwyth

A Search for Belonging Marc Ripley, 2017-11-28 As one of the foremost Spanish directors of all time Luis Bu uel s filmography has been the subject of innumerable studies Despite the fact that the twenty films he made in Mexico between 1947 and

1965 represent the most prolific stage of his career as a filmmaker these have remained relatively neglected in writing on Buñuel and his work This book focuses on nine of the director's films made in Mexico in order to show that a concerted focus on space an important aspect of the films narratives that is often intimated by scholars yet rarely developed can unlock new philosophical meaning in this rich body of work Although in recent years Buñuel's Mexican films have begun to enjoy a greater presence in criticism on the director they are often segregated according to their perceived critical value effectively creating two substrands of work the independent movies and the studio potboilers The interdisciplinary approach of this book unites the two focusing on films such as Los olvidados Nazarín and El ángel exterminador alongside La Mort en ce jardin The Young One and Simón del desierto among others In doing so it avoids the tropes most often associated with Buñuel's cinema surrealism Catholicism the derision of the bourgeoisie and the approach most often invoked in analysis of these themes psychoanalysis Instead this book takes inspiration from the fields of human geography anthropology and philosophy applying these to film focused readings of Buñuel's Mexican cinema to argue that ultimately these films depict an overriding sense of placelessness overtly or subliminally enacting a search for belonging that forces the viewer to question what it means to be in place
