Luke Carson has come to Duluth to help shepherd the arrival of the railroad to the city's port and he's eager to be reunited with his brother and sister in law who recently moved there and are expecting their first child. Competition for the railroad is fierce with the neighboring city of Superior Wisconsin fighting for the tracks to come through their town instead. But the real danger lies in a man who has followed Luke across the country with revenge on his mind. When tragedy brings Gloriana and Luke together they help each other through their grief and soon find their lives inextricably linked. If they survive the trials ahead could it be possible they've been destined for each other all along? Peterson delivers a touching tale of love built out of shared grief in this enjoyable first installment of the Ladies of the Lake series. Law and Religion Barnabas Lindars, 2023-01-01 The place of the Law and its relationship to religious observance and faith is a contested topic in the study of both the Old and New Testament. In Law and Religion members of the Erhardt Seminar group provide an insight into the debate probing key topics and offering new contributions to the subject. Their essays are grouped into three sections focussing in turn on the Law's place in Israelite religion in the Jesus tradition and in Paul and the Apostolic tradition. Thus the foundation of the connection between law and religion in ancient Israel is explored along with the decisive influence of the Deuteronomic reform and the radical new understanding now emerging of the later development in Judaism of the New Testament Period. So also the contemporary challenge to the conventional picture of Jesus and the Law is addressed. The attitude of Paul is shown in new light and post Pauline developments are examined. Readers will find in this symposium a refreshing breadth of opinion on a debate that spans the gamut of disciplines within Biblical studies
