Luke's Christology of Divine Identity

Nina Henrichs-Tarasenkova, 2015-11-19 Henrichs Tarasenkova argues against a long tradition of scholars about how best to represent Luke's Christology When read against the backdrop of ancient ways of constructing personal identity key texts in the Lukan narrative demonstrate that Luke indirectly characterizes Jesus as the one God of Israel together with YHWH Henrichs Tarasenkova employs a narrative approach that takes into consideration recent studies of narrative and history and enables her to construct characters of YHWH and Jesus within the Lukan narrative She employs Richard Bauckham's concept of divine identity that she evaluates against her study of how one might speak of personal identity in the Greco Roman world She engages in close reading of key texts to demonstrate how Luke speaks of YHWH as God in order to demonstrate that Luke Acts upholds a traditional Jewish view that only the God of Israel is the one living God and to eliminate false expectations for how Luke should speak of Jesus as God This analysis establishes how Luke binds Jesus identity to the divine identity of YHWH and concludes that the Lukan narrative in fact does portray Jesus as God when it shows that Jesus shares YHWH's divine identity

Missiology Harold E. Dollar, 1996 This book touches on the fundamental contributions of Luke's two volume work revealing how a small Jewish sect became a worldwide movement in one generation It recognizes the essential unity of Luke Acts by showing how Luke prepares for the book of Acts Luke's story of how the gospel moves from the particular to the universal

Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan, 2015-04-08 How does the Christian proclamation of salvation in Jesus Christ relate to the lives of the people who suffer most Does salvation consist entirely of the hope for eternal life with God How might the church effectively preach the message of salvation in Christ today In Jesus and Salvation Robin Ryan adopts a historical approach to these questions discussing key themes and classic authors in the developing tradition about Christ the Savior He examines modern soteriology by engaging the thought of Karl Rahner Edward Schillebeeckx Gustavo Guti rrez and Elizabeth Johnson He also discusses contemporary conceptions of salvation within an evolutionary view of the cosmos as well as issues related to the Christian confession of Jesus as universal savior in a religiously pluralistic world Ryan concludes by offering his own reflections on the meaning of salvation from God in Jesus Christ By understanding salvation in Christ as both gift and call Ryan invites readers to recognize in the saving grace of God a responsibility for the well being of the human family and the rest of creation

Prophets, Priests, and Kings: A New Way to Consider Spiritual Gifts Gabe Sylvia, 2024-01-05 Toward the end of his life the Lord Jesus told the disciples the church would do the work that he had done and greater works in these last days Building on the finished work of Christ by the power and gifting of the indwelling Holy Spirit believers do these works as prophets priests and kings in what the church has called the gifts of the Holy Spirit Through study of the Old Testament saints who filled these offices Christ to whom they point and important New Testament texts Sylvia builds the paradigm for local church leaders to use to identify and deploy their church members in spiritually gifted ministry This paradigm is anchored in the Scriptures and can be used in congregations across the theological spectrum This book lays out a path for taking seriously the Lord's assertion that in these last days by the power of the Spirit and for the glory of God the church will do great things

Paul and the Gospels Michael F. Bird, Joel Willits, 2013-05-01 This volume which collects together the work of several established scholars attempts to situate the Apostle Paul the Pauline writings and the earliest Christian Gospels together in the context of early Christianity It addresses the issue of how the Christianity depicted in and represented by the individual Gospels relates to the vision of Christianity represented by Paul and the Pauline writings This raises such questions as to what extent did Paul influence the canonical and non canonical Gospels In what way are the Gospels reactions to Paul and his legacy A comparison of the Gospels and Paul on topics such as Old Testament Law Gentile mission Christology and early church leadership structures represents a fruitful area of study While a number of volumes have appeared that attempt to assess the relationship between the historical Jesus and the Apostle Paul relatively few studies on Paul and the Gospels have been published This volume excellently fills this gap in New Testament Studies and makes a valuable contribution to studies on Christian Origins Pauline research and the Gospels

Lexicon of New Testament Greek, 2 Volumes Hermann Cremer, 2001-08-28

Do You Understand What You Are Reading? Cottrell R. Carson, 2021-09-09 Do You Understand What You Are Reading is an attempt to read the Ethiopian eunuch story in the historical grammatical and cultural contexts presented within the narrative of Acts Soon after Luke wrote Acts which is the only New Testament book of history interpreters Church Fathers began wrestling with the moral Promise worldview it contained Many not all signified upon the Ethiopian character in ways that expressed disdain for Imperial eunuchs who were their contemporaries. It was a time of transformation in Western culture. As Rome attracted the best and brightest from all cultures, positions held by Imperial eunuchs were coveted; they were national bureaucrats, priests, and confidants to monarchs. Roman emperor Domitian (81-96) issued an edict banning eunuchs while maintaining his own eunuch, Stephanus. Domitian was murdered by courtiers and castrated. Roman emperor Constantine (306-337) issued another edict banning eunuchs. The social climate became extremely hostile for high-ranking eunuchs as they were attacked in public culture: theater, music, poetry, spoken, written, and sung. In 399, Eutropius, a eunuch, the first and only eunuch Consul in the Eastern Roman Empire, was murdered by his own troops. The Syrian poet Claudian wrote and published a political invective attacking him, which focused social hostility toward him. He ran to Church Father John Chrysostom's church. Eutropius had placed Chrysostom over his bishopric. Eutropius stayed at the altar for three days after Chrysostom closed the sanctuary. On the third day, he emerged and was promptly killed. Afterward, a general slaughter of eunuchs occurred throughout the Western empire, although they may still be found in the east, e.g., Hijras. In the midst of tectonic shifts in Greco-Roman society in Acts, Luke engages Greco-Roman culture on behalf of Promise. His audience includes Imperial eunuchs whose salvation prophets Isaiah and Jeremiah had foretold and who were Luke's contemporaries. 1

Going beyond that, however, EDNT also serves as a guide to the usage of every New Testament word in its various contexts, and it makes a significant contribution to New Testament exegesis and theology. EDNT's thorough, lengthy discussions of more significant words and its grouping of words related by root and meaning, with alphabetical cross-references, distinguish it from simpler Greek-English lexicons. Advancing the discussion of the Theological Dictionary of the Old Testament, EDNT summarizes more recent treatments of numerous questions in New Testament study and takes into consideration newer viewpoints of linguistics.
