Luther And The Reformation Nel Mentor:

Luther and the reformation ,1974 Martin Luther Martin Tangely,2003 Martin Luther only meant for his 95 Theses to spark debate and hopefully a few changes in the Catholic Church Instead they changed the face of world history sparking decades of violent religious conflict and war amongst the nations and peoples of Europe Luther was a Catholic cleric whose chief problem with the Church was the practice of selling indulgences Church leaders though would not sanction debate with him and excommunicated Luther His cause was then championed by varied European royals who saw the chance to break from the Catholic Church and take control of valuable land As the Protestants separated from the Catholic Church they also split from each other into denominations like Lutheran Anglican and Calvinist All of this was more than Luther sought or likely even wanted But the Reformation remains a seminal moment in Western indeed world history and Martin Luther is its father This book presents an overview of Martin Luther s life and his impact on Christianity and the face of the world Following that is a list of carefully selected citations of literature about Luther and the religious change he spawned Easy access is finally provided via author title and subject indexes Monographic Series Library of Congress, National Union Catalog ,1973 Includes entries for maps and atlases The Bookseller ,1973 Library of Congress Catalogs Library of Congress,1977 Subject Catalog, 1975 Library of Congress,1975 Fortress of the Soul Neil Kamil,2020-03-03 French Huguenots made enormous contributions to the life and culture of colonial New York during the seventeenth and eighteenth centuries Huguenot craftsmen were the city s most successful artisans turning out unrivaled works of furniture which were distinguished by unique designs and arcane details More than just decorative flourishes however the visual language employed by Huguenot artisans reflected a distinct belief system shaped during the religious wars of sixteenth century France In Fortress of the Soul historian Neil Kamil traces the Huguenots journey to New York from the Aunis Saintonge region of southwestern France There in the sixteenth century artisans had created a subterranean culture of clandestine workshops and meeting places inspired by the teachings of Bernard Palissy a potter alchemist and philosopher who rejected the communal militaristic ideology of the Huguenot majority which was centered in the walled city of La Rochelle Palissy and his followers instead embraced a more fluid portable and discrete religious identity that encouraged members to practice their beliefs in secret while living safely even prospering as artisans in hostile communities And when these artisans first fled France for England and Holland then left Europe for America they carried with them both their skills and their doctrine of artisanal security Drawing on significant archival research and fresh interpretations of Huguenot material culture Kamil offers an exhaustive and sophisticated study of the complex worldview of the Huguenot community From the function of sacred violence and alchemy in the visual language of Huguenot artisans to the impact among Protestants everywhere of the destruction of La Rochelle in 1628 to the ways in which New York s Huguenots interacted with each other and with other communities of religious dissenters and refugees Fortress of the Soul brilliantly places American colonial history and material life firmly within the larger context of the early modern Atlantic world

King, 2023-05-31 Originally published between 1975 and 2003 the essays included in Humanism Venice and Women reflect Margaret L. King's distinct but interlocking scholarly interests humanism and Venice women and humanism and women of the Italian Renaissance The first part focuses on defining the key characteristics of Venetian as opposed to other Italian humanisms with an analysis of Gramscian theory about the historical role of intellectuals as an aid to understanding humanism in Venice followed by essays on three Venetian humanists who wrote about family relationships or the need to avoid them The third section introduces the major Renaissance women humanists and analyzes the relation of their work to that of male humanists along with an essay on Renaissance mothers of sons in Italy and beyond Crossing boundaries of region and gender and the subdisciplines of intellectual and social history these essays are provocative in themselves while demonstrating how shifting historiographical contexts encourage scholars to view the historical record in new and fruitful ways Religion Index Two, 1994 Religious and Theological Abstracts, 2007 Religion Index One, 2000 Historical Abstracts, 1983 Vols 17 18 cover 1775 1914 Le Ideologie della città europea dall'umanesimo al romanticismo Vittorio Conti, 1993
