Rusch, 2019-05-20 This book provides a specific proposal for churches divided by centuries long disputes and disagreements to move toward a vision of the unity of the church It seeks to offer a way for divided churches to move beyond the present quagmire that challenges much of the modern ecumenical movement Building upon the theological dialogues between the churches this volume identifies and supplies a way for churches to regain a momentum that seems recently to have been lost in the ecumenical movement Inhabiting Unity Ephraim

Radner, Russell R. Reno, 1995 The Hope of Eternal Life Lowell G. Almen, Richard J. Sklba, 2011 Our churches affirm that death cannot destroy the communion with God of those redeemed and justified The nature of the life that the justified departed share with God cannot be described in great detail and in this life it remains a great mystery Nevertheless Catholics and Lutherans share the sure and certain hope that the justified departed are in Christ and enjoy the rest that belongs to those who have run the race This common statement of Round XI offers fresh insights into some issues that proved contentious in the debates of the sixteenth century Among the issues explored in this dialogue were continuity in the communion of saints prayers for or about the dead the meaning of death purgation an interim state between death and the final general judgment and the promise of resurrection Agreements are affirmed on the basis of new insights as readers will
