Lw 2006 Deadly Night:

Networks, Regions and Nations Robert Stein, Judith Pollmann, 2010 This volume offers a fascinating insight into the continuities and discontinuities in the formation of identities in the Low Countries and its neighbouring countries It is an important contribution to the ongoing debates about national and other identities Wandering Women and Holy Matrons Leigh Ann Craig, 2009 This book explores women's experiences of pilgrimage in Latin Christendom between 1300 and 1500 C E Later medieval authors harbored grave doubts about women's mobility literary images of mobile women commonly accused them of lust pride greed and deceit Yet real women commonly engaged in pilgrimage in a variety of forms both physical and spiritual voluntary and compulsory and to locations nearby and distant Acting within both practical and social constraints such women helped to construct more positive interpretations of their desire to travel and of their experiences as pilgrims Regardless of how their travel was interpreted those women who succeeded in becoming pilgrims offer us a rare glimpse of ordinary women taking on extraordinary religious and social authority Women, Gender, and Radical Religion in Early Modern Europe Sylvia Monica Brown, 2007 This collection of essays explores the role of women and gender in a broad range of radical religious movements of the post Reformation Queen's Apprentice Joseph F. The 'Book' of Travels: Genre, Ethnology, and Pilgrimage,

1250-1700 Palmira Brummett, 2009-04-24 The early modern era is often envisioned as one in which European genres both narrative and visual diverged indelibly from those of medieval times This collection examines a disparate set of travel texts dating from the thirteenth to the seventeenth centuries to question that divergence and to assess the modes themes and ethnologies of travel writing It demonstrates the enduring nature of the itinerary the variant forms of witnessing including imaginary maps the crafting of sacred space as a cautionary tale and the use of the travel narrative to represent the transformation of the authorial self Focusing on European travelers to the expansive East from the soft architecture of Timur's tent palaces in Samarkand to the ambiguities of sexual identity at the Mughul court these essays reveal the possibilities for cultural translation as travelers of varying experience and attitude confront remote and foreign or not so foreign space

Justification and Participation in Christ Olli-Pekka Vainio, 2008-02-28 The unity of the early Lutheran reformation even in the central themes such as justification is still an open question This study examines the development of the doctrine of justification in the works of the prominent first and second generation Lutheran reformers from the viewpoints of divine participation and effectivity of justification Generally Luther's idea of Christ's real presence in the believer as the central part of justification is maintained and taught by all Reformers while they simultaneously develop various theological frameworks to depict the nature of participation However in some cases these developed models are contradictory which causes tension between theologians resulting in the invention of new doctrinal formulations

Christian Humanism A. Alasdair A. MacDonald, Zweder R. W. M. von Martels, Jan Riepke Veenstra, 2009 It is a misconception that Christianity and Humanism are in any way in conflict with each other The present book shows that through many centuries and especially in the Renaissance the two stood in a relation that was mutually complementary The contributions in this volume treat aspects and manifestations of this cultural symbiosis and they throw new light on authors and texts both more and less familiar The subject areas discussed include religion history philosophy literature and education The age of Renaissance and Reformation is the central focus but earlier and later periods are also featured The contributions comprise a Festschrift for Professor Arjo Vanderjagt whose work deals centrally with both Christianity and Humanism Contributors are Fokke Akkerman István P. Frymire, 2009-12-23 Scholarship on the German Reformation has long equated preaching with Protestantism just as many scholars have employed sermons but usually in supplemental and unsystematic ways Based on an analysis of over 400 standard sermon collections postils produced by Catholics Lutherans and Calvinists 1520-1620 this study offers the first comprehensive systematic presentation of these works from a cross-confessional perspective It lays to rest the notion that preaching was somehow distinctively Protestant while tracing the creation production use and censorship of postils These sermon collections were nothing less than the applied distillation of Christianity delivered on a regular basis by the clergy to the laity and as such the most important vehicle for the dissemination of ideas in early modern Germany Martin Bucer Briefwechsel/Correspondance: Band VII (Oktober 1531 - März 1532) Berndt Hamm,Reinhold Friedrich,Wolfgang Simon,2008-10-31 Unlike most theologians of his age Martin Bucer proved to be farsighted with respect to European affairs In addition to his contacts within Alsace and Germany he established relations with almost every European country It was his ecumenical attitude that always led him to mediate between the parties in the religious battles of his time His deep commitment to the goal of reaching agreement can be traced in all his activities works and letters Since the first editor Jean Rott Strasbourg died in 1998 Bucer s correspondence has been edited in Erlangen This academic edition of source material provides future research with a broad basis for significant aspects of Reformation history about which very little is known Volume VII covers the period from October 1531 to March 1532 The Horror Show Guide Mike Mayo,2013-04-01 This cinefile s guidebook covers the horror genre monstrously well Find reviews of over 1 000 of the best weirdest wickedest wackiest and most entertaining scary movies from every age of horror Atomic bombs mad serial killers zealous zombies maniacal monsters lurking around every corner and the unleashing of technology rapidly changing and dominating our lives Slasher and splatter films Italian giallo and Japanese city stomping monster flicks Psychological horrors spoofs and nature running amuck You will find these terrors and many more in The Horror Show Guide The Ultimate Frightfest of Movies No gravestone is left unturned to bring you entertaining critiques fascinating top ten lists numerous photos and extensive credit information to satisfy even the most die hard fans Written by a fan for fans The Horror Show Guide helps lead even the uninitiated to unexpected treasures of unease and mayhem with lists of similar motifs including Urban Horrors Nasty Bugs Mad Scientists and Maniacal Medicos Evil Dolls Bad Hair Days Big Bad Werewolves Most Appetizing Cannibals Classic Ghost Stories Fiendish Families Guilty Pleasures Literary Adaptations Horrible Highways and Byways Post Apocalyptic Horrors Most Regrettable Remakes Towns with a Secret and many more With reviews on many overlooked underappreciated gems new devotees and discriminating dark cinema enthusiasts alike will love this big beautiful end all be all guide to an always popular film genre With many photos illustrations and other graphics The Horror Show Guide is richly illustrated Its helpful appendix of movie credits bibliography and extensive index add to its usefulness The Woody Allen Encyclopedia Thomas S.
