

PINK FLOYD - "TIME"

Ticking away the moments that make up a dull day
Fritter and waste the hours in an offhand way
Kicking around on a piece of ground in your home town
Waiting for someone or something to show you the way

Tired of lying in the sunshine staying home to watch the rain
You are young and life is long and there is time to kill today
And then one day you find ten years have got behind you
No one told you when to run you missed the starting gun

And you run and you run to catch up with the sun but it's sinking
Racing around to come up behind you again
The sun is the same in a relative way but you're older Shorter of breath and one day closer to death

Every year is getting shorter never seem to find the time
Plans that either come to naught or half a page of scribbled lines
Hanging on in quiet desperation is the English way
The time is gone the song is over thought I'd something more to say

Home home again
I like to be here when I can
When I come home cold and tired
It's good to warm my bones beside the fire
Far away across the field
The tolling of the iron bell
Calss the faithfull to their knees
TO hear the softly spoken magic spell

Jack Selzer, Robert Wess

Lyric Time:

Lyric Time Sharon Cameron, 1981 Lyric Time offers a detailed critical reading of a particularly difficult poet an analysis of the dominance of temporal structures and concerns in the body of her poetry and finally an important original contribution to a theory of the lyric

Theory of the Lyric Jonathan Culler, 2015-06-08 What sort of thing is a lyric poem An intense expression of subjective experience The fictive speech of a specifiable persona Examining ancient and modern poems from Sappho to Ashbery Jonathan Culler reveals the limitations of these two models the Romantic and the modern and challenges the assumption that poems exist to be interpreted

Figures of Time David Ben-Merre, 2018-02-01 Focuses on how nuances of poetic form alter how we have come to understand cultural aspects of time Figures of Time proposes radically new ideas about the very poetic ground of culture Presenting unique close readings of six modern poets Wallace Stevens W B Yeats H D Hilda Doolittle Ezra Pound Langston Hughes and T S Eliot David Ben Merre brings recent theoretical questions about the rhetoric of modernism and poetic figuration into current discussions in critical theory He argues that poetic spaces often disjunctions of sound and sense disrupt our culturally inherited notions of time reimagining with an often irrational and anachronistic backward glance what we take to be historical chronologies psychological perceptions of time and collective scripts about causality

The Complete Lyrics of Irving Berlin Robert Kimball, Linda Emmet, 2005-12 Applause Books Gathered together in one volume for the first time here are all of the incomparable song lyrics of Irving Berlin the lyrics of more than 1 200 songs 400 of which have never before appeared in print along with anecdotal historical and musicological commentary and dozens of photographs Berlin came from a poor immigrant family and began his career as a singing waiter but by the time he was nineteen he was publishing his songs and quickly found fame with Alexander's Ragtime Band in 1911 In the extraordinary six decades that followed Berlin wrote one popular hit after another Blue Skies Always Cheek to Cheek White Christmas God Bless America There's No Business Like Show Business and many more He also wrote a number of the classics of musical theater's Golden Age climaxing with Annie Get Your Gun He penned three Astaire and Rogers films Top Hat Carefree and Follow the Fleet as well as the scores of Holiday Inn Easter Parade and other films The breadth of his accomplishment is staggering

Freedom Time Anthony Reed, 2014-12 In Freedom Time Anthony Reed reclaims the power of black experimental poetry and prose by arguing that if literature fundamentally serves the human need for freedom in expression then readers and critics must see it as something other than a reflection of the politics of social protest and identity formation Prior to the successful campaigns against Jim Crow segregation in the U S and colonization in the Caribbean literary politics seemed much more obviously interventionist As more African Americans and Afro Caribbean writers gained access to formal political power more writing emerged whose political concerns went beyond improving racial representation appealing for social recognition raising consciousness or commenting on the political disillusion and fragmentation of the post segregation and post colonial moments Through formal innovation and abstraction writers increasingly pushed the limits of representation and expression in order to extend the limits of thought and literary possibility Reed offers a theoretical account of this new black experimental writing which is at once a literary historical development and a concept with which to analyze the ways writing engages race and the possibilities of expression One of his key interventions is arguing that form drives the politics literature not vice versa Through extended analyses of works by N H Pritchard NourbeSe Philip Kamau Brathwaite Claudia Rankine Douglas Kearney Harryette Mullen Suzan Lori Parks and Nathaniel Mackey Freedom Time draws out the political implication of their innovative approaches to literary aesthetics

The Lyric Theory Reader Virginia Walker Jackson, Yopie Prins, 2014-02 Reading lyric poetry over the past century The Lyric Theory Reader collects major essays on the modern idea of lyric made available here for the first time in one place Representing a wide range of perspectives in Anglo American literary criticism from the twentieth and twenty first centuries the collection as a whole documents the diversity and energy of ongoing critical conversations about lyric poetry Virginia Jackson and Yopie Prins frame these conversations with a general introduction bibliographies for further reading and introductions to each of the anthology's ten sections genre theory historical models of lyric New Criticism structuralist and post structuralist reading Frankfurt School approaches phenomenologies of lyric reading avant garde anti lyricism lyric and sexual difference and comparative lyric Designed for students teachers scholars poets and readers with a general interest in poetics this book presents an intellectual history of the theory of lyric reading that has circulated both within and beyond the classroom wherever poetry is taught read discussed and debated today

This Body of Death Eileen Sperry, 2025-12-15 This Body of Death explores how the lyric poetry and other nonnarrative literary forms of early modern England shape our understanding of what it means to be mortal Previous studies of the nature of death in this period have looked almost exclusively at narrative source material plays theological accounts historical reports Those narrative forms consequently have emphasized death the narrative dimension of mortality an event in time life's climactic ending Eileen Sperry looks instead to lyric forms which embrace nonlinear modes of time and argues these texts reveal an aspect of mortality best described as decay the material instability of the body in the here and now Chapters explore expressions of decay in works by William Shakespeare Edmund Spenser John Donne and Hester Pultrey through subjects like temperance poetic immortality the temporality of grief and bodily resurrection all of which capture decay's presence across a variety of experiences These early modern lyrics and the model of decay that emerges from them are read in conversation with contemporary disability studies and the work of theorists like Tobin Siebers Alison Kafer David Mitchell and Sharon Snyder Disability theory offers an essential framework for understanding how the forms of texts shape the meaning we assign to bodies of all kinds Bringing together disability studies lyric studies and new formalist methods This Body of Death reveals new ways of thinking about what it means to die

Shakespeare's Lyricized Drama Aleksandŭr Shurbanov, 2010 This book explores Shakespeare's poetic drama as a blend of the dramatic and the lyrical Through a series of minute textual analyses it traces the gradual integration of the two modes from Love's Labour's Lost to Hamlet and the other mature tragedies How this combination is effected in its details is a question that can help us understand better the specificity of Shakespeare's innovative work for the theater and the power of its impact

The Beatles and Vocal Expression Bláithín Duggan, 2023-12-01 The Beatles and Vocal Expression examines popular song through the topic of paralinguistic a sub category of nonverbal communication that addresses characteristics of speech that modify meaning and convey emotion It responds to the general consensus regarding the limitations of Western art music notation to analyse popular song assesses paralinguistic voice qualities giving rise to expressive tropes within and across songs and lastly addresses gaps in existing Beatles scholarship Taking The Beatles UK studio albums 1963-1970 paralinguistic voice qualities are examined in relation to concepts characteristics metaphors and functions of paralinguistic in vocal performance Tropes such as rising and falling intonation on words of woe have historical connections to performative and conversational techniques This interdisciplinary analysis is achieved through musicology sound studies applied linguistics and cultural history The new methodology locates paralinguistic voice qualities in recordings identifies features shows functions and draws aural threads within and across popular songs

Early Sound Recordings Eva Moreda Rodríguez, Inja Stanović, 2023-02-28 The use of historical recordings as primary sources is relatively well established in both musicology and performance studies and has demonstrated how early recording technologies transformed the ways in which musicians and audiences engaged with music This edited volume offers a timely snapshot of a wide range of contemporary research in the area of performance practice and performance histories inviting readers to consider the wide range of research methods that are used in this ever expanding area of scholarship The volume brings together a diverse team of researchers who all use early recordings as their primary source to research performance in its broadest sense in a wide range of repertoires within and on the margins of the classical canon from the analysis of specific performing practices and parameters in certain repertoires to broader contextual issues that call attention to the relationship between recorded performance and topics such as analysis notation and composition Including a range of accessible music examples which allow readers to experience the music under discussion this book is designed to engage with academic and non academic readers alike being an ideal research aid for students scholars and performers as well as an interesting read for early sound recording enthusiasts

Kenneth Burke and His Circles Jack Selzer, Robert Wess, 2008-07-24 Kenneth Burke and His Circles consists of original papers focusing on the intellectual circles in which Burke participated during his long career Instead of concentrating on Burke himself as most recent scholarship has done this book considers Burke as one participant in a host of important overlapping intellectual movements that took place over the course of the twentieth century

Shifting Ground Bonnie. COSTELLO, Bonnie Costello, 2009-06-30 Just as the look of the American landscape has changed since the nineteenth century so has our idea of landscape Here Bonnie Costello reads six twentieth century American poets who have reflected and shaped this transformation and in the process renovated landscape by drawing new images from the natural world and creating new forms for imagining the earth and our relation to it

Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Jacob McGuinn,2024-05-15 Pushing the boundaries of critical reading and the role of objects in literature How does literary objecthood contend with the challenge of writing objects that emerge at an extreme limit of material presence Jacob McGuinn delves into the ways literature writes this indeterminate presence in the context of pre and post 68 Paris a vital moment in the history of criticism The works of poet Paul Celan philosopher Theodor Adorno and writer Maurice Blanchot highlight how the complexities of reading such a dematerialized object are part of the indeterminacy of material itself Indeterminate objects glass snow walls screens are subjects Celan describes as existing in meridian space while for Adorno and Blanchot criticism not only responds to this indeterminacy but also takes it as its condition Reading at the Limits of Poetic Form Dematerialization in Adorno Blanchot and Celan shows how these readings simultaneously limit the object of criticism and outline alternative ways of thinking that lie between the models of critical formalism and historicism ultimately revealing the possible materiality of literature in unrealized history incomplete politics and nondetermining thinking

Wordsworth and the Poetry of What We Are Paul H. Fry,2008-10-01 Where others have oriented Wordsworth towards ideas of transcendence nature worship or more recently political repression Paul H Fry argues that underlying all this is a more fundamental insight Wordsworth is most astonished not that the world he experiences has any particular qualities but rather that it simply exists

A Space of Their Own Katie Baker,Naomi Walker,2023-03-31 This collection explores how nineteenth and twentieth century women writers incorporated the idea of place into their writing Whether writing from a specific location or focusing upon a particular geographical or imaginary place women writers working between 1850 and 1950 valued a space of their own in which to work The period on which this collection focuses straddles two main areas of study nineteenth century writing and early twentieth century modernist writing so it enables discussion of how ideas of space progressed alongside changes in styles of writing It looks to the many ways women writers explored concepts of space and place and how they expressed these through their writings for example how they interpreted both urban and rural landscapes and how they presented domestic spaces A Space of Their Own will be of interest to those studying Victorian literature and modernist works as it covers a period of immense change for women s rights in society It is also not limited to just one type or definition of space Therefore it may also be of interest to academics outside of literature for example in gender studies cultural geography place writing and digital humanities

The Sense of Music Raymond Monelle,2010-09-17 The fictional Dr Strabismus sets out to write a new comprehensive theory of music But music s tendency to deconstruct itself combined with the complexities of postmodernism doom him to failure This is the parable that frames The Sense of Music a novel treatment of music theory that reinterprets the modern history of Western music in the terms of semiotics Based on the assumption that music cannot be described without reference to its meaning Raymond Monelle proposes that works of the Western classical tradition be analyzed in terms of temporality subjectivity and topic theory Critical of the abstract analysis of musical scores Monelle argues that the score does not reveal music's sense That sense what a piece of music says and signifies can be understood only with reference to history culture and the other arts Thus music is meaningful in that it signifies cultural temporalities and themes from the traditional manly heroism of the hunt to military power to postmodern polyvocality This theoretical innovation allows Monelle to describe how the Classical style of the eighteenth century which he reads as a balance of lyric and progressive time gave way to the Romantic need for emotional realism He argues that irony and ambiguity subsequently eroded the domination of personal emotion in Western music as well as literature killing the composer's subjectivity with that of the author This leaves Dr Strabismus suffering from the postmodern condition and Raymond Monelle with an exciting controversial new approach to understanding music and its history

Catullus in Twentieth-Century Music Stephanie Oade, 2024-08-24 One of the most famous voices to have survived from the Roman world Catullus's poetry is still amongst the most popular and widely read But what is it that makes this 2000 year old voice so relevant so personal and so endlessly fascinating Reinvigorating discussions around the nature of Catullus's lyricism Catullus in Twentieth Century Music takes a completely new approach to Catullus and ideas of lyric It centres around four musical works from the twentieth century each one capturing the essence of Catullus in musical retellings and showcasing a very personal response to the original text Considering how and why these musical composers used Catullus's poetry as their stimulus allows us to uncover new ideas about Catullus's poetry By considering the very process of reception Stephanie Oade takes a broader view of lyric identifying traits and characteristics that are common to both music and poetry thus transcending the boundaries of individual art forms in order to consider the genre in larger interdisciplinary terms It offers insights into compositional processes and challenges audiences to think about ways of engaging with music and poetry More than anything it shows how ancient voices continue to resound in modernity and offer everlasting expression for our own experiences and emotions

Unmaking The Making of Americans E. L. McCallum, 2018-01-22 Arguing that Gertrude Stein's monumental novel The Making of Americans models a radically aesthetic relation to the world E L McCallum demonstrates how the novel teaches us to read differently unmaking our habits of reading Each of the chapters works through close readings of Stein's text and a philosophical interlocutor to track a series of theoretical questions what forms queer time what are the limits of story how do we feel emotion how can we agree on a shared reality if interpretation and imagination intervene and how do particular media shape how we convey this rich experience The formally innovative agenda and epistemological drive of Stein's novel stages rich thought experiments that bear on questions that are central to some of the most vibrant conversations in literary studies today In the midst of ongoing debates about the practices of reading the difficulty of reading and even the impossibility of reading the moment has come to have a fuller critical engagement with this landmark novel This book shows how Penelope's Web Susan Stanford Friedman, 1990 Penelope's Web published in 1991 was the first book to examine fully the brilliantly innovative prose writing of Hilda Doolittle H D's reputation as a major modernist poet has grown dramatically but she also deserves to be known for her innovative novels and essays
