Dance on Camera Journal, 2006

Appalachian Spring Aaron Copland, 2019-12-31 Appalachian Spring is perhaps the most popular work by Aaron Copland 1900 1990 Composed as a ballet for the renowned choreographer Martha Graham 1894 1991 it was the result of a close collaboration between Copland and Graham and the music quickly took on a life of its own However the best known versions of the score those most frequently recorded and heard in concert differ in form and musical content from the original ballet which was scored for a chamber ensemble of thirteen instruments and premiered by the Martha Graham Dance Company at the Library of Congress on 30 October 1944 This edition presents the first completed engraving of the original version of Appalachian Spring providing musicians and scholars access to the score as it has been performed for more than 75 years by the Graham Company On each page of the score the editors have included stills from the 1958 film of the ballet with Graham dancing the lead role in order to highlight the connection between music and dance An introductory essay explores the creation of the work the musical structure the origins of and differences among multiple versions of the score and the continued significance and influence of Copland's music The critical commentary draws on manuscript and published sources as well as Graham Company performance practice to illuminate editorial decisions The edition also includes appendices that present a comparison of historical tempi markings from the Graham tradition for augmenting the orchestration and a selected discography of different versions of the score New York Modern William B. Scott, Peter M. Rutkoff, 1999 Handsomely illustrated and engagingly written New York Modern documents the impressive collective legacy of New York's artists in capturing the energy and emotions of the urban experience Remembering Lincoln Nancy Reynolds, 2007 Remembrances of Lincoln Kirstein by various acquaintances Louis Horst Janet Mansfield Soares, 1992 At the center of this story is Horst's relationship with Martha Graham who was his intimate for decades I did everything for Martha Horst said late in life Indeed as her lover ally and lifelong confidante he worked with such conviction to make her the undisputed dance leader in the concert world that Graham herself would later remark Without him I could not have achieved anything I have done Drawing on the conversation and writings of Horst and his colleagues Janet Mansfield Soares reveals the inner workings of this passionate commitment and places it firmly in the context of dance history Onstage with Martha Graham Stuart Hodes, 2020-12-14 From bomber pilot to lifelong dancer When World War II was over a young bomber pilot with an itch for movement and action hung up his cap and learned another way to fly Onstage with Martha Graham is the story of Stuart Hodes a versatile and influential dancer who got his start with Martha Graham an icon of modern dance His memoir is a rare firsthand view of the dance world in the 1940s and through the end of the twentieth century One of the few male dancers in Graham's company and in the New York dance scene at the time Hodes offers a unique perspective and a one of a kind narrative He describes how he fell into the art by chance happening to walk into Graham's studio one day He was soon hooked He documents his experiences travels passions and loves while learning from and performing with Graham during which time he saw most of the United States much of Europe and some of Asia Advancing quickly he eventually danced as Graham's partner in Appalachian Spring Deaths and Entrances Every Soul Is a Circus and Errand into the Maze In his portrait of Martha Graham who was the center of his dancing world Hodes recounts conversations revelations bouts of temper and creativity the daily ritual of deeply physical dancing and the never ending search for artistic validity Direct often humorous and always authentic Hodes shares his delight in dance as both hard work and a fantastic adventure Choice, 2005
