My Green Manifesto David Gessner, 2011-07-12 All environmentalism is local A wonderfully readable book about saving the planet by focusing first on our own habitats The Boston Globe Though environmental awareness is on the rise our march toward ecological collapse continues What was once a movement based primarily on land preservation endangered species and policy reform is now a fractured mess of back to the landers capitalist green lifestyle vendors technology worshipers and countless special interest groups Inspired by a rough and tumble journey across country and down river

David Gessner a John Burroughs Award winner makes the case for a new environmentalism In a frank funny and incisive call to arms that spans from the Cape Wind Project to the Monkey Wrench Gang he considers why we do or do not fight to protect and restore wilderness and reminds us why it s time to join the fray Known as an environmental advocate reminiscent of Edward Abbey Library Journal Gessner rebels against this fragmented environmentalism and holier than thou posturing He also suggests that global problems though real are disempowering While introducing us to lovable stubborn Dan Driscoll a regular guy fighting a local fight for a limited wilderness he argues for a movement focused on local issues and grounded in a more basic more holistic and ultimately more effective defense of home Funny and inspiring Publishers Weekly starred review
