The Spirituality of Mazes and Labyrinths Gailand MacQueen, 2005 In this full colour beautifully illustrated book Gailand MacQueen uses myth history and personal experience to explore the spiritual meanings of mazes and labyrinths Convinced that labyrinths and mazes have much to teach us Gailand MacQueen invites readers on a sometimes mystical sometimes mysterious journey of spiritual discovery Mazes and Labyrinths William Henry Matthews, 1970-01-01 With devoted scholarship and an appreciation for what he terms the lure of the labyrinth Matthews explores accounts of ancient mazes the meanders of Greek and Roman times theories on the meaning of church labyrinths the hedge maze and more All important or exceptional examples are illustrated with 151 line drawings The Idea of the Labyrinth from Classical Antiquity through the Middle Ages Penelope Reed Doob, 2019-03-15 Ancient and medieval labyrinths embody paradox according to Penelope Reed Doob Their structure allows a double perspective the baffling fragmented prospect confronting the maze treader within and the comprehensive vision available to those without Mazes simultaneously assert order and chaos artistry and confusion articulated clarity and bewildering complexity perfected pattern and hesitant process In this handsomely illustrated book Doob reconstructs from a variety of literary and visual sources the idea of the labyrinth from the classical period through the Middle Ages Doob first examines several complementary traditions of the maze topos showing how ancient historical and geographical writings generate metaphors in which the labyrinth signifies admirable complexity while poetic texts tend to suggest that the labyrinth is a sign of moral duplicity She then describes two common models of the labyrinth and explores their formal implications the unicursal model with no false turnings found almost universally in the visual arts and the multicursal model with blind alleys and dead ends characteristic of literary texts This paradigmatic clash between the labyrinths of art and of literature becomes a key to the metaphorical potential of the maze as Doob's examination of a vast array of materials from the classical period through the Middle Ages suggests She concludes with linked readings of four labyrinths of words Virgil's Aeneid Boethius' Consolation of Philosophy Dante's Divine Comedy and Chaucer's House of Fame each of which plays with and transforms received ideas of the labyrinth as well as reflecting and responding to aspects of the texts that influenced it Doob not only provides fresh theoretical and historical perspectives on the labyrinth tradition but also portrays a complex medieval aesthetic that helps us to approach structurally elaborate early works Readers in such fields as Classical literature Medieval Studies Renaissance Studies comparative literature literary theory art history and intellectual history will welcome this wide ranging and illuminating book The Witness and the Other World Mary Baine Campbell, 2018-08-06 Surveying exotic travel writing in Europe from late antiquity to the age of discovery The Witness and the

Other World illustrates the fundamental human desire to change places if only in the imagination Mary B Campbell looks at works by pilgrims crusaders merchants discoverers even armchair fantasists such as Mandeville as well as the writings of Marco Polo Columbus and Walter Raleigh According to Campbell these travel accounts are exotic because they bear witness to alienated experiences European travelers while claiming to relate fact were often passing on monstrous projections She contends that their writing not only documented but also made possible the conquest of the peoples whom she travelers described and she shows how travel literature contributed to the genesis of the modern novel and the modern life sciences
