Missa Paschalis:

The Polyphonic Mass in Early Lutheran Central Europe DR. ALANNA. ROPCHOCK TIERNO, 2024-09-24 Investigates the reception and performance history of the polyphonic mass in Lutheran Central Europe from ca 1540 1600 The five movement polyphonic Mass Ordinary emerged from the cultural and liturgical practices of medieval Roman Catholicism and became the pre eminent large scale musical genre of early modern Europe By the end of the sixteenth century the polyphonic mass remained a core musical genre among Catholics despite gaining widespread popularity within a new institution fundamentally opposed to the Catholic Church and best known for its cultivation of vernacular liturgical music the Lutheran church This book investigates the reception and performance history of the polyphonic mass in Lutheran Central Europe from ca 1540 1600 Through careful source analysis this study presents examples of polyphonic masses composed in both Lutheran and Catholic contexts that contradict the conventional conception of the Mass Ordinary as a fixed five movement cycle with unaltered Latin texts The book draws on sixteenth century liturgical documents such as Lutheran church orders and hundreds of primary printed and manuscript sources of polyphonic masses some of these items are well known in Renaissance musicology source studies while others have received little to no scholarly attention The book s findings invite reconsideration of how the Mass Ordinary genre is defined allow for a discussion whether the polyphonic mass should be considered a bi confessional genre and present a cohesive examination of early modern liturgical music in the Germanic and western Slavic regions It offers interesting reading to scholars and students of European Renaissance and religious music as well as Reformation studies more generally

Passages from the Roman, Ambrosian, and Mozarabic Rites. By J. M. Neale ... and G. H. Forbes ,1855 Jan Dismas Zelenka Janice B. Stockigt,2000 Only in the latter half of the twentieth century did the star of Jan Dismas Zelenka begin to ascend Why did this major Bohemian composer of the Baroque era who was known to and esteemed by Johann Sebastian Bach remain in the shadows for so long Although most of Zelenka s music was composed to serve the Catholic liturgy he left a handful of secular compositions including six remarkable chamber sonatas When these were first published in the 1960s the resurrection of the almost forgotten Zelenka was heralded Drawing upon surviving musical materials contemporary accounts and Jesuit documentation this volume presents insights into Zelenka s life and his music and the brilliant context in which he worked the Dresden court during the reigns of the Kings of Poland and Electors of Saxony Friedrich August I and II A catalogue of Zelenka s compositions is also included Catalog of Copyright Entries Library of Congress. DeVenney, 1990 Giving brief essential information on some 700 works this guide illustrates the scope of Mass and Requiem compositions of the United States from the early nineteenth century to the present day The Rise of European Music, 1380-1500 Reinhard Strohm, 2005-02-17 This is a detailed and comprehensive survey of music in the late middle ages and early Renaissance By limiting its scope to the 120 years which witnessed perhaps the most dramatic expansion of our musical heritage the book responds in the 1990s to the tremendous increase in specialised research and public awareness of that period Three of the four main Parts I II IV describe the development of polyphony and its cultural contexts in many European countries from the successors of Machaut d 1377 to the achievements of Josquin des Prez and his contemporaries working in Renaissance Italy around 1500 Part III by contrast illustrates the musical life of the institutions and musical practices outside the realm of composed polyphony that were traditional and common all over Europe The book proposes fresh views in each chapter discussing dozens of musical examples adducing well known and hitherto unknown documents and referring to and evaluating the most recent scholarship in the field
