Making Sense of Whole Language John W. Myers,1993 Based on the premise that whole language is a philosophy or perspective rather than a set of practices this fastback develops a definition of whole language presents an information processing model of language processes and discusses theory practice relationship and assessment as they relate to whole language Sections of the fastback are Making Sense of Whole Language A Holistic View of Language What Research Says Theory into Practice Whole Language Arts and Whole Language and Assessment The pamphlet concludes that 1 theory determines practice 2 integrated language activities are more powerful than separated ones 3 whole language arts cut across the curriculum and 4 instructional goals should drive the assessment of language arts skills Six figures are included and a 47 item bibliography is attached RS

Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention Bonnie S. Fisher, Steven P. Lab, 2010-02-02 For a free 30 day online trial to this title visit www.sagepub.com/freetrial In many ways the two fields of victimology and crime prevention have developed along parallel yet separate paths and the literature on both has been scattered across disciplines as varied as sociology law and criminology public health and medicine political science and public policy economics psychology and human services and others The Encyclopedia of Victimology and Crime Prevention brings together in one authoritative resource the dispersed information and knowledge on both victimology and crime prevention With nearly 375 entries this two volume set moves victimology and crime prevention one step further into recognized scholarly fields whose research informs practice and whose practice informs research Key Features Provides users with the most authoritative and comprehensive coverage available on victimology and crime prevention Presents victimology and crime prevention as their own separate justifiable disciplines rather than subfields within more established disciplines Discusses the status of victims within the criminal justice system as well as topics of deterring and preventing victimization in the first place and responding to victims needs Offers anchor essays written by leading scholars in their respective fields to provide starting points for investigating the more salient victimology and crime prevention topics Key Themes Business Prevention Actions Civil Justice System Correlates of Victimization Courts Alternative Remedies Courts Law and Justice Crime Prevention Crime Prevention Partnerships Criminal Justice System Fear of Crime Individual Protection Actions Interventions and Intervention Programs for Victim and Offender Intrafamilial Offenses Legislation and Statutes Media and Crime Prevention Methodology Offenses Special Topics Official Crime Data Personal Offenses Property Offenses Psychological Mental and Physical Health Issues Residential Community Crime Prevention School and Workplace Offenses School Based Crime Prevention Services and Treatment for Victims Theory Victimization Scales and Surveys Victimology Youth Focused Crime Prevention The victimology crime prevention nexus provides the foundation for a comprehensive and hopefully long lasting approach to addressing the public s risk of being victimized and aids individuals who are targeted by a criminal act This is a welcome addition to any academic library The availability in print and electronic formats provides students with convenient easy access wherever they may be Win-win Discipline Jack Blendinger,1993 Focuses on key steps for quickly establishing good classroom discipline State Academies for the Academically Gifted James E. Green,1993 This guide to residential state academies for academically gifted high school students discusses the history of this movement student characteristics curricula faculty outreach programs and evaluation The establishment of the nine existing state institutions is traced from the prototype the North Carolina School for Science and Mathematics to the most recent established in Alabama in 1991 Reasons for such schools are given ranging from the specialized curricula needed by such students to their need for peer support The question of elitism is addressed suggesting that such schools actually are egalitarian in that they provide an opportunity for all students from both poor and wealthy regions of the state to go as far as they can The various selection processes are described and compared noting that the use of holistic methods rather than standardized tests results in enrollments more consistent with the demographic profiles of the state s population Curricula are discussed with special focus on the Indiana Academy Curriculum Criteria for selecting faculty are then briefly considered as are state academy outreach programs The lack of comprehensive and systematic evaluation of these new institutions is noted Contains 21 references DB Teaching for Multiple Intelligences David G. Lazear,1992 Over the past 50 years brain researchers have stated that human beings probably use less than 1 percent of the brain s potential and research findings about human intelligence have transformed almost all previous definitions of intelligence This booklet addresses the following key findings in intelligence research intelligence is not fixed or static intelligence can be learned and taught and intelligence is a multidimensional phenomenon that occurs at multiple levels of the brain mind body system After this discussion of the research the publication is divided into five parts 1 Overview of the Seven Intelligences verbal linguistic logical mathematical visual spatial body kinesthetic musical rhythmic interpersonal intelligence and intrapersonal intelligence

2 Teaching for Multiple Intelligences A New Look at the Curriculum includes an exercise on how one can teach for multiple intelligences in one s curriculum

3 New Instructional Methods for Teaching with Multiple Intelligences 4 Teaching about Multiple Intelligences Re inventing the Learning Process and 5 A Multi Modal Approach to Assessment includes techniques for student evaluation and teacher self assessment Contains 27 references LL
