Copyright Office, 1971 Book Review Digest Leslie Dunmore-Leiber, 1976 The Publishers Weekly, 1968 Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces Gregory M. Hasty, 2023-08-23 Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces is the first book written about the area's history in over three decades. It not only captures the beginnings of the early settlement, it takes the reader beyond a century and a half of growth and tracks how the community has evolved. The book is unique in that it captures the history of West Dallas in conjunction with its Oak Cliff neighbor and how the two transformed together over time into what we see today. The collection of historical accounts and hundreds of photos identify individuals and places of prominence finally memorialized in one anthology. The narrative also takes readers through facts and stories that have been ignored or concealed, revealing an authentic depiction of how the community was at times abused and neglected. Readers will enjoy this introspective examination of the area south and west of the Trinity and will once and for all put together the missing pieces of the storied land that has long been misunderstood. All proceeds from the sale of Oak Cliff and the Missing Pieces will go to benefit non-profit organizations in Oak Cliff and West Dallas. The Cumulative Book Index, 1967 A world list of books in the English language The Publishers' Trade List Annual, 1974 *Catalog of Copyright Entries. Jordan-Zachery, Shamara Wyllie Alhassan, 2023-04-18 Rooted in the ways Black women understand their lives, this collection archives practices of healing, mothering, and advocacy during the COVID 19 pandemic. Recognizing that Black women have been living in pandemics as far back as colonialism and enslavement, this volume acknowledges that records of the past, from the 1918 flu pandemic to the onset of the HIV/AIDS epidemic, often erase the existence and experiences of Black women as a whole. Writing against this archival erasure, this collection consciously recenters the real-time experiences and perspectives of care, policy concerns, grief, and joy of Black women throughout the COVID 19 pandemic. Nineteen contributors from interdisciplinary fields and diverse backgrounds explore Black feminine community consciousness, ethics of care, spirituality, and social critique. They situate Black women's multidimensional experiences with COVID 19 and other violences that affect their lives. The stories they tell are connected and interwoven, bound together by anti-Black gendered COVID necropolitics and commitments to creating new spaces for breathing, healing, and wellness. Ultimately, this time-warping analysis shows how Black women imagine a more just society, rapidly adapt to changing experiences, and innovate ethics of care even in the midst of physical distancing, which can be instructive for thinking of new ways of living both during and beyond the era of COVID 19.
