Police Search and Rescue Response to Lost and Missing Persons Lorna Ferguson, Laura Huey, 2023-10-06 This brief discusses the significant contribution of police search and rescue to the successful location and resolution of missing persons cases. Across seven chapters, this volume offers a detailed examination of the routine practices of police search and rescue personnel. To do so, it draws from a collection of data including in-depth interviews with police and thousands of different types of missing persons records. Laced with the stories of missing persons, it presents a detailed overview of what these teams do, the processes and procedures employed, and the tools and technologies in police search and rescue. It explores some of the challenges impacting police search and rescue response, emphasizing how to leverage this work in the field. This book also identifies future trends to address the "What may be next?" question in the police search and rescue response to missing persons. As the first analysis of the role of police in search and rescue missions, this brief is of interest to law enforcement professionals and researchers of policing, policymakers, and professionals in psychology, criminology, sociology, and beyond.

Crime Fiction and Missing Persons Appeals to the Public Abigail Boucher, Tim Grant, Daniel Jenkin-Smith, Emily Powell, 2025-02-07 This book draws upon genre fiction studies, forensic linguistics, and media studies to investigate the overlap between crime fiction conventions and the writing of missing persons appeals to the public. This book is based on a pilot project funded by the Aston Institute for Forensic Linguistics, entitled "Genre Pacing and Narrative in Police Missing Persons Appeals" (Aug 2021–Nov 2022). The authors identify a missing persons appeal as a literary and linguistic genre in its own right and illustrate the problems that arise when the appeals writing process goes unregulated or unstudied; there is currently little to no official national police guidance, regulation, or standard procedure for writing a missing persons appeal in the UK. The authors also identify opportunities for improving the writing and delivery of appeals by further and more intentionally applying crime fiction conventions, narrative devices, and pacing to maximise audience reach and increase the chances of recovering a missing person. This book will be of particular interest to genre fiction scholars, particularly those interested in crime fiction, forensic linguists, and media studies scholars.
