Nine women whose lives have contributed to West Virginia history are profiled in these collected essays. These women have made significant contributions to history as midwife, physician, journalist, photographer, educator, musician, civic activist, and social reformer. The stereotypical image of a powerless, barefooted, uneducated girl is proven to be distorted and false. The profiles instead provide alternative ways to view women who were in harmony with as well as in opposition to the role expectations of their society and times. These essays are not intended to commemorate the death of renowned historical subjects. Instead, they celebrate the lives and contributions of ordinary women by showing that greatness is not easily defined and that history is also the experiences of people in our own neighborhoods, many of whom are women. The nine women are Susan Dew Hoff, Clara Cogar Bender, Frances Benjamin Johnston, Fannie Holroyd, and Catherine Bliss Enslow. Photographs of all nine women are included. APG

Women in American Politics: History and Milestones Doris Weatherford, 2012-01-20

Women in American Politics is a new reference detailing the milestones and trends in women's political participation in the United States. This two-volume work provides much needed perspective and background on the events and situations that have surrounded women's political activities. It offers insightful analysis on women's political achievements in the United States, including such topics as the campaign to secure nation-wide suffrage, pioneer women state officeholders, women first elected to U.S. Congress, governorships, mayoralties, and other offices, and women first appointed as Cabinet officials, judges, and ambassadors. It also includes profiles of the women who have run for vice president and president. Women in American Politics is organized in a framework both logical and useful to readers and researchers. Original material offers students, scholars, teachers, and other professionals a guide to understanding the complex struggle in women's progress toward achieving political parity with men in the United States. Each chapter is structured in three parts: part one features graphic information, tables, lists, charts, or maps detailing the historical record with data not compiled anywhere else on women officeholders; part two offers insightful narrative analysis describing how women achieved what they did, examines the complex and sometimes contradictory trends behind the facts of women's political milestones, and explores how social and economic contexts affected the progress of their accomplishments; part three presents biographical entries describing in more personal terms women's struggle for political equality. Sidebars in each chapter illuminate the drama of political life and consider the evolving female electorate, exploring how women voters have impacted particular issues, specific elections, or other key turning points, and the tradition of appointing widows to open seats. The final chapter uniquely looks at women's political history and differences in achievement from a state and regional perspective. Entries on each state as well as on District of Columbia and Puerto Rico highlight milestones and provide insight into the unique aspects of each state

The Hidden Half of the Family Christina K. Schaefer, 1999 Offers information on finding female ancestors in each state highlighting those laws both federal and state that indicate when a woman could own real estate in her own name devise a will and enter into contracts In addition entries contain information on marriage and divorce law immigration citizenship passports suffrage and slave manumission Material is included on African American Native American and Asian American women as well as patterns of European immigration Period covered is from the 1600s to the outbreak of WWII Annotation copyrighted by Book News Inc Portland OR

Missing Chapters Two Frances S. Hensley, 1986 This collection of essays chronicles the contributions of 14 West Virginia women active in individual and group endeavors from 1824 to the present Because the achievements of these women are absent from previous histories of West Virginia their stories constitute missing chapters in the state s history Some of these women made contributions in traditional feminine roles while others achieved success in professional and public fields The lives and careers of these West Virginia women prove that they have not been merely passive observers of history but active participants in the process Although not all the women are West Virginia natives they have all had a share in the state s development They merit recognition in West Virginia history not just to correct an imbalance in historical writing but to provide positive examples to other women The women chronicled are Livia Simpson Poffenbarger Aunt Jenny Wilson Val Sayre Hammond Mary Elizabeth Behner Christopher Elizabeth Kee Naomi M Garrett Ann Kathryn Flagg Rebecca Tendaal Wood Littlepage Agnes Greer Anna Maria Reeves Jarvis Minnie Holley Barnes Gertrude Humphreys Genevieve Starcher and Ruth Ann Musick One organization the West Virginia Farm Women s Club is also included A bibliography follows each biography and black and white photographs are included APG
