Missing Persons Other Essays:

Detecting Texts Patricia Merivale, Susan Elizabeth Sweeney, 2011-06-07 Although readers of detective fiction ordinarily expect to learn the mystery's solution at the end there is another kind of detective story the history of which encompasses writers as diverse as Poe Borges Robbe Grillet Auster and Stephen King that ends with a question rather than an answer The detective not only fails to solve the crime but also confronts insoluble mysteries of interpretation and identity As the contributors to Detecting Texts contend such stories belong to a distinct genre the metaphysical detective story in which the detective hero's inability to interpret the mystery inevitably casts doubt on the reader's similar attempt to make sense of the text and the world Detecting Texts includes an introduction by the editors that defines the metaphysical detective story and traces its history from Poe's classic tales to today's postmodernist experiments In addition to the editors contributors include Stephen Bernstein Joel Black John T Irwin Jeffrey T Nealon and others

You Don't Know Us Negroes and Other Essays Zora Neale Hurston, Henry Louis Gates, Jr., Genevieve West, 2022-01-18 A MOST ANTICIPATED BOOK FROM Oprah Daily Business Insider Marie Claire The Seattle Times Lit Hub Bustle and New York Magazine's Vulture Introduction by New York Times bestselling author Henry Louis Gates Jr Spanning more than 35 years of work the first comprehensive collection of essays criticism and articles by the legendary author of the Harlem Renaissance Zora Neale Hurston showcasing the evolution of her distinctive style as an archivist and author One of the greatest writers of our time Toni Morrison You Don't Know Us Negroes is the quintessential gathering of provocative essays from one of the world's most celebrated writers Zora Neale Hurston Spanning more than three decades and penned during the backdrop of the birth of the Harlem Renaissance Montgomery bus boycott desegregation of the military and school integration Hurston's writing articulates the beauty and authenticity of Black life as only she could Collectively these essays showcase the roles enslavement and Jim Crow have played in intensifying Black people's inner lives and culture rather than destroying it She argues that in the process of surviving Black people reinterpreted every aspect of American culture modifying the language mode of food preparation practice of medicine and most certainly religion White supremacy prevents the world from seeing or completely recognizing Black people in their full humanity and Hurston made it her job to lift the veil and reveal the heart and soul of the race These pages reflect Hurston as the controversial figure she was someone who stated that feminism is a mirage and that the integration of schools did not necessarily improve the education of Black students Also covered is the sensational trial of Ruby McCollum a wealthy Black woman convicted in 1952 for killing her lover a white doctor Demonstrating the breadth of this revered and influential writer's work You Don't Know Us Negroes and Other Essays is an invaluable chronicle of a writer's development and a window into her world and mind

MISSING PERSONS AND OTHER ESSAYS LEILA

VENNEWITZ TR. Heinrich Böll, 1977 The Referendum and Other Essays on Constitutional Politics Matt

Qvortrup, 2019-05-02 Until recently referendums were little used After the Scottish independence and Brexit referendums they have come to the fore as a mechanism with the potential to disrupt the status quo and radically change political direction This book looks at the historical development of the referendum its use in different jurisdictions and the types of constitutional questions it seeks to address Written in an engaging style the book offers a clear objective overview of this important political and constitutional tool

Revolutionary Biographies in the 19th and 20th Centuries Sandra Dahlke,Nikolaus Katzer,Denis Sdvizhkov,2023-12-04 The volume contains selected contributions to the Max Weber Foundation s annual conference organised by the German Historical Institute Moscow The contributors look at the crisis ridden processes of modernity through the prism of individual biographies which manifest themselves in national and social anti imperial and de colonial global and regional movements The contributions cover the Russian Habsburg and Ottoman Empires Germany Italy the USA France the Soviet Union Iran Poland Turkey and Africa They focus on transnational and trans imperial life paths networks and the imprints of the actors as well as forms of auto biographical self constitution and the political use of biographical narratives

Rubble Music Abby Anderton,2019-07-23 This musicologist s exploration of classical music culture in post WWII Berlin evokes the power of music in the face of trauma and tragedy As the seat of Hitler s government Berlin was the most frequently targeted German city for Allied bombing during World War II Air raids shelled celebrated monuments and reduced much of the city to rubble After the war s end this apocalyptic landscape captured the imagination of artists filmmakers and writers who used the ruins to engage with themes of alienation disillusionment and moral ambiguity In Rubble Music Abby Anderton explores the classical music culture of postwar Berlin analyzing archival documents period sources and musical scores to identify the sound of civilian suffering after urban catastrophe Anderton reveals how rubble functioned as a literal figurative psychological and sonic element by examining the resonances of trauma heard in the German musical repertoire after 1945 With detailed explorations of reconstituted orchestral ensembles opera companies and radio stations as well as analyses of performances and compositions that were beyond the reach of the Allied occupiers Anderton demonstrates how German musicians worked through cleared away or built over the debris and devastation of the war

Second Chance Ruth Rosengarten,2022-08-23 In this intimate memoir Ruth Rosengarten explores the subject of evocative objects through a series of interconnected essays Evocative objects reflect our attitudes to our own lives and how we seek to display ourselves to ourselves They are therefore closely linked to our memories and how we filter process and reconstruct them Rosengarten explores the themes and associations invoked by her own evocative objects which are frequently shabby things of no material value They are importantly often objects that in their materiality bear traces of actions of something having been Through the associative pathways that these objects have paved she discusses her experiences with the losses she has undergone her family s migrations and what it means to be a childless woman This leads her to address the question of what will become of her storied objects and the memories attached to them when she is no longer in existence This memoir offers an interdisciplinary approach to collecting and compiling fragments of one s life

paying close attention to the evocative objects that embody us In doing so these essays explore loss memory childlessness longing family history literature and art theory through material entities which reveal the immaterial things at the heart of this study This book is sure to be of interest to anyone stimulated by memory work and the relationship between humans and their possessions

Classical Commentaries Christina Shuttleworth Kraus, Christopher Stray, 2016 This rich collection of essays by an international group of authors explores a wide range of commentaries on ancient Latin and Greek texts It pays particular attention to individual commentaries national traditions of commentary the part played by commentaries in the reception of classical texts and the role of printing and publishing

Tamizdat Yasha Yakov Klots, 2023-05-15 Tamizdat offers a new perspective on the history of the Cold War by exploring the story of the contraband manuscripts sent from the USSR to the West A word that means publishing over there tamizdat manuscripts were rejected censored or never submitted for publication in the Soviet Union and were smuggled through various channels and printed outside the country with or without their authors knowledge Yasha Klots demonstrates how tamizdat contributed to the formation of the twentieth century Russian literary canon the majority of contemporary Russian classics first appeared abroad long before they saw publication in Russia Examining narratives of Stalinism and the Gulag Klots focuses on contraband manuscripts in the 1960s and 70s from Khrushchev's Thaw to Stagnation under Brezhnev Klots revisits the traditional notion of late Soviet culture as a binary opposition between the underground and official state publishing He shows that even as tamizdat represented an alternative field of cultural production in opposition to the Soviet regime and the dogma of Socialist Realism it was not devoid of its own hierarchy ideological agenda and even censorship Tamizdat is a cultural history of Russian literature outside the Iron Curtain The Russian literary diaspora was the indispensable ecosystem for these works Yet in the post Stalin years they also served as a powerful weapon on the cultural fronts of the Cold War laying bare the geographical stylistic and ideological rifts between two disparate yet inextricably intertwined fields of Russian literature one at home the other abroad Open Access edition funded by the National Endowment for the Humanities

Race and the Education of Desire Ann Laura Stoler, 1995 Michel Foucault's History of Sexuality has been one of the most influential books of the last two decades It has had an enormous impact on cultural studies and work across many disciplines on gender sexuality and the body Bringing a new set of questions to this key work Ann Laura Stoler examines volume one of History of Sexuality in an unexplored light She asks why there has been such a muted engagement with this work among students of colonialism for whom issues of sexuality and power are so essential Why is the colonial context absent from Foucault s history of a European sexual discourse that for him defined the bourgeois self In Race and the Education of Desire Stoler challenges Foucault s tunnel vision of the West and his marginalization of empire She also argues that this first volume of History of Sexuality contains a suggestive if not studied treatment of race Drawing on Foucault s little known 1976 College de France lectures Stoler addresses his treatment of the relationship between biopower bourgeois sexuality and what he identified as racisms of the state In this critical and historically grounded analysis based on cultural theory and her own extensive research in Dutch and French colonial archives Stoler suggests how Foucault s insights have in the past constrained and in the future may help shape the ways we trace the genealogies of race Race and the Education of Desire will revise current notions of the connections between European and colonial historiography and between the European bourgeois order and the colonial treatment of sexuality Arguing that a history of European nineteenth century sexuality must also be a history of race it will change the way we think about Foucault Nobel Writers on Writing Ottar G.

Draugsvold,2000 When in 1901 Alfred Nobel bequeathed to the world the funds to support the Nobel Prize one of his few directives for the category of literature was that the artists selected be of idealistic tendency Since its inception the prize has given a very public voice to some of the world s greatest writers and their responses to the honor their acceptance speeches have themselves often been epochal within each author s body of literature From the famed call to arms by William Faulkner to the multicultural song of Derek Walcott from 1903 s Bj rnstjerne Bj rnson to 1999 s G nter Grass this collection traces the ideals of the artists and the selection committee itself throughout the entirety of the 20th century Interestingly writes Draugsvold none of the writers discuss the more technical aspects of their craft Equally striking is the strength of the common thread of idealism found in these addresses a firm belief in humankind and the power of art in its role in the service of truth and the service of liberty as Albert Camus said in 1957 I decline to accept the end of man wrote the Old Man William Faulkner The speeches presented here were chosen not by subjective but rather by substantive criteria with biographical presentations and brief statements of gratitude omitted Included are an introduction to each of the 28 writers chosen an excerpted copy of the speech or lecture and a bibliography of works in English The work concludes with a complete list of prize winners in literature and a bibliography of sources cited in the writer s introductions New Makers of Modern Culture Wintle Justin,2013-05-13 New Makers of Modern Culture is the successor to the classic reference works Makers of Modern Culture and Makers of Nineteenth Century Culture published by Routledge in the early 1980s The set was extremely successful and continues to be used to this day due to the high quality of the writing the distinguished contributors and the cultural sensitivity shown in the selection of those individuals included New Makers of Modern Culture takes into full account the rise and fall of reputation and influence over the last twenty five years and the epochal changes that have occurred the demise of Marxism and the collapse of the Soviet Union the rise and fall of postmodernism the eruption of Islamic fundamentalism the triumph of the Internet Containing over eight hundred essay style entries and covering the period from 1850 to the present New Makers includes artists writers dramatists architects philosophers anthropologists scientists sociologists major political figures composers film makers and many other culturally significant individuals and is thoroughly international in its purview Next to Karl Marx is Bob Marley next to John Ruskin is Salmon Rushdie alongside Darwin is Luigi Dallapiccola Deng Xiaoping runs shoulders with Jacques Derrida Julia Kristeva with Kropotkin Once again Wintle has enlisted the services of many distinguished writers and leading academics such as Sam Beer Bernard Crick Edward Seidensticker and Paul Preston In a few cases for example Michael Holroyd and Philip Larkin contributors are themselves the subject of entries With its global reach New Makers of Modern Culture provides a multi voiced witness of the contemporary thinking world The entries carry short bibliographies and there is thorough cross referencing There is an index of names and key terms

Engendering Slavic Literatures Pamela Chester, Sibelan Elizabeth S. Forrester, 1996 Engendering Slavic Literatures breaks new ground in its investigation of gender and feminist issues in Croatian Polish Russian Serbian and Ukrainian literary texts by both female and male writers Drawing on psychoanalytic approaches film theory and lesbian and gender theory the authors interrogate the received notions of Western gender studies to see which can be usefully applied to nineteenth and twentieth century Slavic literary works Motherhood and the relationships of mothers and daughters the myths of selfhood that shape the autobiographies of Nadezhda Mandelstam Marina Tsvetaeva Lidiia Ginzburg and Lev Tolstoy Polish Catholicism and sexuality portrayals of landscape in verbal and visual art and women writers transgressive ventures into male bastions such as the love lyric and prose fiction are among the themes of this important and innovative volume

Richard Cantillon's Essay on the Nature of Trade in General Richard Cantillon, 2015-05-15 The Essay on the Nature of Trade in General was written in the early 1730s by Richard Cantillon a speculator and banker who had made a vast fortune during the Mississippi and South Sea Bubbles of 1719-20 The work remained unpublished for about two decades but when it appeared posthumously in Paris in 1755 the book was immediately recognised as a brilliant genre defining contribution to the then emerging intellectual discipline of political economy A degree of mystery has always surrounded the publication of the Essay Cantillon died under mysterious circumstances in 1734 but the work survived in various manuscript forms This edition offers an innovative mode of presentation displaying for the very first time all print and manuscript versions of the Essay in parallel This allows the reader to appreciate different formulations of Cantillon's seminal contributions to a range of topics including his circular flow analysis monetary theory theories of value and distribution the role of the entrepreneur spatial economics and international trade Richly annotated and accompanied by a detailed study of the historical background of Cantillon's writings this new scholarly edition offers many new insights into this early masterpiece of economic theory Injustice and Restitution Stephen David Ross,1993-09-28 This book addresses the nature and injustice of authority retracing the ideas of reason and law from ancient Greece to the present pursuing a line of thought begun with Anaximander who speaks of the ordinance of time as restitution for immemorial injustice and Heraclitus who speaks of justice as strife Predominantly philosophical exploring the authority of Western philosophy in twentieth century continental and pragmatist writings the book explores alternative voices as challenges to authority in feminist and multicultural writings in Greek mythology and African narratives in Greek drama and twentieth century literature

European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism Martin Travers,2006-06-15 European Literature from Romanticism to Postmodernism is an anthology of key theoretical writings by the major representatives of the schools and movements of recent European literature Each chapter is devoted to one particular school of movement from within the broad body of literature from romanticism realism and modernism though to the literature of political engagement of the 1920s and 1930s and the more recent initiative of postmodernism These texts are approached both on their own terms as individual formulations of the goals and procedures literary aesthetic and political that characterized the work of these writers and as key documents of the literary school or movement to which these writers belonged Categories and Contexts Simon Szreter,Hania Sholkamy,A. Dharmalingam,2004-03-18 Throughout its history as a social science demography has been associated with an exclusively quantitative orientation for studying social problems As a result demographers tend to analyse population issues scientifically through sets of fixed social categories that are divorced from dynamic relationships and local contexts and processes This volume questions these fixed categories in two ways First it examines the historical and political circumstances in which suchcategories had their provenance and second it reassesses their uncritical applications over space and time in a diverse range of empirical case studies encouraging throughout a constructive interdisciplinary dialogue involving anthropologists demographers historians and sociologists This volume seeks to examine the political complexities that lie at the heart of population studies by focusing on category formation category use and category critique It shows that this takes the form of a dialectic between the needs for clarity of scientific and administrative analysis and the recalcitrant diversity of the social contexts and human processes that generate population change The critical reflections of each chapter are enriched by meticulous ethnographic fieldwork andhistorical research drawn from every continent This volume therefore exemplifies a new methodology for research in population studies one that does not simply accept and re use the established categories of population science but seeks critically and reflexively to explore test and re evaluate their meanings in diverse contexts It shows that for demography to realise its full potential it must urgently re examine and contextualize the social categories used today in population research New Essays on Leibniz Reception Ralph Krömer,Yannick Chin-Drian,2012-03-13 This book is a collection of essays on the reception of Leibniz s thinking in the sciences and in the philosophy of science in the 19th and 20th centuries Authors studied include C F Gauss Georg Cantor

Kurd Lasswitz Bertrand Russell Ernst Cassirer Louis Couturat Hans Reichenbach Hermann Weyl Kurt Gödel and Gregory Chaitin In addition we consider concepts and problems central to Leibniz's thought and that of the later authors the continuum space identity number the infinite and the infinitely small the projects of a universal language a calculus of logic a mathesis universalis etc The book brings together two fields of research in the history of philosophy and of science research on Leibniz and the research concerned with some major developments in the 19th and 20th centuries it describes how Leibniz's thought appears in the works of these authors in order to better understand Leibniz's influence on contemporary science and philosophy but it also assesses that reception critically confronting it in particular with the current state of Leibniz research and with the various editions of his work

A Companion to the Works of J. M. Coetzee Tim Mehigan, 2014-02 New essays providing critical views of Coetzee's major works for the scholar and the general reader J M Coetzee is perhaps the most critically acclaimed bestselling author of imaginative fiction writing in English today He received the Nobel Prize for Literature in 2003 and is the first writer to have been awarded two Booker Prizes The present volume makes critical views of this important writer accessible to the general reader as well as the scholar discussing Coetzee's main works in chronological order and introducing the dominant themes in the academic discussion of his oeuvre The volume highlights Coetzee's exceptionally nuanced approach to writing as both an exacting craft and a challenging moral ethical undertaking It discusses Coetzee's complex relation to apartheid and post apartheid South Africa the land of his birth and evaluates his complicated responses to the literary canon Coetzee emerges as both a modernist and a highly self aware postmodernist a champion of the truths of aliterary enterprise conducted unrelentingly in the mode of self confession
