Forming Ministers or Training Leaders? Anthony Clarke, 2021-06-15 Forming Ministers or Training Leaders is a unique book because it is based on a significant piece of empirical research Anthony Clarke explores the way that the practice among theological colleges in the UK has been changing and develops the concept of the pastoral imagination to express what a theological college is aiming to do with its students The book then offers an analysis of the pastoral imagination that is in fact at work in a selection of Baptist colleges and other theological institutions in the UK Alongside this Clarke offers a coherent and robust theological account of the work of a theological college through engaging with recent trinitarian theology and argues that this is best understood as a process of formation which embraces other ideas of training and education

The Priesthood of All Believers and the Missio Dei Henry Joseph Voss, 2016-10-25 The priesthood of all believers is a pillar undergirding Protestant ecclesiology Yet the doctrine has often been used to serve diverse agendas This book examines the doctrine s canonical catholic and contextual dimensions It first identifies the priesthood of all believers as a canonical doctrine based upon the royal priesthood of Christ and closely related to the believer s eschatological temple service and offering of spiritual sacrifices chapters 1-3 It secondly describes its catholic development by examining three paradigmatic shifts shifts especially associated with Christendom chapters 4-6 and a suppression of the doctrine s missional component Finally the book argues that a Christian doctrine of the priesthood of all believers should be developed with a Christocentric Trinitarian understanding of the missio Dei This suggests there are especially appropriate ways for the royal priesthood to relate to the Father to the Son and to the Holy Spirit A canonically and catholically informed priesthood of all believers leads contextually to particular ecclesial practices These seven practices are 1 Baptism as public ordination to the royal priesthood 2 Prayer 3 Lectio Divina 4 Ministry 5 Church Discipline 6 Proclamation and 7 the Lord s Supper as the renewal of the royal priesthood

The Community College Baccalaureate Deborah L. Floyd, Michael L. Skolnik, Kenneth P. Walker, 2023-07-03 Is the conferring of baccalaureate degrees by community colleges a solution to increasing access to and capacity in higher education Will the conferring of baccalaureate degrees restrict open access to and imperil the existing mission of community colleges What are the models and alternative methods of delivery What are the implications Breaking away from their traditional mission of conferring only associate degrees and occupational credentials an increasing number of community colleges have begun seriously to explore and indeed in some U S states and Canadian provinces to actually implement offering and conferring bachelor s degrees Some leaders see these changes as a natural extension of community colleges commitment to access while others view their awarding of baccalaureate degrees as inappropriate and threatening the basic core values of this unique sector of higher education This has become a hot and controversial topic not only among community college and university leaders but also among policy makers business leaders and students concerned with issues of access cost and the structure and purposes of post secondary education This book analyzes the emerging trend of the community college baccalaureate degree in the United States and Canada in order to contribute to the development of policy The authors aim to describe document and explain this significant development in higher education They present the background examples of practice and different models of delivery develop a common terminology to facilitate discussion give voice to the views of proponents and critics alike and include a comprehensive bibliography and set of resources This book is intended as a catalyst for dialog action and further research on this critical and emerging trend It is essential reading for leaders of community colleges for administrators and planners in higher education concerned with issues of access and articulation and anyone in public policy grappling with demographic trends and society s need for educated citizens able to meet the challenges of the future

Accountability in Missions Jonathan J. Bonk, 2011-10-21 The Korean missions movement is perhaps the most significant story of the Church in the world over the past one hundred years Today Korea can boast of being the leading sender of missionaries per head of population Yet this movement has not been well integrated into the global mission community and also this community has at times failed to understand and learn from this tremendous work of God I am excited that God has brought together a unique body of people to wrestle with these issues This work will help bring about much needed collaboration and develop each other s strengths in an environment of mutual respect MALCOLM L MCGREGOR SIM International Director Accountability in Missions is a remarkable book exploring the full range of mission accountability issues strategic financial and relational from both Korean and North American perspectives This is global missiology made practical and accessible to all missions practitioners The many articles that penetrate the mysteries of Korean and North American interaction especially make it a must read book for all Koreans and North Americans working together STEVE STRAUSS Professor of Mission and Intercultural Studies Dallas Theological Seminary This collection of essays provides a biblical and theological basis for accountability and brings voices East and West demonstrating that accountability to God and to others is a universal principle not linked to one culture or context i e Western Further the collection is eminently practical addressing matters of governance decision making finance and personal integrity To all mission leaders I say read this book Actually read it but also find colleagues with whom to discuss and digest these principles
