Mission To The Poorest:

Mission to the Poorest, 1950 Mission to the Poorest Marie Réginald Loew, Jacques Loew, 1984 The True Church and the Poor Jon Sobrino, 2004-10-29

Of Jon Sobrino's first book Christology at the Crossroads the Church Times wrote "It is radical without being reductionist. It is relentless in its refusal to let us avoid the challenge of Jesus by sliding into theological or cultic abstractions. It will stimulate, illuminate and infuriate those whose minds are jaded by the current state of British theology. And like all great theology it will bring you uncomfortably close to the living Jesus." This second book also written out of the hell of El Salvador is if anything even more powerful and uncomfortable. Dedicated to all men and women of El Salvador who have given their lives for the kingdom of God, it took shape while Bishop Romero, his priests, Christian peasant leaders and catechists lived and died. Doing theology in this situation requires that theology not only follows a specific method but that it also has a specific character. Theology in this situation becomes responsible. Theologians do not arbitrarily decide to study this or that theme; the theme is forced upon them by reality. Theology becomes practical because its motivating concern is not pure thought nor even pure truth but rather the building of the kingdom of God and of a church that will be at the service of this kingdom. Theology becomes evangelical in the true sense of that word: it is done with pleasure in the Good News and with joy that there is salvation for the poor. Finally, theology becomes a response of gratitude because its starting point is the primordial Christian experience that something has been given to us. What has been given to us is the mystery of God present in Jesus and in a church that is poor and is of the poor.

Mission Drift? Oddvar Sten Ronsbo, 2016-02-14

The Lausanne congress of 1974 marked the widespread adoption of integral mission as essential to the evangelical witness of Christ in our world. Ever since there has been ongoing debate as to the roles of evangelism and social action. In this book Oddvar Sten Ronsbo argues that instead of the priority of evangelism over social action there should be the anticipation of evangelism as a result of social action. Although evangelism and social action may not occur at the same time, the author warns of the possibility of mission drift where projects begin with the intention of meeting the social and spiritual needs of the people but fail to proceed to evangelism. In succumbing to this mission drift, projects cease to be true to the principles of integral mission. Combining theological reflection with case studies of microfinance enterprises in the Philippines and Thailand, Ronsbo evaluates the sustainability of and social good delivered by these Christian projects to the communities they serve. The research sheds light on the causes of a drift from integral mission, how these can be managed, and whether microfinance can be a bridge for the gospel.

From Microfinance to Business Planning: Escaping Poverty Traps Roberto Moro Visconti, 2014-06-01

This ground-breaking book shows how innovative microfinance solutions can help billions to avoid poverty traps and escape atavistic misery. While the success of microfinance has globally exceeded even the wildest expectations, there are still many obstacles, above all the lack of proper business planning on the side of the borrowers. Here Moro Visconti's important book comes to aid, offering bottom-up development strategies for micro credit.

driven startups and beyond His forceful analysis of poverty traps and the practical guidelines given including business plan templates as Excel sheets are designed to help practitioners and analysts alike in understanding and reaching the true potential of microfinance

Eradication of Poverty and Empowerment of the Poor Amal Raj Chellakan,2007 Poor's ,1925 The Spanish Missionary Heritage of the United States United States. National Park Service,1993 The Church as a voice of the Poor in the light of the Pact of the Catacombs of 1965 (Domitilla) Leonard Oshiokhamele Anetekhai,2021-04-26 The stance of 40 Bishops who put pen on paper to dedicate their lives and work for the Poor is in our today s world an example worth emulating and promoting To live amid plenty and not feel the pains misery and above all the anger in the eyes of the Poor is a grave sin that individuals societies and organisations with all pleasure are willing to embrace Often the question is raised Who are the Poor and the answer therein this piece of research work tries to articulate When humans created in God s image are left without essential assistance to lick their wounds as Lazarus did their rights trampled upon their voices silenced and even their deserved wages barely or not paid then we speak of the Poor In this group of persons the Poor the Bishops of the Catacomb Pack of 1965 Domitilla reminds Individuals societies organisations and indeed the Church and her leaders to see the necessity to align human social and pastoral life in the task of caring for the Poor
