

The background of the book cover is a detailed illustration of a large icebreaker ship, the USCGC Healy, navigating through a field of dark, jagged ice floes. The ship is shown from a side-on perspective, with its complex superstructure, including masts, antennas, and satellite dishes, clearly visible. The scene is set in a dark, atmospheric environment, possibly at night or in low light, with a dark sky and the ship's lights illuminating the ice. In the bottom left corner, a small polar bear stands on a single, small ice floe. A red flag is also visible on a pole near the bear.
