Enid Blyton: The Biography Barbara Stoney, 2011-08-26 Enid Blyton is known throughout the world for her imaginative children's books and her enduring characters such as Noddy and the Famous Five She is one of the most borrowed authors from British libraries and she holds a fascination for readers old and young alike Yet until 1974 when Barbara Stoney first published her official biography little was known about this most private author even members of her own family The woman who emerged from Barbara Stoney's remarkable research was hardworking complex often difficult and in many ways childlike Now this widely praised classic biography has been fully updated for the twenty first century and with the addition of new colour illustration and an extended bibliography of Enid Blyton's books it documents the growing appeal of this extraordinary woman and her writing The fascinating story of one of the world's most famous authors will once again intrigue and delight all those with an interest in her timeless books Children's Fiction 1900-1950 John Cooper, 2019-07-23 First published in 1998 this volume explores how the genre of school stories had become firmly established by the turn of the twentieth century having been built on the foundations laid by writers such as Thomas Hughes and F W Farrar Stories for girls were also taking on a more exciting complexion inspired by the Katy books of Susan Coolidge

The first five decades of the twentieth century saw further developments in children's fiction. In this comprehensive volume John and Jonathan Cooper examine each decade in turn with alphabetically arranged entries on popular children's writers that published works in English during that period. 206 different authors are covered, many from the United States and Canada. Each entry provides information on the author's pseudonyms, date of birth, nationality, titles of works, place and date of publication, and the publisher's name. The artist responsible for a book's illustrations is also identified where possible. With over 200 illustrations of cover designs and dustwrappers, many of which are now rare and have never before been published, this book will delight collectors, dealers, scholars, librarians, parents, and all those who simply enjoy reading children's fiction.

Looking For Enid Duncan McLaren, 2012-09-06 This is a strikingly inventive and unusual portrait of the most successful English writer for children until J K Rowling: Enid Blyton, who entertained millions worldwide with her myriad adventure stories and mysteries but was herself both an adventurer and a mystery. This book is for everyone who ever wondered what kind of woman Enid Blyton was. Enid Blyton gave us the Famous Five and Fatty's Find-Outers, the Enchanted Wood, and the Wishing Chair. Some of us, encouraged by austere critics, have pretended no longer to want what Enid gave. We have pretended that we were not once upon a time enthralled by her stories. We have chosen to forget how much we loved the time we spent in their company. And we have feigned disdain. Now Duncan McLaren offers lapsed devotees the possibility of honest redemption. If you're willing to acknowledge that Enid Blyton once mattered to you, you are warmly invited to accompany Duncan on an adventure that will investigate what made Enid. Enid and endeavour to reach the source of her torrent of stories, those that came when she was letting her mind go free. Merry Mister Meddle Enid Blyton, 2023-06-13 14 short stories about Mister Meddle's muddles from Sunny Stories and Enid Blyton's Magazine in the late 1940s and early 1950s. Mr Meddle's Mischief Enid Blyton, 1997 Mr Meddle is a pixie who can't get anything right. He's always meddling in other people's business and making dreadful muddles. He tries to be kind and mind the shop for Mr Sugarman but he serves salt instead of sugar to Dame Flap and canary seed instead of butter to Molly Miggle. The British National Bibliography Arthur James Wells, 2001 The English Catalogue of Books Published from January, 1835, to January, 1863, 1864 Sequels Thomas Aldred, 1955 Stock List of Junior Fiction for Libraries, 1959
