Mister Standfast The Works Of John Buchan:

Mr. Standfast John Buchan, 1923-01-01 I spent one third of my journey looking out of the window of a first class carriage the next in a local motor car following the course of a trout stream in a shallow valley and the last tramping over a ridge of downland through great beech woods to my quarters for the night In the first part I was in an infamous temper in the second I was worried and mystified but the cool twilight of the third stage calmed and heartened me and I reached the gates of Fosse Manor with a mighty appetite and a quiet mind As we slipped up the Thames valley on the smooth Great Western line I had reflected ruefully on the thorns in the path of duty For more than a year I had never been out of khaki except the months I spent in hospital They gave me my battalion before the Somme and I came out of that weary battle after the first big September fighting with a crack in my head and a D S O I had received a C B for the Erzerum business so what with these and my Matabele and South African medals and the Legion of Honour I had a chest like the High Priest s breastplate I rejoined in January and got a brigade on the eve of Arras There we had a star turn and took about as many prisoners as we put infantry over the top After that we were hauled out for a month and subsequently planted in a bad bit on the Scarpe with a hint that we would soon be used for a big push Then suddenly I was ordered home to report to the War Office and passed on by them to Bullivant and his merry men So here I was sitting in a railway carriage in a grey tweed suit with a neat new suitcase on the rack labelled C B The initials stood for Cornelius Brand for that was my name now And an old boy in the corner was asking me questions and wondering audibly why I wasn t fighting while a young blood of a second lieutenant with a wound stripe was eyeing me with scorn The old chap was one of the cross examining type and after he had borrowed my matches he set to work to find out all about me He was a tremendous fire eater and a bit of a pessimist about our slow progress in the west I told him I came from South Africa and was a mining engineer
