historicity of Poema crystallizes in the lyrical speaker's self institution as an embodied ipseity which requires producing racialized gendered allegorical figures the bearers of an abject flesh that lack any ontological resistance to modern alienation Rather than treating de Burgos's poetics of selfhood as the ideal image of Puerto Rican sovereignty Mendoza de Jes's endangers this idealization by drawing attention to the abjection that sustains our attachments to ipseity as the form of a truly sovereign life In this way Catastrophic Historicism not only resets the terms of ongoing critiques of historicism in the humanities it also intervenes in Puerto Rican historicity for the sake of its transformation
