Barnard, 2004-02-17 Master of mystery Robert Barnard internationally acclaimed for his suspenseful witty literary gems cleverly mixes past and present in A Cry from the Dark an intriguing tour de force sweeping from 1930s Australia to contemporary London Bettina Whitelaw has come a long way from her childhood in the little outback town of Bundaroo Australia Many years have passed a lifetime really but she's never forgotten what happened there on the evening that changed her life forever How could she forget the school dance her taunting classmates dancing with the strange but brilliant English boy Hughie Naismyth How could she forget what happened next when overheated and exhilarated by the music and the moment she wandered off alone into a secluded wooded area Now a renowned elderly author living in London's elegant Holland Park Bettina faces a flood of memories as she works on her memoirs even though her focus is more on the frightening things that are happening today Someone has recently entered her home and gone through her desk The intruder is clearly not an ordinary burglar It must be someone she knows She's been a little lax in handing out keys so the suspects are many her nephew Mark her agent Clare her friends Peter or Katie Or it could be someone else What does Bettina possess that this person would want to steal A puzzle that at first seems mildly disturbing soon turns deadly serious Someone is willing to kill but why Does the answer rest in Bundaroo or nearer to home A Cry from the Dark shows us vintage Robert
