Foreign Affairs, 1931 Islamic Legal Revival Leonard Wood, 2016-09-08 In this meticulously researched volume Leonard Wood presents his ground breaking history of Islamic revivalist thought in Islamic law Islamic Legal Revival Reception of European Law and Transformations in Islamic Legal Thought in Egypt 1879 1952 brings to life the tumultuous history of colonial interventions in Islamic legal consciousness during the nineteenth and early twentieth centuries It tells the story of the rapid displacement of local Egyptian and Islamic law by transplanted European codes and details the evolution of resultant movements to revive Islamic law Islamic legal revivalist movements strove to develop a modern version of Islamic law that could be codified and would replace newly imposed European laws Wood explains in unparalleled depth and with nuance how cutting edge trends in European legal scholarship inspired influential revivalists and informed their methods in legal thought Timely and provocative Islamic Legal Revival tells of the rich achievements of legal experts in Egypt who disrupted tradition in Islamic jurisprudence and created new approaches to Islamic law that were distinctively responsive to demands of the contemporary world The story told bears important implications for understandings of Egyptian history Islamic legal history comparative law and deeply contested and highly transformative interactions between European and Islamic thought The Late Ottoman Empire and Egypt Elizabeth Shlala, 2017-07-31 Law and identification transgressed political boundaries in the nineteenth century Levant Over the course of the century Italo Levantines elite and common exercised a strategy of resilient hybridity whereby an unintentional form of legal imperialism took root in Egypt This book contributes to a vibrant strand of global legal history that places law and other social structures at the heart of competing imperial projects British Ottoman Egyptian and Italian among them Analysis of the Italian consular and mixed court cases and diplomatic records in Egypt and Istanbul reveals the complexity of shifting identifications and judicial reform in two parts of the interactive and competitive plural legal regime The rich court records show that binary relational categories fail to capture the complexity of the daily lives of the residents and courts of the late Ottoman empire Over time and acting in their own self interests these actors exploited the plural legal regime Case studies in both Egypt and Istanbul explore how identification developed as a legal form of property itself Whereas the classical literature emphasized external state power politics this book builds upon new work in the field that shows the interaction of external and internal power struggles throughout the region led to assorted forms of confrontation collaboration and negotiation in the region It will be of interest to students scholars and readers of Middle East Ottoman and Mediterranean history It will also appeal to anyone wanting to know more about cultural history in the nineteenth century and the historical roots of contemporary global debates on law migration and identities
