Digital Communications at Crossroads in Africa Kehbuma Langmia, Agnes Lucy Lando, 2020-04-27 Digital communication as it is practiced in Africa today is at a crossroad This edited collection takes that crossroad as its starting point as it both examines the complicated present and looks to the uncertain future of African communication systems Contributing authors explore how western digital communication systems have proliferated in the African communication landscape and argue that rich and long cherished African forms of communal in person communication have been increasingly abandoned in favor of assimilation to western digital norms As a result future generations of Africans born on the continent and abroad may never recognize and appreciate African systems of communications Acknowledging that globalized digital communication systems are here to stay the volume contends that in order to comprehend the past present and future of African communications scholars need to the dynamics of national literature and national identity itself The dream of the G A N as Henry James nicknamed it crystallized soon after the Civil War In fresh in depth readings of selected contenders from the 1850s onward in conversation with hundreds of other novels Buell delineates four scripts for G A N candidates One illustrated by The Scarlet Letter is the adaptation of the novel s story line by later writers often in ways that are contrary to the original author s own design Other aspirants including The Great Gatsby and Invisible Man engage the American Dream of remarkable transformation from humble origins A third script seen in Uncle Tom s Cabin and Beloved is the family saga that grapples with racial and other social divisions Finally mega novels from Moby Dick to Gravity s Rainbow feature assemblages of characters who dramatize in microcosm the promise and pitfalls of democracy The canvas of the great American novel is in constant motion reflecting revolutions in fictional fashion the changing face of authorship and the inseparability of high culture from popular As Buell reveals the elusive G A N showcases the myth of the United States as a nation perpetually under construction Time Briton Hadden, Henry R.
