Mode Of Production The Challenge Of Africa:

Mode of production, 1985      □□□□□□□□, 1986      The Articulation of Modes of Production Harold Wolpe, 2023-08-11
First published in 1980 The Articulation of Modes of Production is primarily concerned with the concept of articulation of modes of production and with the analysis of a number of different social formations utilizing this concept The emphasis is on the relationship between capitalist and other modes of production and on accounts of specific social formations which demonstrate the analytical power of the concept but at the same time reveal a number of as yet unresolved problems The introduction to the collection takes these problems at its starting point and through a discussion of the theoretical literature provides the basis for a more rigorous and complete analysis of social formations This book will be of interest to students of economics social policy and history      Modes of Production in Africa Donald Crummey, Charles Cameron Stewart, 1981-04 What form does social inequality take without classes How does the ecology of an area in particular the Zaire basin interact with social organization What forms of production existed in different areas What were the effects of mercantile capitalism on tribal production These questions and more are tackled with a view to increasing our understanding of industrial development in precolonial Africa      Local Suppliers Of Credit In The Third World 1750-1960 K Sugihara, Gareth Austin, 2015-12-24      Living with Africa Jan Vansina, 1994 In 1952 a young Belgian scholar of European medieval history traveled to the Belgian Congo now Zaire to live in a remote Kuba village Armed with a smattering of training in African cultures and language Jan Vansina was sent to do fieldwork for a Belgian cultural agency As it turned out he would help found the field of African history with a handful of other European and African scholars I m not an ethnologist I m a historian Vansina was to repeat again and again to those who assumed that people without written texts have no history His discovery that he could analyze Kuba oral tradition using the same methods he had learned for interpreting medieval dirges was a historiographical breakthrough and his first book Oral Tradition as History is considered the seminal work that gave the study of precolonial African history both the scholarly justification and the self confidence it had been lacking Living with Africa is a compelling memoir of Vansina s life and career on three continents interwoven with the story of African history as a scholarly specialty In the background of his narrative are the collapse of colonialism in Africa and the emergence of newly independent nations in the foreground are the first conferences on African history the founding of journals and departments and the efforts of Africans to establish a history curriculum for the schools in their new nations      Old Modes of Production and Capitalist Encroachment Wim Van Binsbergen, Peter Geschiere, 2013-10-28 First published in 1985 This book is the result of a long series of meetings of the Amsterdam Work group for Marxist Anthropology extending over a number of years starting from 1977 It has some changes and expansions from the original Dutch version      Technology, Gender, and Power in Africa Patricia Stamp, International Development Research Centre (Canada), 1990 Technology Gender and Power in Africa      African Economic History, 1987      Port Cities and Intruders Michael N. Pearson, 2002-10-14

Selected by Choice Magazine as an Outstanding Academic Title In Port Cities and Intruders historian Michael Pearson explores the role of port cities and their orientation relations between the coast and the interior the place of the coast in the world economy and the impact of the Portuguese in the early modern period      Sustainability Challenges in Sub-Saharan Africa II Alexandros Gasparatos, Merle Naidoo, Abubakari Ahmed, Alice Karanja, Kensuke Fukushi, Osamu Saito, Kazuhiko Takeuchi, 2020-09-05 The aim of this two volume book series is to highlight some of the most pervasive sustainability challenges that Sub Saharan Africa faces The two volumes contain 20 chapters that illustrate very diverse sustainability challenges throughout the continent adopting interdisciplinary and problem oriented research approaches and methods from the natural and the social sciences The very diverse case study chapters are put into perspective with chapters that introduce key sustainability challenges using a regional focus Through this multi scale and interdisciplinary approach the two volumes provide an authoritative source about the major sustainability challenges in the continent and how to mobilise such perspectives to develop appropriate solutions The two volumes have a uniquely broad focus that fills a major gap in the emerging Sustainability Science scholarship Parts I II highlight specific case studies on major sustainability challenges from Eastern and Southern Africa Part III synthesizes the main lessons learnt from the chapters in the two edited volumes

Africa: Facing Human Security Challenges in the 21st Century Mentan, Tatah, 2014-05-12 Africa s dynamic security environment is characterized by great diversity from conventional challenges such as insurgencies resource and identity conflicts and post conflict stabilization to growing threats from piracy narcotics trafficking violent extremism and organized crime taking root in urban slums among others This precarious environment jeopardizes security at the societal community and individual levels In a globalized and interconnected world millions of people worldwide are affected by some form of human insecurity Infectious and parasitic diseases annually kill millions Internally displaced persons number millions including 5 million in Sudan alone In Zambia 1 million people in a population of 11 million are reported to be HIV positive a situation much worse in other countries Potable water crisis looms almost everywhere In this book Tatah Mentan points out the need to shift the focus away from a state centric and military strategic emphasis on security to an interdisciplinary and people centric approach that embraces notions like global citizenship empowerment and participation The primary elements of economic food health environment personal community and political security all comprise the broader understanding of human security in an intricately interconnected world      The International Journal of African Historical Studies ,1997

The State, Identity, and the National Question in China and Japan Germaine A. Hoston, 2021-02-09 The first decades of the twentieth century witnessed an explosion of nationalist sentiment in East Asia as in Europe This comprehensive work explores how radical Chinese and Japanese thinkers committed to social change in this turbulent era addressed issues concerning national identity social revolution and the role of the national state in achieving socio economic development Focusing on the adaptation of anarchism and then Marxism Leninism to non European contexts Germaine

Houston shows how Chinese and Japanese theorists attempted to reconcile a relatively new appreciation for the nation state with their allegiance to a vision of internationalist socialist revolution culminating in stateless socialism. Given the influence of Western experience on Marxism, Chinese and Japanese theorists found the Marxian national question to be not merely one of whether the working man has no country but rather the much more fundamental issue of the relative value of Eastern and Western cultures. Marxism argues Houston thus placed native Marxists in tension with their own heritage and national identity. The author traces efforts to resolve this tension throughout the first half of the twentieth century and concludes by examining how the tension persists as Chinese and Japanese dissidents seek identity affirming modernity in accordance with the Western democratic model.

Labour and Living Standards in Pre-Colonial West Africa Klas Rönnbäck, 2015-11-19 Sub Saharan Africa is the poorest region in the world. But its current status has skewed our understanding of the economy before colonization. Rönnbäck reconstructs the living standards of the population at a time when the Atlantic slave trade brought money and men into the area, enriching our understanding of West African economic development.

African Cinema: Manifesto and Practice for Cultural Decolonization Michael T. Martin, Gaston Jean-Marie Kaboré, 2023-08-08 Challenging established views and assumptions about traditions and practices of filmmaking in the African diaspora, this three volume set offers readers a researched critique on black film. Volume Two of this landmark series on African cinema is devoted to the decolonizing mediation of the Pan African Film Television Festival of Ouagadougou (FESPACO), the most important inclusive and consequential cinematic convocation of its kind in the world. Since its creation in 1969, FESPACO's mission is in principle remarkably unchanged: to unapologetically recover, chronicle, affirm, and reconstitute the representation of the African continent and its global diasporas of people, thereby enunciating in the cinematic all manner of Pan African identity experience and the futurity of the Black World. This volume features historically significant and commissioned essays, commentaries, conversations, dossiers, and programmatic statements and manifestos that mark and elaborate the key moments in the evolution of FESPACO over the span of the past five decades.

Exiting the Factory (Volume 1) Alexander Gallas, 2024-07-01 In this important book, Gallas asks what strikes in non-industrial sectors mean for class formation, a critical question which has largely been unaddressed by the current literature on global labour unrest. A mapping of strikes around the world and case studies from Germany, Britain, and Spain cast new light on class relations, struggles around waged and unwaged work, and labour movements in contemporary capitalism, to bring class theory back to labour studies. This is a valuable resource for academics and students of employment relations, sociology, and politics.

Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Goran Hyden, 2023-11-10 Beyond Ujamaa in Tanzania Underdevelopment and an Uncaptured Peasantry explores the challenges of development and underdevelopment in Africa with a focus on Tanzania's experience during its early socialist years. The book critiques the dominant ideologies of development, whether capitalist or socialist, as being rooted in Western industrial paradigms that often fail to address the realities of pre-capitalist African societies. It argues that the underdevelopment in Africa is not solely due to excessive penetration by global capitalism but also to capitalism's inability to dismantle the resilient pre capitalist structures in many rural societies. The author highlights the role of the Tanzanian peasantry whose economic and social autonomy often resists the centralizing tendencies of modern development, presenting them not as mere appendages to the global economy but as key players with their own modes of production and unique societal structures. The book is grounded in over a decade of fieldwork and engagement with rural Tanzanian communities, enriched by the author's fluency in Swahili and deep involvement in local life. It argues for a more nuanced approach to studying African societies, one that goes beyond Western assumptions and models. By placing the peasant mode of production at the center of analysis, the study challenges conventional wisdom and suggests that the primary development challenge in Africa lies not with multinational corporations but with understanding and working within the dynamics of the smallholder peasant economy. The author also reflects on the limitations of conventional social science research and calls for greater involvement in the lived realities of the communities studied, emphasizing the need for research methods that are sensitive to local contexts and values. The book combines academic critique, field observations, and a focus on the epistemological biases of Western scholarship to present a compelling argument for rethinking development in Africa. This title is part of UC Press's Voices Revived program, which commemorates University of California Press's mission to seek out and cultivate the brightest minds and give them voice, reach, and impact. Drawing on a backlist dating to 1893, Voices Revived makes high quality peer reviewed scholarship accessible once again using print on demand technology. This title was originally published in 1980. Canadian Journal of African Studies, 1987 Mode of Production Henry Heller, Peter Kulchyski, 2025-09-18. Mode of Production: The Final Horizon of Practice and Theory reinvigorates the Marxist concept mode of production by showing how it continues to have a central place in understanding the broad sweep of human history while also offering crucial resources to inform social justice activism today. Drawing on recent materialist theory and newer insights from historical and anthropological scholarship, the book discusses the three modes of production that existed, the conflicts between them, the importance of Indigenous struggles to socialism, and explicates a materialist contemporary cultural politics. The book offers a pathway for activism and theory through the wide range of contemporary hegemonies.
