Model for Christian Wholeness Dan Ivins,1985      Christian Wholism John B. Wong,2002 In this stimulating work Dr Wong propounds Christian Wholism as a path to peace and joy as well as healing for our brokenness and lostness in the postmodern world Wong discusses what it means to be whole in our spiritual intellectual physical ethical psychological and other domains of our multidimensional personhood Some practical suggestions are offered He voices a hope in God s promise of a resurrected body as the gift of ultimate wholeness      Christian Mind in the Emerging World Peter Tze Ming Ng,Wing Tai Leung,Vaughan King Tong Mak,2018-10-31 In response to challenges from the emerging world this book brings together essays that discuss and exemplify various related approaches to academic faith integration and explore how Christian faith should underpin scaffold and frame our understanding of academic disciplines leading to practical implications for work or action in modern society and culture Written by Christian scholars and practitioners from diverse backgrounds including the USA the UK Australia China Hong Kong South Korea and the Philippines the contributions here all contribute a global perspective while addressing some specific issue or case in the context of Asia They represent ingenious endeavors that illustrate the workings of a faith integrated approach in domains as wide as higher education business science psychology and counseling politics environment media social services leadership research and technology This volume will inform and inspire the reader into cross cultural and inter disciplinary studies particularly of religion education culture society and worldview      Christian Couples Coping with Childlessness Auli Vahakangas,2009-06-01 Children are the focus of marriage in African cultures Marriage is considered full and functional only if the couple has children in many cultures preferably a boy Becoming a parent also contributes to one s full adulthood in the sense that childlessness blocks ascent towards full personal dignity as an adult person in the community As a result childlessness is often a major disaster for both of the spouses It has social economical and personal consequences quite often including divorce This book explores in depth how childlessness is perceived dealt with and coped with in two Christian communities in Machame on the slopes of Mt Kilimanjaro Childlessness is approached through narratives of the spouses concerned and the members of their communities Their stories reveal pain and courage brokenness and strength faithfulness and betrayal Christianity presents itself in an ambiguous light on one hand pressuring spouses to keep up facades supporting oppressive structures On the other hand Christian faith provides childless couples with personal hope in the afterlife that the African traditional culture offers only to those with children This study proves that childlessness is not only a personal but also a communal problem Childlessness and the fear of having no children contribute to family structures and sexual behavior In this way they have a considerable impact on the spread of HIV AIDS in Africa However this study reveals that the attitudes and practices towards marriage and children need not be petrified but rather that traditions can and do change      Liberating Faith Roger S.
