Canopies Of Blue: Major Channing M. Greene Jr.,2015-11-06 As America s collective memory of the Second World War fades popular history books and the entertainment industry have filled the knowledge gap with accounts from the European Theater A resurgence in works focusing on the war in the Pacific has surfaced in recent years but the topic still requires a fresh perspective In particular the American airborne experience in the Pacific presents a field ripe for exploration This historical monograph argues that a careful review of the operations involving the 11th Airborne Division the 503rd Parachute Infantry Regiment and the 1st Marine Parachute Battalion reveals a measure of foresight on the part of those who designed campaign plans in the Pacific General Joseph Swing s implementation of the Paraglider concept in the 11th Airborne enabled his unit to perform a variety of tasks including amphibious operations parachute drops and POW camp raids The Allies only independent parachute regiment in the Pacific the 503rd successfully employed the combined arms concept in its capture of Nadzab and set the conditions for the Allied reduction of Japanese defenses around Rabaul The United States Marine Corps short lived experiment with airborne forces revealed the usefulness of units in multi role functions but ultimately betrayed an inability to execute actual parachute drops because of logistical limitations in the ocean environment      Arms and the Men Ian Hay,1950      Technical Manual United States Department of the Army,1972      Introduction to UAV Systems Paul G.
