Fox emphasizes the crucial relationship between lay ecclesial ministers and the Church's response to them in light of the many developments in recent years. Written in a clear crisp style the book is divided into three parts. Part one describes the present reality both sociological research about who these new lay professionals are and a review of the ways in which theologians are reflecting upon this new phenomenon. The second part explores the new reality from the standpoint of tradition including Scripture the documents of Vatican II and the work of U.S. bishops. The final part assesses this reality in light of the tradition and outlines steps needed to more fully integrate lay leaders into the fabric of the Church.

African Traditional Religion in the Modern World, 2d ed. Douglas E. Thomas, 2015-05-21 African traditional religion encompasses a variety of non dogmatic spiritual practices followed by millions around the world. Some scholars argue it is related to the Nubian religion of Egypt's Dynastic Period. In an expanded second edition this book examines the nature of African traditional religion and describes common attributes of various cultural belief systems with an emphasis on West Africa. Principal elements studied include sacrifice salvation and culture modes of revelation divination and African resilience in the face of invasion and colonization. The religious experiences of black people throughout the Americas are also covered. The author finds the cosmology symbolism and rituals of the Yoruba culture to be the fundamental bases of African traditional religion and draws similarities between the oral and written literature of West Africans and that of New World practitioners. The influence of Islam and Christianity is also discussed. Instructors considering this book for use in a course may request an examination copy here.

American Book Publishing Record, 2006 Through Spiritual Trials Francis Wagner, 2014-08-12 Seen and largely unnoticed the inner dialogue of the wounded soul contributes greatly to the collective exterior troubles of the world at large which are really only symptoms of a much deeper problem. Doubt anger malice sorrow and fear are just a few of the spiritual trials that afflict the human heart. However the Catholic tradition offers us sure fire remedies not to remove our trials but to transform them by God's grace into good for ourselves and the world around us. This book presents valuable insight into how we can move through our spiritual trials and be renewed in faith peace mercy joy and love for the good of all. This five chapter book focuses on themes originally published as individual titles in our Catholic Perspectives CareNotes series. Softcover volume is edited by Br Francis Wagner O.S.B. and features an introduction.
