Preparing For The Cuny Act Reading And Writing Test:

Preparing for the CUNY-ACT Reading and Writing Test Patricia Licklider, 2003-09      Preparing for the CUNY-ACT Reading and Writing Exam Eileen Ferretti, Ronna Levy, 2009-03      Reading Skills Handbook Harvey S. Wiener, Charles Bazerman, 2005-08

Reading Skills Handbook 9 e teaches the essential reading and study skills required for success in college. The cornerstone of the Wiener/Bazerman System, Reading Skills Handbook 9 e retains the features that have made it a bestseller for more than twenty-five years: flexible format, high interest readings, clear explanations, and a multitude of practice exercises. The step-by-step approach encourages students to move with confidence from simple to more complex skills. An anthology of readings helps students apply newly learned skills in selections drawn from books, magazines, and newspapers, and including essays, articles, textbook pages, journals, fiction, photographs, illustrations, cartoons, advertisements, and Web sites in short. The wide range of reading opportunities available to today's readers at home or on the job.

Keys to Successful Writing Marilyn Anderson, 2005. Keys to Successful Writing helps readers become better writers by presenting simple, consistently applicable tools and techniques. The book's organization flows from simple to more complex essays. The text focuses on five keys to successful essay writing: purpose, focus, material, structure, and style. This distinctive heuristic developed by the author helps readers focus on the skills and ways of thinking that will make them stronger writers. Featuring a user-friendly, highly accessible writing style, the text presents clear, specific strategies for writing combined with examples that are engaging, provocative, and contemporary. An editing handbook is also included for a complete writing resource. A series of interactive writing exercises and activities and longer writing assignments give the text a predictable organizational structure that's easy to learn from. For those interested in improving their writing skills.

Basic Reading Skills Handbook Harvey S. Wiener, Charles Bazerman, 2005-07. A famous painting is going to the Grierson Gallery in LA and they want a top man to come to the United States. He can talk about the artist. The National Gallery in London send Mr Bean. But something is very wrong with Mr Bean. He's very very strange and dangerous. After he arrives accidents start to happen.

Bridging the Gap Brenda D. Smith, 2008      The Reading Context Dorothy U. Seyler, 2003-07. The Reading Context provides extensive reading skills practice at a new value price of under $25. Designed for developmental reading courses, Grades 9-12. The Reading Context emphasizes reading as a three-step prepare-read-respond process. The book starts where developing readers need to start with an explanation of the context created by author, work, and reader. It also stresses the importance of thinking about who the writer is, what the author's purpose is, what kind of work students are about to read, and what they can expect to gain from it. Reading selections have been chosen to hold student interest while representing the kinds of material they will meet in college assignments: textbook material from business to psychology, from advertising to history, from health to education. Chapters are filled with short prose pieces for illustration and practice, and each chapter concludes with two or three longer reading selections. In each chapter, clear explanations of each reading skill are supported.

by numerous exercises      Efficient and Flexible Reading Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2008 Encouraging students to read actively and critically to approach reading as a thinking process and to analyze their own reading and learning strategies Efficient and Flexible Reading teaches students how to vary their approach to written texts based on the material and their purpose for reading Efficient and Flexible Reading teaches students how to identify text structures and thought patterns for more efficient learning Emphasizing reading as an active thinking process the author presents systems for monitoring concentration comprehension and recall encouraging students to assess the reading assignment and to select the appropriate strategy to suit the situation      Reviewing Basic Grammar Mary Laine Yarber, Robert E. Discovery William J. Kelly, Deborah L. Lawton, 2003-07 The first in a series of two full color worktexts for the developmental writing market Discovery focuses on helping students build better sentence and paragraph writing skills With its encouraging tone Careful explanations and abundance of precisely sequenced and incrementally challenging exercise sets. Discovery enables students to view writing as a means of discovering more about themselves and their surroundings. The book starts with an overview of the writing process and special attention is given to prewriting and the development of topic and supporting sentences. Parts 2 through 5 provide lucid and well illustrated explanations of basic sentence elements, grammar, punctuation, and mechanics. Part 6 is a section of student and professional reading selections which include an introduction on critical reading and comprehension and contain numerous writing exercises. An appendix provides practical advice for ESL writers studying English grammar and writing. For anyone interested in improving basic writing skills.

Reading Across the Disciplines Kathleen T. McWhorter, 2004-04. Reading Across the Disciplines has been a popular textbook with instructors whose students do not require an abundance of skill instruction and who teach college reading through the use of readings from across the disciplines. To prepare students for the expectations of higher education, Kathleen McWhorter uses high interest readings from a variety of academic sources and provides concise reading skills with immediate practice for reinforcement. Discipline specific reading skills offer tips for reading and learning within the particular discipline so students learn content as well as strategy.
